

A Counterfeit Resurrection?

As many of you know, I've been a Messianic Researcher in the UFO Realm. I've had a variety of interests in UFO, aliens and the anomalous since I was a child. Granted, the first 15 years or so was before I received a new life in Yeshua, but after my conversion I saw the light of what is really happening with all of this UFO stuff and the propaganda that is promoted to make the public believe in that phenomenon.

One of the questions that most in the secular realm who research UFOs and aliens always have is what are the purposes of abduction? Why abduct so many people for genetic material when the basic human genome can be found in ten or less individuals? Why would studies show that upwards of three to five percent of all Americans have been abducted? Many Christians who look into the phenomenon ask the same questions. There are those of us who are willing to look outside the box for answers. There are those of us who want to know the answers to those questions, no matter what the truth might be. We aren't willing to ask questions and sticking our heads in the sand to avoid the answer because it might be something that we're not prepared to hear.

Again the question raises its ugly head. Why abduct so many people? Well, one reason that is quite evident, taking into account the propagation of UFO disciples around the world; they are indoctrinating people to spread the alien gospel. A simple scan of the channel menu of any cable or satellite provider shows a constant barrage of programs about ancient aliens, UFO investigators and pseudo-scientific alien abduction research. If one chooses, they could watch programs about aliens, UFOs and paranormal research from the moment that they rise in the morning until they go to sleep. The alien gospel is as prevalent on television as televangelists were twenty years ago. The alien gospel has replaced the true Gospel of Yeshua Ha Mashiach, in the media anyway.

Now, what I'm about to present might send some of you away labeling me as a crackpot or a lunatic, but frankly, I don't care what you think. The truth is the truth no matter how much people don't like it. Murder was murder during the Holocaust even if the Nazi State sanctioned it. Robbery is robbery even if the Federal government says that you need to pay taxes or you will go to jail. Adultery is adultery even if someone uses a myriad of excuses to make it right in the eyes of their friends. Get the picture? I have always been a proponent of praying about everything that I see and hear. The Ruach Ha Kodesh is the only bearer of truth and He is the only person who can enable us to discern between truth and lies. If what I present is too far off for you; if it makes you mad; if it makes you scratch your head and walk away or if it sends you away screaming into the night; all I ask is that you take the information and pray about it and ask Yahweh to reveal the truth to you. I think that's pretty fair, don't you?

We will now start out with a little refresher in human biology. The human male has a seed and that is called sperm. A human woman has the egg. Procreation dictates that males and females have some sort of union, whether it be in-vivo or in-vitro, (meaning that male sex cells have union with female sex cells); one male cell enters the egg of the female and through cell division and ultimate cell diversity a human is born somewhere around nine months after the union. By the way, with the formation of the first cell, the embryo is a human. He or she has all 46 chromosomes that designate them to be human. They are no less viable for life then you or I would be if we were dropped in the Alaskan wilderness in the dead of winter without winter clothing. Those who say that a fetus isn't viable until a certain age would not be viable in the scenario that I just proposed. Enough said about that, and I digress. By the way, for those of you who lack knowledge in Latin, vivo is Latin for life, or within the life or body; vitro means outside the body, or in a laboratory. With that knowledge we can ascertain that in-vivo means life created with a female's body and in-vitro means life created in a laboratory, or outside a body. Now we have had a refresher in human development and procreation. Let's move on.

Let me take a moment to blow your mind a little more and to make you really think that I'm crazy, or at best misinformed. I do not believe in aliens as the world defines them. The world sees aliens as extraterrestrials; space brothers from other worlds or galaxies. After all, that is what they purport themselves to be and that is what their disciples are purporting, but I don't buy that lie. Again, why would beings that are so advanced not be able to get all genetic information from just ten or so humans around the world. Our own science-fiction writers have proposed things like tricorders (remember Star Trek?) to read the human body and all of its ills and structure, right? So, why would aliens, who are supposedly so advanced that we are compared to ants in development compared to them; why would they resolve to use barbaric and sadistic operative means to obtain the information that they need? If they were closer to god, or were gods themselves, why cause all of the pain, strife and mental anguish that these beings bring about? Perhaps it is because they're not who they say that they are, hmmm? We'll explore who they really are later, but continue on knowing that the evidence shows (me and many others) that they are not from other planets, galaxies, our future or other popular theories.

Wow, I haven't sent you away in disgust yet? Well, let me continue and we'll see if you are able to handle the truth, or at least read to the end before you totally demonize me or the idea that I will present.

Having looked at human procreation and how it's done, let's delve a little farther into the alien abduction event. People of all ages, genders and races are taken by the abductors. Children who are abducted are for the most part put through a reeducation regimen. They are indoctrinated to believe that they are a new and special generation that will bring about a repopulation of earth after some sort of cataclysm. They are told that they are special and many times they are told that they are not the seed of their parents, but have been created by the alien abductors. Adults are many times put through the reeducation regimen, but they are also robbed of genetic material. Woman abductees are told that their eggs are being taken for research and males have their semen extracted. Sometimes the males are made to have sexual union with each other or with the alien abductors. Sometimes the women are presented with strange looking babies or young children and the women are told that the children need to be held by a human female, or, they are told that the babies are really their children.

