

A CALL FOR FALSE HEALERS AND WORD-OF-FAITH PREACHERS TO PROVE THEMSELVES

There's a common phrase out there that says "when life gives you lemons, make lemonade." I like that saying because it's basically saying that you can turn things around to make things better. Of course, for we true believers in Yeshua, we also insert "help us to make lemonade," to the phrase because apart from Him we can do nothing.

For decades now we have been bombarded by so called "healers" that get their own television shows and they "supposedly" heal people. Don't get me wrong, I do believe that there are legitimate healers that the Ruach Ha Kodesh uses to heal people, but it is always in Yahweh's timing, and not on demand of the healer. I have been healed of things, and not by having someone lay hands on me, but by asking Yahweh for a healing and recognizing that I don't have the resources to go to a doctor. I had a molar tooth that the dentist told me would have to be removed and a bridge placed. I didn't have the money to pay for such a problem and it did hurt, so I prayed for Yahweh to fix it. I then put it out of my mind. When I did have coverage, I went to a second dentist for his opinion. I noticed that there was no more pain and wanted to know what happened. He tapped and banged on the tooth, tried to move it around and took x-rays. He told me that the tooth was not cracked nor did he see any evidence that it ever was cracked in half. That was a healing. So, I know that Yeshua does heal through His Ruach.

I have always been bothered by grandstanders who get up on stages of churches with the auditoriums filled with people needing healing. They seem to have "words of knowledge" about certain people who need healing and it appears that those people get that healing. I'm reminded of people like Peter Popoff, a supposed healer who, back in the 1980 was revealed to be a false healer when it was disclosed that he was calling out certain people by the supposed "word of knowledge" of the Ruach Ha Kodesh for healing. People were amazed that he "knew" that these people needed healing and it led to a great popularity of Popoff. There is a quite humorous rendition of this in the movie "Fletch Lives," a Chevy Chase movie where he finds out about such a scam and reveals it. Supposedly, the Popoff revelation is what caused the writer of the movie to include such a scenario in the film.

These days we're seeing a lot of falseness in the Church. Not only are there false doctrines like Replacement Theology, Dominion Theology, NAR and other things, but the false healer ministries are still drawing the ignorant in with false signs and wonders. We were told by

Yeshua, that in the Last Days there would be many false shepherds, but we were also warned that in the beginning of sorrows there would be a lot of sicknesses and other things:

And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Matthew 24:6-8

Yes, the beginning of sorrows is here and if you can't recognize this, then you have bigger problems than we are talking about here. The Greek word used for "pestilence" in this passage is "loimos" and it means a plague of pests or disease. We've seen both of these increasing at an alarming rate. The alarming thing, where healers are concerned is that they are ignoring the commission of Yeshua. These wolves tend to form large meetings of people and most of them are believers already, or they think that they are believers. Yeshua always sent His followers "out" to the people. He didn't tell them to gather the sick, infirm and demon possessed into large audiences. He didn't tell them to go onto mountaintops to call people together. They were to walk amongst people and Yahweh would lead people to them. It ALWAYS worked that way in the Book of Acts. If there were crowds of people, those people would come to them because they heard that the Apostles were in town. They didn't have to buy tickets to see the Apostles and the Apostles always gave glory to Yahweh.

So why do these wolves not go out into the populace to do their works? The answer is simple; they do not control the situation when in such an atmosphere. They cannot select the people that they want to heal and they are afraid that they will be revealed for the charlatans that they really are. Once revealed, they lose the popularity and pomp that they have gained and of course, the bank account starts to dwindle and they have to give up the big house, the fancy car and their following. God forbid, they might be humbled and get saved.

So, now I come to my challenge to these wolves. We're starting to see a lot of strange diseases arising here in the states. Right now, there is an Ebola scare, and people have a right to be scared because this thing will most probably blow into a full pandemic. So, in this Blog entry, and also on our Opposing the Matrix radio show this next coming Saturday, I'm calling out false healers and real healers to step into the Ebola crisis and all other health crisis' that come onto the scene. Now, I don't mean that you hold prayer meetings, or offer prayers during your on-stage events. I mean that you get on airplanes and go to the Ebola patients and lay hands on them. Real men of Yahweh step out in faith, and if you claim to have the gift of healing then you should use that faith to realize that if your gift is real, you won't come down with the disease because Yahweh will protect you. For the real healers, I pray blessings and Yahweh's guidance in all matters concerning this. For you false healers, people like Kenneth Copeland, Benny Hinn, Todd Bentley, Peter Popoff, Morris Cerullo, Rodney Howard Brown and others, I pray that you will be drawn to go like a moth is drawn to a flame. Drawn, not by faith, but by your wanton need for popularity and fame, and of course Mammon. I pray a drenching of the offering wood before you get there and that the fire not be lit. I pray that this will show you for the people you really are, the asps and wolves that claim to be sheep and the tares that claim to be wheat. I pray that Yahweh do as he wishes with you and that you either come clean, or you are taken in your lies and deceit. I pray that the Glory of Yahweh will reveal your darkness and that you will no longer be able to deceive.

I know that some of you will decline my challenge, yes most of you will and that will be a revealing too. You're caught in a two-way trap, false healers and no matter what you do your actions (fruits) will reveal you for who you are. And I for one cannot wait to see what He has in store for you. We will give Yahweh the Glory, for the day of the false shepherd, the false prophet, the false healer and everyone false who calls him or herself by the name of Yahweh will be no more. Soon, you will be cast to the four winds by the breath of the Ruach Ha Kodesh and you will be no more. Elohim will not be mocked!
