

WHAT DOES THE GEMATRIA HAVE TO SAY ABOUT JACK PATRICK DORSEY?

By David Ben Ya'akov

November Fourteenth – There was a presidential debate on November 14th, 2015 that was sponsored by CBS and Twitter. According to Ballotpedia.org/twitter, CBS was allowed to use a special tool that would allow CBS to view the consensus of Twitter posters during the debate. Here is the script as it is found on Ballotpedia:

Along with CBS News, KCCI-TV and The Des Moines Register, Twitter sponsored the Democratic debate on November 14, 2015. Of the partnership with CBS News, the news organization said, "CBS News is so pleased to partner with Twitter on our Democratic debate. Our people have worked with Twitter's unique curator tools to measure changing responses to what viewers will see on the screen."

I don't know if this bothers you, but it bugs the hell out of me. With this tool, CBS could effectively look at what the Twitter audience thought and could mold their questions one way or another to change questions, or their content as they saw fit, drawing from Twitter's framework.

Luke Bukowski – Probably the name of a private citizen with no affiliation to Jack Dorsey or Twitter.

It All Makes Sense Now – I do think that if Jack Dorsey was sitting next to me, he would reply to me that what makes sense to him now is that he wondered where Twitter would go when he first created it. Dorsey made a 1st Amendment tool that people could use to voice their opinions and there was a time, and for a few years that all opinions could be expressed. He would probably say that it makes sense to him now that his tool would evolve to become a social media tool with some of the tightest restrictions of all social media formats. He would probably say that it makes sense to him now, that Twitter can champion anyone that Dorsey wants to endorse and kill off any person that disagrees with his political turn toward Maoism and Leninist thought.

You are me and I am you – This is the mantra of social media. In social media, you can find those that think like you do and you form small communities that soon grow into larger communities of like-minded people. This was probably Dorsey’s original intent, but as he grew in power, wealth, and fame he realized that he was one of the “haves,” and he had to suppress the rest of those trying to fight for social justice in the form of capitalistic rights. He’s turned the original thought around to now state, “you’re not me and I’m much better than you.”

Warn Mankind No Coincidences – This is one of the truer thoughts in all that is listed as numeric equals to Jack Dorsey’s name. Jack created a format where everyone was equal and that all thoughts were allowed to be expressed. I don’t think that he ever thought that it would remain that way. It is no coincidence that those in Deep Swamp power saw a tool that was created to bring people together and they decided to give Jack wealth, power, and fame so that it would go to his head. After they had compromised any good values that he had, they talked him into turning his tool against those that he blessed with it. It is no coincidence that evil men will take something that can yield so much power and turn it into something that can propagandize those who cannot think for themselves and shut down those who can.

I don’t compromise, I kill devils – Given that Jack Dorsey is a prominent leftist with wealth and power, it would make sense (and is no coincidence) that he would see anyone that threatens his way of life or those who pull his puppet strings as devils. While he doesn't outright kill those, he considers devils, he can silence them (us) and can turn those who he sees as devils into objects of scorn. At least this is the opinion of this deplorable.

The Forty-Nine Deadly Sins – Well, since there are only 7 deadly sins and forty-nine is divisible by seven, perhaps this is suggesting that Jack has violated all seven at least seven times? Just a guess of course, and yes, I know, my suggestion is a violation of Twitter's community standards. I would be remiss to state that there is no list in scripture to "Seven Deadly Sins," it is a Roman Catholic and Orthodox contrivance. All of the sins in the list could indeed lead to death, but a sinner should be pointed toward the direction of forgiveness of sin, not necessarily what they've done wrong. Judgment (condemnation) is YHVH's job, not something that men are commissioned to do. There is a scripture in Proverbs that says that YHVH loathes and considers abominations:

16 These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

Proverbs 6:16-19 KJV

Simply google pictures of Jack Dorsey and you'll see a prideful man that tries to wear a mask of innocence but doesn't wear it well. Power and wealth do this to people. He is a mouthpiece for the Leftists Socialists, and tries to silence patriots, thus making a traitor, a man with a lying tongue. I cannot confirm or deny that he has ever shed innocent blood, but if his format leads to someone dying unjustly then it's a qualifier. His Twitter format perpetuates wicked imaginations by allowing Leftist propaganda, which is often contrary to the truthful turn of events. He is quick to run to mischief by banning people from his format and denying users of their First Amendment rights. He is a false witness; Twitter is rife with accounts of that and besides, he outright lied to Congress when he testified before them. Twitter, because it does not allow people to hash out situations through dialogue, because he cuts off Patriots, does sow discord. Most people can come to common dialogue is allowed to, but turning Twitter into a debating society where only one side can debate causes discord. So, while Jack Dorsey has probably committed the “Seven Deadly Sins,” he has without a doubt offended YHVH by committing 7-character traits that YHVH considers abominations.