Wait a minute! Remember our little recap of human sexuality? What is the main reason for humans to have sexual union? What has been the purpose of that union throughout all of human history? The purpose is to procreate and to make children; to populate the earth. Could the purpose of the alien abductors be the same? After all, why harvest so many eggs and take so much sperm? Again, it probably isn't so that they can study the human genome. Such advanced beings should have been able to ascertain that after just a few abductions. The only thing that makes one damn lick of sense is that they want to fertilize the eggs with the sperm and they want to create children in-vitro.

Before we continue, we need to take a side trip to explain more. I have said that I don't believe that these beings come from other planets. If they're not from other planets, or galaxies; if they're not from parallel universes, our future or any of the "popular" explanations, then where can they come from. In my book, "Unholy Communion..." I presented written evidence from scientific researchers like Jacques Vallee, J. Allen Hynek and various others, that these beings seem to have more of an interdimensional aspect to them. Vallee and a few others even equated them to being, are you ready for this, DEMONIC in nature. I know that this is a hard pill to swallow, but when a renown scientist who has done extensive research in this field makes such a statement you have to put some weight behind the idea. Now, take that and add to it that in a few of the abduction cases, the very scenarios of them creating a new race of “more evolved” humans have been told to the abductees themselves by their abductors. Pretty damning evidence.

If these beings are indeed demonic in nature then it brings a whole “scriptural” element into the story. Does scripture talk about such a thing? Could there be inferences that talk about aliens in scripture, but perhaps using different wording? What is an alien anyway, how is the word defined?

From the Oxford Online Dictionary:

- a foreigner, especially one who is not a naturalized citizen of the country where they are living: an illegal alien
- a hypothetical or fictional being from another world.
- a plant or animal species originally introduced from another country and later naturalized.

The origin of the word is even more interesting:

- Middle English: via Old French from Latin alienus ‘belonging to another’, from alius ‘other’.

If one delves into the definitions and origin it can be quite alarming. We see the first definition meaning that they are a foreigner from another country. It could easily be amended to mean a foreigner from another reality, another dimension or from a supernatural reality. The second definition talks about an alien being a plant or animal species originally introduced from another country and later naturalized. That could easily be amended to introduce it as an animal or species or being that is introduced from another country or dimension or reality, and later naturalized. That is scary. The real interesting thing however is the word origin; Latin, the word alienus, meaning belonging to another. Another what; another type of being, another reality, another dimension? Vallee, Hynek and others said they seem to come from other dimensions or realities and that they act in a demonic manner. The puzzle pieces are beginning to come together.

I asked above if there could be a scriptural mention of such beings, right? Yes, there are such mentions. Take the Genesis Six account:

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Genesis 6:4

The Hebrew word for “sons of God” is B’nai Elohim, and in the Tanakh (the Old Testament) is always ascribed to angels. Here are some examples:

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them. Job 1:6

Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the Lord. Job 2:1

When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? Job 38:7

All of the instances where “sons of God” are mentioned are the Hebrew words B’nai Elohim. It is clear from the accounts in the Book of Job, that the sons of God are spiritual beings. It is also clear from the Genesis account that the sons of God were not men because there is a clear delineation between the two initial entities. One is daughters of men, in other words, humans, and the other is beings other than human. The offspring of the union in Genesis are translated as Giants from the Greek word “Gigantes,” however the original Hebrew (which the Tanakh was inscribed) shows the word “Nephilim,” which means fallen ones. In reality, the definition of “fallen ones” means the offspring of “fallen ones.” They were half human and half spiritual being, or angel.

The extra-biblical book of 1st Enoch, which many see as a historical account, much like many scholars use Josephus, Philo and Eusebius, has many references to this unnatural union and its implications. The following is found in Chapter’s 6 and 7 of 1 Enoch:

1. And it came to pass when the children of men had multiplied that in those days were born unto them beautiful and comely daughters. 2. And the angels, the children of the heaven, saw and lusted after them, and said to one another: ‘Come, let us choose us wives from among the children of men and beget us children.’ 3. And Semjâzâ, who was their leader, said unto them: ‘I fear ye will not indeed agree to do this deed, and I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin.’ 4. And they all answered him and said: ‘Let us all swear an oath, and all bind ourselves by mutual imprecations not to abandon this plan but to do this thing.’ 5. Then sware they all together and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it. 6. And they were in all two hundred; who descended [in the days] of Jared on the summit of Mount Hermon, and they called it Mount Hermon, because they had sworn and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it. 7. And these are the names of their leaders: Sêmîazâz, their leader, Arâkîba, Râmêêl, Kôkabîêl, Tâmiêl, Râmîêl, Dânêl, Êzêqêêl, Barâqîjâl, Asâêl, Armârôs, Batârêl, Anânêl, Zaqîêl, Samsâpêêl, Satarêl, Tûrêl, Jômjâêl, Sariêl. 8. These are their chiefs of tens.

