

MOVING AHEAD FULL STEAM

In the circles of those of us who believe that Yeshua is Mashiach we often use the phrase that if the enemy is going through so much effort to discredit us or keep us down then it means that we're being effectual in the promotion of the Kingdom of Yahweh. Many times, in counseling sessions I tell Christians who are still being harassed by demonic entities that they (the Christians) are special in Yahweh's eyes and the enemy knows that, so the enemy tries to discourage believers so that they will not be successful in their life's calling. The enemy will always try to take out the soldiers at the front line because they are the most dangerous to them. The private who is shining the general's shoes half a world away is not so much a threat to the enemy at the wall, but the fully equipped soldier at that wall is a clear and present danger. There are times that well-meaning believers (I hope so anyway) will tell the person under attack that the enemy is attacking because of sin in the life of that person or that they have taken the wrong path and Yahweh is allowing the attacks to occur so as to get them back on the straight and narrow path. Granted, this might be the case in a person who warms pews or armchair quarterback's other believer's lives, but for the person in the trenches the attack comes as a result of being a threat to the hordes of hell.

The enemy attacks in many ways. Let's face it, he's a pro at it, being both the Father of Lies and the Accuser of The Brethren for so many years; he's quite adept at spiritual warfare, but not always so smart. In many cases, the enemy will use Yahweh's own people, or people who have been deceived to believe that they are Yahweh's own people and also those who are clearly counterfeits of Yahweh's people who come to steal, kill and destroy. This is where praying for discernment and protection is so important. We can't always see whom the enemy is using and we need Yahweh to tell us who is who in the great spiritual battle that rages day in and day out. Sad to say, it's only going to get worse before it gets better.

Over the past seven or so years the enemy has put three gnats in my life and in the lives of other brothers and sisters. These gnats have stayed away at times but always come back to swirl around our heads to take away our attention from the ministry that Yahweh wants us to perform. The Apostle Paul talked about a messenger from Satan that was sent to buffet him and Paul prayed a few times for Yahweh to remove this "thorn in the flesh." Yeshua's answer to him was that Yahweh's grace was sufficient for Paul. My guess (and yes, it is a supposition, not a fact, just in case the chief gnat decides to take my words out of context yet again) is that Paul's problem came from one or more people who were detractors of his ministry; people out to destroy what Yahweh was doing. Paul probably became angered at these people and he might have even told them off in an ungracious manner and he might have grieved over the fact that they caused him to sin. Gnats can bring out the worst in people.

Without rehashing recent history in the battles between the gnats and myself I yet again find myself with the gnats buzzing around my head. One of these gnats has decided to take the words, visions and dreams that the Holy Spirit has given to me, things He has told me to share, and they have decided to dissect these things to disprove them. Under the direction of Beelzebub (the Lord of The Flies) they have taken Holy things and have ascribed them to the works of a familiar spirit, making them demonic in nature according to the gnat. IF this gnat was a godly person, I would consider her claim, knowing her, and what she is I just dismiss it, knowing that since she is wrong, she is coming dangerously close to blaspheming the Ruach Ha Kodesh. This puts things out of my hands and out of my control and I shall let the Armies of Yahweh, The Captain of Yahweh's Hosts fight this battle.

So, first off, I would like to thank those of you who have read Paradox Brown's claims and have actually clicked on her links to check out the content in it's original form to see ALL of the content, not just what Brown has contorted. Secondly, I would like to thank Brown, or Nicole, or Paradox, or whoever she is today, for posting her rants and raves about what "she" perceives through her "genius" musings, as false prophecies and curses that she says I proclaim. Thank you, little gnat, you have caused more people than ever to go to the site to read what you protest against. Thirdly, I would like to thank you Nicole et.al. for doing a wonderful job at bringing down the little demonic empire that you and your husband, along with others have set up. It is oh so "genius" how you are bringing yourself and Guy to ruin, just like the Word that Yahweh gave to me for Guy said would happen. But mostly, and last but certainly not least by any stretch of the imagination, thank you Yahweh Yeshua because you preserve the righteous and you battle against those who choose to battle against your people. Thank you Yeshua for keeping to your Word and thank you that in all of these years of attack from Satan by way of the Malone's and others, you will prevail and be victorious. You have broken their arrows each and every time that they have shot them at me over these years, and you will continue to do so. Thank you also, that soon you will rout these Philistines and put an end to them. AMEN.

In the months and years to come, should Yeshua tarry that long, we move onward and upward in ministry. The Opposing the Matrix radio show is growing and listenership is increasing almost on a daily basis. This week, C.K. Quarterman will be joining the PAAPSI ministry as a counselor. He's already ministering to many people and will join our team to bring more people to the truth of Yeshua as the redeemer and the one who brings freedom and liberty. Because of the radio show and the antics of the gnats we have had many more visitors to our websites. Special thanks go to James Galloway and Larry Scott who have been a great source of strength during the rants and raves of the gnats on Facebook. Another great piece of news is that Jim Wilhelmsen's website Echoes of Enoch is back up on the internet and running smoothly. Nobody knows for sure who hacked into his site and took it down, but could it be that some gnats got into the server and caused corruption? Only Yahweh knows; but the move has gotten Jim a much better server run by believers in Yeshua.

And finally, it is my hope and desire that on my departure from this world (hopefully many years in the future) to the glorious Kingdom of Yahweh, that I will be able to say as Paul did in his letter to Timothy what I will post below.

I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing. 2 Timothy 4:1-8 KJV