The Coming of The Just One – As a believer in YHVH, I believe that Yeshua is the “Just One.” He is Mashiach (Messiah) and Melech (King), as well as Savior. The antics of people like Dorsey perpetuate the one-world government that the “Elite” want to force upon the earth. That satanic government will bring forth ever closer the Coming of The Just One.

A Jew – Jack Dorsey is far from Jewish. His heritage is English, Irish and Italian. Earlier this year, anti-Semitic groups were allowed to rant for hours on end and Twitter did nothing about it. Having been banned from Twitter, this author knows that Twitter keeps a careful eye on things that might “violate community standards.” Besides, it could be that the two words aren’t referring to Dorsey as a Jew, but it could be a proclamation, much like the Gestapo might shout when they noticed a Jewish person in a crowd and wanted him arrested, but in the Twitter format, it would be something like, “A Jew, let’s defame him or slander him, boys.”

Extinction Event – Dorsey sees global warming as a potential extinction event. Last year he joined with Elon Musk and the CEO of YouTube to commit to planting 20 million trees to ward off excessive CO-2 in the atmosphere.

Return to Yourself – Let's face it, Twitter is Jack Dorsey and Jack Dorsey is Twitter. A while back he stepped away from Twitter, allowing someone else to become CEO of the social format. Recently, he came back, reclaiming his CEO position in an attempt to fix the damage that was done to the social format. He remains CEO to this day.

Amyloid Precursor Protein – This protein is associated with people that eat low-carbohydrate / high-fat diets. Dorsey eats only one meal a day, that being dinner. His dinner is described as a low-carb / high-fat diet. APP is a protein that the human body makes when one is on this type of diet. High-fat diets it is suggested, lead to an increased chance of acquiring Alzheimer's Disease.

Your Name Is the Mark of The Beast – Simply put, neither the Jewish Gematria, the English, or the Simple gematria put the number 666 or Jack Patrick Dorsey as an equivalent to the Mark of The Beast.

Alike, as two peas in a pod – I see this as Jack Patrick Dorsey as being comparative in thought and action to Mark Zuckerberg. They both work for the wrong side, are both propagandists for the Elites, and even use the same vernacular (i.e. Community Standards) in their banning processes. Bad apples don't fall far from the Soros Tree.

Being asleep in an inferno triangular idea is not free – This has to do with the Cognitive Triangle. In this theory, our thoughts, emotions, and behaviors can be suppressed or subdued to enhance another. It is saying that if you want to enhance your thoughts, then we suppress our emotions or our behaviors. The Cognitive Triangle makes up the whole person, therefore if we are not fully awake or if we are in a stressful situation then trying to suppress one to enhance another will cost us somehow whereas in a tranquil atmosphere it can be done freely. If you watched when Dorsey and Zuckerberg were being interrogated by Congress, they were having a difficult time during the heat of the discussion. For instance, enhancing thoughts, which would be crucial at such a time caused their behaviors to falter and it was easy to see the poker faces, so to speak, and realize that although they were trying to lie intellectually, their demeanors said the opposite.

Our Children are our future – This numerical value might not be what it appears to be. There is a possibility that Jack Dorsey is a pedophile. An article in Natural news starts thusly:

(Natural News) Warning: What you're about to read is disturbing beyond all belief, but we feel the need to warn you that it's happening as part of the LGBTQP push to normalize child sex abuse in Western society.

It has come to our attention that out-of-the-closet pedophiles have been given an open platform on Twitter to discuss their fantasies about engaging in sexual activity with underage children – and all with the blessing of Jack Dorsey.

A series of screenshots captured by Shane Trejo over at Big League Politics reveals MAPs, or "Minor Attracted Persons," discussing their lust for mere babes, something that the new Twitter Terms of Service says is perfectly acceptable as part of Twitter's "community guidelines."

