

DOES THE SECRET SERVICE HAVE SECRET PLANS OR SECRET ORDERS?

I was perusing the Drudge Report this week and found a series of articles about the supposed haphazard job that the Secret Service is doing with protecting the Dictator in Chief. There is a very good article in the British paper, "The Telegraph," that cites many of the instances where security was lax and the Dictator's life has been put in jeopardy. In the last instance, an intruder supposedly made it over the fence, across the Whitehouse lawn and deep into the Whitehouse building before he was finally apprehended. He was said to be carrying a knife and wanted to "warn the president" about something.

Okay, we know that in the past, attempts have been made on president's lives. They (whoever they were) killed Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, Harding and Kennedy, almost got Carter and Reagan and according to the Telegraph article, there have been multiple threats against Dictator Obama. With all of the conspiracy theories that swirl around society and especially the internet, it is hard to tell who the puppets who control the assassins really are. Truthfully, we will probably never know, but we do know one thing, that being that if a president goes against his handlers, he will either be shamed out of office (like Nixon) or he will die mysteriously (like Harding) or by assassination.

With the recent events that have happened, one has to ask why intruders into the Whitehouse have been so successful. I have come up with a few ideas. The first is that the Secret Service has just become another ineffective protective agency. This could be a possibility given some of the activities that they've been caught participating during the recent enthronement; things such as hiring prostitutes and having drug party's during some of Obama's state visits in other nations. Another thought is that there are Patriots in the Secret Service who have deliberately left the Dictator's safety in harm's way. They might be embarrassed as hell serving him as the rest of us are of having him as our nation's leader and they would rather see him gone. A third and more plausible scenario is that they have been ordered by Obama himself to make things laxer so that he does come close to harm or is in fact harmed. This current leader is about effective as tits on a bore-hog and he knows it. His popularity as a leader in both America and around the world has slidden down to basement levels quite a few times during his enthronements. Any sort of injury by an intruder or an assassin would cause his ratings to go through the roof simply because Americans, a people full of sympathy and compassion (especially the libtards) would feel sorry that someone would be racist enough to try to take out the first Black American dictator. If Obama was injured in an attack, he would have Carte Blanche to do anything that he wanted, even possibly the abolishing of the 22nd Amendment to the Constitution, granting him as many terms as he wants. Such an attempt on his life would allow him, or Joe Biden to institute Martial Law and if necessary, call in UN troops to keep order in America's cities, which of course explode because any harm would be called racism.

There are some who believe that Obama is the Antichrist. There are some ways that I see that could be possible, but there are some ways that I see it to be impossible. I won't get into that here except to say one thing; that there are criteria for the revealing of the Antichrist that are in the works, but not totally in place:

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12

Recognize that there has to be a great falling away. That is happening right now, but hasn't come to its fruition. Currently, there is also a great revival occurring around the world. For example, because of the actions of the Islamic group ISIS, there have been many Muslims renouncing their faith and coming to faith in Yeshua. A revival still continues in China and many are being saved in India. Scripture says that where sin abounds, grace abounds more. Grace is driven by the Ruach Ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit). In the scripture above, the Ruach Ha Kodesh is the one that holds back the Son of Perdition. Note that the man of perdition will be revealed first, then the Ruach will be taken out of the way. It is not the Church that is holding the Son of Perdition back because most of the Church is asleep in the light and chasing after signs, wonders, riches and power. The Greek word for “taken out of the way,” doesn’t mean that the Ruach will be taken out of the world, it just means that he will be moved aside to allow evil to excel; much in the same way that the gates of a dam hold back the water but are risen to allow water to leave the lake. Many say that the “taken out of the way,” means that the Ruach will be removed with Christians at the Rapture. What nonsense.

