

What Does the Gematria Reveal About

Mark Elliott Zuckerberg

By David Ben Ya'akov

Come Out OF Her My People – This is a command given by YHVH in the Book of Revelation where YHVH tells His People to come out of the Beast System. Some think that it is a command to come out of the Laodicean Church, and some people think it is a command to come out of the Beast Political and Economic system. I see it as coming out of both. What Fellowship has Messiah with Belial? Mark Zuckerberg is a proponent, financier, and a current leader in that beast system. Part of this command I believe is that Believers in Yeshua should not take the vaccine that Gates is offering because it will make them more susceptible to the likes of Zuckerberg and his propaganda machine. Finally, I do believe that it could be a command for people to stop using social media tools like Zuckerberg's Facebook.

I Am That Which I Am – This is a bastardization of the real words of YHVH when He spoke from the burning bush. The real words that came from the mouth of YHVH were, "I Am That I Am," which denotes perpetuity in all directions. In other words, YHVH is saying something like, "I Am What I was," "I Am What I will Be," "I Will Be What I Always Have Been," and so on. The phrase associated with Zuckerberg has a temporal flair to it, meaning that right now he is what he is. It could also be a term alluding that Mark Zuckerberg is something that looks like a human being, but is something else. I have often thought that the entity known as Mark Zuckerberg has a look about him like he's another entity in a human suit.

September Seven – On September 07, 2017, the Washington Post posted an article stating that it was Facebook that helped Donald Trump to get elected. My research stops at the headline because the Post wants people to subscribe to finish reading the article. I did read far enough down to see that this notion bothered Zuckerberg. Fact-Checking was started on Facebook late in 2016, around election time, but it amped up quite a bit after the Washington Post accused Facebook of helping Trump win the election.

He's Crazy Or – This is an interesting opened ended question because it leaves many things to one's imagination. It is often said that there is a fine line between genius and insanity. The whole thing has to do with pride and how a sentient being deals with it. We know that Satan's rebellion was brought about by pride. There is a phrase that states:

But if we might discuss this point until we found that we nearly agreed, and if we do agree thoroughly about the impropriety of Carlylese denunciations and Pharisaism in history, I cannot accept your canon that we are to judge Pope and King unlike other men, with a favourable presumption that they did no wrong. If there is any presumption it is the other way, against the holders of power, increasing as the power increases. Historic responsibility has to make up for the want of legal responsibility. Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. Great men are almost always bad men, even when they exercise influence and not authority, still more when you superadd the tendency or the certainty of corruption by authority. There is no worse heresy than that the office sanctifies the holder of it..... There is no doubt that Mark Zuckerberg is a genius. He worked his way up from nothing. He went to college but never attained a degree, yet he is one of the richest men in the world. Yes, sometimes these riches are self-attained, but in the majority of the cases, riches and power are an anointment given from powers of wickedness. Yes, there have been instances where power was bestowed upon people by YHVH; King David is a good example, but he possessed humility and circumspection and as scripture says, such a man, YHVH can use. Zuckerberg shows no outward signs of humility, and the richer he gets the lust for power grows stronger within him. I think that it is safe to say that Zuckerberg is not religious in any way, shape, or form, well, not in a Judeo/Christian way. His pride and arrogance may have been a doorway for walk-ins to enter into him to use him as a vessel, and his deeds are a good indicator since the fruit that he bears is a bad seed. I cannot and will not diagnose Zuckerberg to be crazy, but I do think I can deduce that word “or” meaning that he is cold and calculating. Oh, and since he is fighting against the very freedoms that helped to make him rich and powerful, perhaps there is a little psychosis going on inside his vessel. Only time and a good and honest psychologist can and/or will make that determination.

With A Kiss – We are familiar with the story of Judas the Betrayer who upon reaching Yeshua and his disciples, betrayed him with a kiss, presumably on the cheek or forehead. There is another phrase that says in modern vernacular, “beware of strangers bearing gifts.” The phrase comes from the story of the “Trojan Horse,” as described here:

"Timeo Danaos et dona ferentes" is a Latin phrase from Aeneid (II, 49), written by Virgil between 29 and 19 BC. It has been paraphrased in English as the proverb "Beware of Greeks bearing gifts". Its literal meaning is "I fear the Danaans [Greeks], even those *bearing gifts" or "even when they bear gifts". Most printed versions of the text have the variant ferentis instead of ferentes.*