Even as Twitter bans conservatives, as well as the Health Ranger, for tweeting "hate speech," the Silicon Valley giant has given a quiet nod to sex perverts to spread their perversion across the platform without consequence.

Twitter quietly added a section to its Terms of Service recently that allows for "discussions related to ... attraction towards minors," just so long as these "discussions" don't promote or glorify "child sexual exploitation." [Source:

As is the case with most people that are rich and successful, they crave power, and the easiest power to obtain is power over the defenseless of society, namely little boys and girls. While it is uncertain that Dorsey is involved in pedophilia, the fact that he allows it to be talked about as a format on Twitter, while at the same time banning Conservatives (which he hates) is a pretty good indicator that Dorsey doesn't "hate" pedophilia. Now, that could be because he doesn't see it as a sin, or it could be that he protects those who are in the same lifeboat as he is in.

Myk Hyn Chooses the Chosen Id – Here is what I found. I might have to leave this one up to you to figure out. Myk Hyn is an entity that uses Twitter often. It/He/She or whatever speaks in cryptic terms. The following was found regarding Myk Hyn:

*MYK HYN @mykhyn Nov 29. 720 (sumerian) =Illuminati =Economic Plan (jew.) 311
=This Is Real =Data Pattern =Converter =Masonic Logic =Quarantine =Systems
=Castration =Aliens Are Here =Come Back to Life =Decode A Human God =Archangel
Michael =The Architect =A MYK HYN Hack =Understand =The Truth =Key Words.*

It appears to be Illuminati code for something. As for the "chooses the chosen Id we are left with at least two possibilities. Id could stand for identification. However, it could stand for the intellectual part of the human brain which is referred to as the ID. In any case, it seems to suggest that the Illuminati, or some secret society (since it mentions Masonic Logic too) that chooses a chosen person, whether it is a person via identification or a person via his intellect. There is a suggestion that this personage uses this code to convey messages to Jack Dorsey, using something like Qanon uses for good political purposes.

The Myk Hyn Tur Tle – Appears to be an Illuminati sort of code that only a few understand. Like I mentioned above he seems to convey messages to Jack Dorsey using this format. Frankly, it doesn't concern me that the forces of anti-messiah use such codes because when all is said and done, it will lead to nothing. Jack Dorsey has screwed with so many people who have left his format that I expect that someday soon, Twitter will be something talked about in the history books rather than continuing as a viable form of social media.

El Shaarawy – An Italian soccer player that plays for a Chinese Super League team. I do not think that this individual has any personal dealings with Jack Dorsey. What I do find interesting is that his name comes up quite often when searching the Gematria for nefarious people in government.

Chemtrails Are Sprayed Daily – What must be understood is that Jack Dorsey believes in global warming and other environmental causes. While most of us know that Chemtrails are made up of heavy metals and biologics that are meant to harm mankind, and ecoterrorists believe that mankind must be eliminated from Earth to maintain stasis between mankind and nature, some believe the lie that Chemtrails are being used to reduce the amount of sunlight that hits the earth thus allow less heat to get through and trapped under the “supposed” CO-2 layer that surrounds the earth. Whether Dorsey believes the former or the latter, I'm sure that he believes in Chemtrails and endorses their use.

Jesus Bring Us Home – Dorsey was born Roman Catholic and raised Roman Catholic. He tends to lean toward Buddhism currently. If he does believe in a form of Jesus, it is probably the Buddhist mindset, that Jesus was just one of many great teachers sent by the Brahman. This is all speculation of course.

The Sweet Mademe Blue – This is a song by the group Styx. In the song, Cher is the person that the group calls Sweet Mademe Blue. Cher and Dorsey have worked together in several leftist causes along with other Hollyweird actors.

NY Flooded XI XI Xi – The only thing that flooded NYC on November 11, 2011, were people who went there to celebrate Veteran’s Day. This has so far proved to be a bupkis entry.

John Hoeven – The only tie that I can find is that Dorsey donated $1000 to Hoeven in 2010.

To Condemned Everlasting Death – Well, there are two ways to look at this. When you get banned from Twitter, they have an algorithm that knows when you try to open an account under a different name or email address, therefore you are condemned to everlasting twitter death. The other meaning is that Jack Dorsey is born to perdition, has no chance of ever being saved by grace, and will burn in the Lake of Fire and Brimstone forever.