First, why would the “Comforter” be taken away from a population (Tribulation Saints) at a time when comfort will definitely be needed. The Ruach has been on Earth through all persecutions throughout history since He came at Pentecost. Why would Yahweh take Him away during the last persecution? My God doesn’t act precocious, He is full of mercy and love. The idea of a Pre-Trib Rapture (Harpazo) is only popular in North America. The church is a mess in America and each year believes more and more in doctrines of devils. Why would Yahweh reward disobedience and idol worship with a Rapture? That makes no sense and is not an attribute of the God of the Bible. It seems that the whole world sees the Rapture as false teaching, except for the American church; a Church that doesn’t need a comforter because it can provide its own comfort, but calls on Him when it needs to be reassured that He’s still around. That’s not faith, it is selfishness. Missionary Dalton Thomas was a Pre-Trib adherent until he saw the light. On a visit overseas, a pastor implored him with the following request:

“Don’t preach the Pre-Trib Rapture, because my congregation is going through persecution and it would undermine their ability to endure.”

When he went to China to preach in China, he was told the following:

You Americans rape the Gospel of the Cross in your Pre-Tribulation Rapture teaching. The Church is called to suffer, don’t rob us of that.”

And finally, Chinese Pastors contacted Corrie Ten Boom and asked her to write a letter to Pastors here in the States asking them not to send preachers to China anymore. In a letter she wrote in 1974 entitled “Prepared for the Coming Tribulation” she wrote:

“There are some among us teaching there will be no tribulation, that the Christians will be able to escape all this. These are the false teachers that Jesus was warning us to expect in the latter days. Most of them have little knowledge of what is already going on across the world. I have been in countries where the saints are already suffering terrible persecution”

“In America, the churches sing, ‘Let the congregation escape tribulation,’ but in China and Africa the tribulation has already arrived. This last year alone more than two hundred thousand Christians were martyred in Africa. Now things like that never get into the newspapers because they cause bad political relations. But I know. I have been there. We need to think about that when we sit down in our nice houses with our nice clothes to eat our steak dinners. Many, many members of the Body of Christ are being tortured to death at this very moment, yet we continue right on as though we are all going to escape the tribulation”

I’m not going to apologize for going down what appears to be a rabbit hole. We will not know who the Antichrist is until the whole world is undergoing a “great delusion,” and America is leading the world down that path, and sadly, the guiltiest is the Christian Church. Yes, it is possible that Obama is the Antichrist, and if he receives a mortal wound and miraculously recovers, I will consider him to be the best candidate for the position. American Christians, in their “hurry to be out of here before all of it hits the fan,” are actually perpetuating the coming of Antichrist. I’m thankful that the Church in other lands is awake in the light and they can see the false doctrines that are coming out of North America, but some are not so blessed to receive the truth. Just like people trust in modern science because of some of the life’s benefits that science has produced, so many in the world trust in the American Church because of past blessings that the church in America brought to the world. I would be so bold to say that if you hear it coming from a famous American pastor, discard it and move on. I’ve sadly seen what the false gospel preached in America had done to Believers in Mexico; they have become one with the false teachers in the USA. It is sad.

So why would Obama allow lax security at the Whitehouse? Perhaps he thinks that he is the Antichrist and he knows that he has to be mortally wounded so that he can be miraculously be brought back to life. Perhaps his handlers believe that too. Let’s face it, the man is coated with Teflon and he slides away from all harm to his dictatorship and his detractors are all made out to be liars, and the populace believes it. He’s a master at using political correctness against his enemies and he uses accusations of racism like a double-edged sword. He has nullified the check and balance system and has played Congress like fools.

So, I don’t see all of the Secret Services’ “mistakes” as mistakes, but as purposeful attempts at allowing harm to come to the Dictator in Chief, whether by their will, or the will of Obama himself or the will of his handlers. I don’t think we’ve seen the end of Obama at the next election, if there will be an election, or a nullifying of an election. Yahweh is not done judging America, and he's certainly not done judging the whole world. Obama might just be the tool that He allows Satan to use to accomplish all of this.