*As related in the Aeneid, after a nine-year war on the beaches of Troy between the Danaans (Greeks from the mainland) and the Trojans, the Greek seer Calchas induces the leaders of the Greek army to win the war by means of subterfuge: build a huge wooden horse and sail away from Troy as if in defeat—leaving the horse behind as a votive offering for a safe journey home. The Trojan Horse actually contains a hand-picked team of Greek warriors hidden in its wooden belly. The Trojan priest Laocoön suspects that some menace is hidden in the horse, and he warns the Trojans not to accept the gift, crying, Equō nē crēdite, Teucrī! Quidquid id est, timeō Danaōs et dōna ferentīs. ("Do not trust the horse, Trojans! Whatever it is, I fear the Danaans, even when bringing gifts.") Immediately after Laocoön proclaims his warning, he throws a spear at the horse, which pierces its side; Virgil writes that the groan from the Greek warriors hidden within would surely have alerted the Trojans to the trick if the gods had not already ordained Troy's destruction.*

Soon after he casts his spear, enormous twin serpents slither out of the sea and attack Laocoön's sons. When Laocoön tries to help them, he too is viciously slain. The Trojans assume the horse has been offered at Minerva's (Athena's) prompting and interpret Laocoön's death as a sign of her displeasure.

The Trojans agree unanimously to place the horse atop wheels and roll it through their impenetrable walls as a trophy of their victory. Festivities follow, celebrating the end of the war. That night, the Greeks hidden inside the horse creep out and open the city gates to the entire Greek army, which has sailed back to Troy under cover of darkness. The Greeks sack the city and Troy is destroyed.

What can we get from this illustration? Is Facebook a gift from a wonderful benefactor named Zuckerberg, or is it a tool of manipulation used to gather our information, turn that information over to nefarious people? Is it a kiss of betrayal from a person that most average users of Facebook have never met and know nothing of? Remember, most people with wealth and power got that way because they know how to manipulate people. Manipulation is a satanic gift and if that is the case, the giver of the gift wants to use it to enslave mankind. When gentle boyish-looking men come bearing gifts be very careful and remember, that is what Mormons send to your door and it has worked for them for almost two centuries.

America Perish Mayday – This is a fairly easy connection to make. Zuckerberg created Facebook back in 2004 as a way for people to communicate with each other in a new medium called “social media.” The Facebook of that time is not what Facebook is currently. As I mentioned earlier, Zuckerberg became rich and wealthy using a capitalist model for success. As he has gotten richer and more powerful it appears that he has realized that money and power are not something that he wants the average American to have. Power comes to Americans from the guarantees in the United States Constitution. Somewhere along the line, someone got to Zuckerberg and introduced him to socialism and obviously to the Ten Planks of Communism. One of those planks is to shut down free communication between people and groups, especially if they see socialism and communism as a dangerous and approaching trend in our society. Zuckerberg’s Facebook, along with other formats like Twitter and YouTube has been taken over by ardent socialists whose aim is to promote progressivism and silence freedom and liberty. Mayday is a common term used by vessels in distress, and believe me, American is in distress.

The problem is that people like Zuckerberg and others jam the radio waves when our ship in distress cries Mayday for help and assistance from an Army of Citizen Soldiers that are waiting and ready to rescue all hands onboard.

Is an Unbearable Tyrant – To know what a tyrant is, one has to know what tyranny is.

Webster's 1828 dictionary defines tyranny as:

Arbitrary or despotic exercise of power; the exercise of power over subjects and others with a rigor not authorized by law or justice, or not requisite for the purposes of government. Hence tyranny is often synonymous with cruelty and oppression.

[Source: <http://webstersdictionary1828.com/Dictionary/tyranny>]

With that definition know, we can ascertain that a tyrant is someone that practices tyranny.

Zuckerberg practices suppression and oppression on people to whom he's given the gift of Facebook. Anyone that posts anything contrary to what Zuckerberg and his Facebook Community see as "truth," are subject to what is commonly known as "Facebook Jail," where the user is banned from his/her account for increasingly longer periods after each following offense of the community standards, and if that doesn't "reeducate the sinner," their account is removed, and removed forever. Zuckerberg has as his witnesses and judges (a practice contrary to common law) a group of people known as Fact Checkers, who appear to be socialists and/or anarchists and if you offend the standards, these SA Brownshirts perform Kristallnacht on your Facebook account. It appears that Zuckerberg, whose people were oppressed in such a manner in Nazi Germany almost a century ago is skilled in the tools of our own peoples' former oppressors. He would make Goebbels proud.

It All Points to The Thirteenth – This is an interesting numeric match. A simple look at which colony was the 13th Colony of British North America shows that it was Georgia. I am wondering if this numeric indicator is showing that Georgia (number 13) will be the deciding factor to determine whether American will remain a free republic under Donald Trump or will become a socialist nation under Joe Biden and Kamala Harris. Georgia has been the key it seems to the election fraud that is occurring at this time. Another numeric match could be that in the Occult Arts, the number 13 is a magical number and it is revered as a Satanic number. Another way to say this numeric indicator could be, “It all points to the Illuminati,” and Zuckerberg is helping the Deep State to move us quickly into the Global Governance realm of reality.