Jeremiah Lee Jeremiah – This guy is a heavy Twitter user. If he has any interface with Jack Dorsey is anyone’s guess. I have left him here because he is quite the confused individual and the type of person that is allowed to thrive on Twitter while patriots and others are banned and blacked listed. Here is what Jeremiah Lee is all about:

I am a Democratic Socialist. I believe in capitalism and a guaranteed basic income. I agree with Robert Reich on most economic issues.

*You can’t be both, either you are a capitalist or you are a socialist.

I am a supporter of the Electronic Frontier Foundation, the American Civil Liberties Union, Demand Progress, and probably anything Larry Lessig establishes. I believe that the right to privacy is a requirement for the right to free speech. We'd be crazy to not fight for both.

*Yet he fails to realize that the right to privacy disappears when you present your life for the world to see.

I survived a helicopter crash. It was my first time riding in a helicopter. I've taken one helicopter ride since then. As far as I'm concerned, helicopters only have a 50% success rate.

*Well, he's a Millennial and he knows how to figure out percentages, which is good.

I have been an environmentalist since I was 10.

*At the age of 10, you are not mature enough to ascribe anything to your life.

I am a secular humanist and atheist.

*Since humanists believe that men are gods you therefore are not an atheist.

I am gay. My identity has been defined more by the struggle for acceptance and equality of my sexuality than by my sexuality. I think of myself as many other things before being a gay man. I hope this is what equality eventually should feel like.

*Well, you started by saying that you are gay, so it is pretty high up on your list so it is your main ingredient, therefore it is your defining characteristic.

Jeremiah might be a nice kid, but he's mixed up as all hell and he is who others have defined him as, not who he is. I pray that he gets a lesson from someone sane.

Norma Leah McCorvey – The Only link that I can find here is this. Norma Leah McCorvey is the name of Roe in the Roe vs. Wade case that went before the Supreme Court, which decided that abortion is a legal act. The only connection that I could find is that Jack Dorsey is a flaming liberal and most likely supports infanticide.

Consider Your days – When you research Jack Dorsey there is an interesting thing mentioned in Wikipedia. It mentions that he walks to work and back every day. He says that it helps him to reflect on his day both before and after and that it helps him to relax. On another note, it could be a command from YHVH that Jack remembers his origins, that he didn't start rich, and that he had humble beginnings. It could be a harbinger to him that you can lose it as fast as you get it, and that giving money to lost causes isn't what YHVH requires. Faith without works is dead.

In Addition:

If you look at the hierarchy at Twitter you find that aside from a CEO, CFO, and other chiefs, there is an executive chairman, who incidentally is Iranian by birth. Here is his information, then we will continue below:

Executive Chairman of Twitter:

Omid R. Kordestani (Persian: born 1963) is an Iranian-American businessman of Kurdish origin who has been the Executive Chairman at Twitter since October 2015. He was previously a Senior Vice President, the Chief Business Officer, and most recently a special advisor to the CEO and founders at Google from July 2014 to October 2015 and was a director of Vodafone from March 2013 to October 2014. Kordestani had also previously been at Google from May 1999 to April 2009, reaching the position of Senior Vice President for Worldwide Sales and Field Operations.

Omid Kordestani was born in Tehran, Iran and grew up there attending Andisheh Don Bosco School, an Italian Catholic school in Tehran that emphasised education and language skills. He moved to San Jose, California after the death of his father in 1976.

It is a little bothersome that someone of Iranian birth is in charge of Twitter. While it does mention that he has Kurdish ancestry and, in another section, he is described as a Persian (what they called themselves before the revolution in the '70s) it might be of no concern. It is however a concern that Twitter habitually fights against American patriots, the American President, and others who stand for freedom and independence. Whether it is because a Persian is running things is anyone's guess, but it is suspicious.

SUMMARY:

Jack Dorsey to me seems to be a mystery wrapped around a riddle. Like many of his age group, it appears that he might have done, or maybe is still doing drugs that destroy brain cells. One thing is certain, he has taken up the socialist cause, as exhibited by his actions on Twitter.

As I mentioned earlier, Jack had humble beginnings and an idea for a social format, that if he remained pure to his beginnings would have been a wonderful tool for all people. However, when people attain fame, wealth, and power they often cater to the god of such things, that god being Lucifer. If he doesn't change, he will (if he hasn't already) be given over entirely to Satan and the One World Order scheme of things. It's a shame to see a nice Irish kid going over to the dark side.