1. And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. 2. And they became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: 3. Who consumed all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, 4. the giants turned against them and devoured mankind. 5. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and fish, and to devour one another’s flesh, and drink the blood. 6. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones.

Well, you sort of get the idea, right? There were spiritual beings, angels (today’s term is interdimensional beings) who had sexual relations with human women and the result was human/alien (they were fallen angels and not natural earth-born entities, therefore alien) hybrids.

One more thing that we need to consider about this story before we start to tie it all together (if you haven’t already) is another account in Enoch. It is important for people to know the difference between demons and fallen angels. Leading up to the following account, the fallen angels realized that they had made a great error, that they rebelled against the “Lord of Spirits,” and they sent Enoch to plead for clemency. The following decree was given in Enoch chapters 15 and 16:

*1 And He answered and said to me, and I heard His voice: ‘Fear not, Enoch, thou righteous
2 man and scribe of righteousness: approach hither and hear my voice. And go, say to the Watchers of heaven, who have sent thee to intercede for them: “You should intercede” for men, and not men
3 for you: Wherefore have ye left the high, holy, and eternal heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives,*

and done like the children

4 of earth, and begotten giants (as your) sons? And though ye were holy, spiritual, living the eternal life, you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and have begotten (children) with the blood of flesh, and, as the children of men, have lusted after flesh and blood as those also do who die

5 and perish. Therefore have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them, and beget

6 children by them, that thus nothing might be wanting to them on earth. But you were formerly

7 spiritual, living the eternal life, and immortal for all generations of the world. And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling.

8 And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon

9 the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin;

10 they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling.]

11 And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless

12 hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.

Chapter 16

1 From the days of the slaughter and destruction and death of the giants, from the souls of whose flesh the spirits, having gone forth, shall destroy without incurring judgement - thus shall they destroy until the day of the consummation, the great judgement in which the age shall be

2 consummated, over the Watchers and the godless, yea, shall be wholly consummated.” And now as to the Watchers who have sent thee to intercede for them, who had been aforetime in heaven, say to them:

3 “You have been in heaven, but all the mysteries had not yet been revealed to you, and you knew worthless ones, and these in the hardness of your hearts you have made known *to the women, and through these mysteries women and men work much evil on earth.”

4 Say to them therefore: ” You have no peace.”“*

So, if you have always wondered about demons and fallen angels, you now know the difference. The fallen angels were the fathers, the Nephilim were the sons, and the demons we fight against today are the disembodied spirits of the Nephilim. Believe it or not, you have a one-up on many Christians about this; even many pastors don't know the difference.

Okay, let's start to tie this thin up, shall we. We see that there once was a race of beings called Nephilim that were the sons of fallen angels and human women. We see that a decree went out from the Lord of Spirits (aka Yahweh Elohim) for the Nephilim to kill each other by the sword. We see that their spirits are the demons, and we know the difference between fallen angels and demons. We also know from historic accounts and scriptural proof that evil spirits like to and need to inhabit bodies. I'm sure that they feel that they were robbed of a corporeal existence and desire another corporeal existence. Why would today's "aliens" be so interested in harvesting ovum and sperm from their human abductees? The only reason would be to make human beings, perhaps modified human beings. The book of Joel describes beings who will fall on swords and not be harmed and who will do all sorts of exploits, an army used by Yahweh; but they are not believers because the army is evil, used to accomplish Yahweh's purposes. Revelation talks about people who will beg for death and it will not come to them. Could it be describing angelic/human hybrids? Who knows? Will the Mark of The Beast be in reality an offer for immortality if you swear allegiance to the Man of Perdition? Could the sperm and ovum taken from people by these entities be used to make soulless bodies for the disembodied spirits of the Nephilim to possess in a twisted attempt to attain a resurrected body and escape judgment? Make you think huh.

Back in 2011, I was mourning the death of my first wife. I missed her dearly and I was expressing to Yahweh my anguish and depression and the emptiness in my heart and home. At one point I heard the following from Yahweh, "you will see her again in this lifetime, but beware, it will not be her." At this point I began to think about this whole ovum and sperm thing. I knew that my deceased wife had had experiences with abduction experiences, or near abduction experiences. Did she have her ovum removed? I can't say yes or no, but I know that she did have the experiences before she was a believer in Yeshua. Could the enemy be making a fake Lourdes to try to delude me sometime in the future, maybe to try to get me to take the Mark of the Man of Perdition, or to walk away from Yahweh before then?

Last week my wife and I were watching one of our favorite programs and a bizarre commercial came on during a break in the show. The ad was for a new series called "Resurrection," which showed several instances where people once known to be dead suddenly show up at the doors of loved ones saying that they are home. This really hit home with what Yahweh warned me about. I do think that part of the deception will be loved ones returning to deceive us. Of course, they will not be our actual loved ones, but clones, fakes and counterfeits sent to deceive us. All I can say is if your deceased wife, husband, father, mother or child appear to you in flesh and blood BEFORE the actual Rapture (and there's reason to believe that there will be a false rapture) then rebuke them and walk away.

I hope you've gotten something out of this and that you are blessed in Yeshua.