Illusion and Duality – This subject was touched upon lightly in the values above. Zuckerberg is practicing duality. He comes across as a social warrior for truth and justice but does so from a socialistic platform that very few recognize. People would rather accept his Trojan Horse because Zuckerberg, although he has made it a totalitarian format, has made it easy to use and has sucked in millions of users who find it easier to stay in oppression than move to other formats that offer freedom of speech and opinion. Freedom that is run by oppression is an illusion.

I Con Drugs of Crazier – This numeric value doesn't make much sense unless you merge the first two words upon which time it becomes, “Icon Drugs of Crazier.” I mentioned above that there is a fine line between genius and insanity. If you look at the origin of the word “genius,” you discover that it comes from the word “Jinn,” which is where we get our word Genie. Jinns are demons in the Islamic tradition and they can be both good and bad. In the Judeo/Christian tradition, we know that demons are always malevolent spirits. As mentioned before, the lust for riches and power is an open door for walk-ins (demons) to enter. Sane people who become demon-possessed seek to be delivered from the demons that dwell within. Crazy people entertain the possession because those entities can bring about ideas to bring more wealth and power.

Zuckerberg is an icon for sure, and one that many young people want to emulate because they too want an easy life, but like the Trojan Horse analogy we read earlier, nothing is free, and a price comes with everything.

Love Is Respect – Love and respect is a common theme that Zuckerberg and his band of Gestapo agents have set within Facebook. The love and respect that they set as an example are discombobulated however because if you espouse that good is evil and evil is good, then you are showing love. If you tolerate deviated lifestyles and warped social movements then you show respect. If you try to shed light on the malignancy of those things then you are seen as a purveyor of hate, disrespect, and racism. Oh, and racism, according to the Facebook Gestapo doesn't just deal with race as it is known in the long-held definition; race is also religion and ethnicity, and sexual preference.

JDJGF – This seems to be an acronym of personality types. The letter “J” seems to denote someone who can judge correctly; the letter “D” seems to stand for someone who has problems with people that have confidence; the letter “G” seems to stand for someone with correct discernment and the letter “F” seems to denote a person that everyone takes pride in. I'm not sure, but this could be some sort of code that the Facebook Gestapo uses to determine the character of Facebook users, sort of like a scoring card or a very bizarre algorithm. It could be that Zuckerberg has come upon some sort of scoring system that will become popular with other social media formats if it hasn't done so already.

Fallen Angels Are the Actual Illuminati – This is something that many of us have suspected for years, that the Illuminati are either Serpent Seed shapeshifters or they are fallen angelic shapeshifters. I mentioned earlier that Zuckerberg has always seemed to have an otherworldly air about him and this numerical value match would indicate that about him and the rest of the Elite.

My Older Brothers an Idiot – Mark Zuckerberg doesn't have any brothers. He has two sisters as siblings. What I speculate is happening here is that Zuckerberg is referring to the current political system, meaning Republican Capitalism as being an older brother, and by that, he is the younger brother, or should I say that Socialism is the younger brother which he considers to be a considerably smarter sibling.

Below the Belt – This is referring to something that might not be apparent to most. Washington is known as “The Beltway,” and as defined, would be the term for Capitalism. Below the belt would refer to the Deep State, or Shadow Government, something that operates below, like in the swamp perhaps?

Going Back to Sleep For Another Hour – This is probably the term that denotes that while Donald Trump was president (and still is too), that the progress of the Deep State's destruction was put off for a short time and that Facebook's total tyranny in social media would go to sleep for a while until conditions present themselves to allow the tyranny to begin to advance again.

What is it – This is a question that I have asked about Mark Zuckerberg for a long time, “what is it.” Again, I will say that Zuckerberg has taken on an otherworldly appearance and it is my opinion that he's either a Nephilim or a fallen angelic being in a human cloak suit.

Are Freemasons Evil – Simple answer is yes. It appears that Mark Zuckerberg is a Masonic Order member. He was seen sporting a hoodie that when taken off displayed a Masonic symbol on the inside. This happened at the D8 Tech Summit in 2010.

Hardwords – When the average person thinks of hard words, they think of words that are hard to pronounce or words that are difficultly defined. I think of the phrase, “those were hard words to take,” meaning that it was talk that is difficult to accept. Take for instance, that Zuckerberg is in favor of accomplishing, with his other billionaire friends, a drastic reduction in world populations. Those are hard words. If we just want to stick to a Facebook sort of definition, Mark and his cronies at Facebook have put together an algorithm that looks for words that the leftist Zuckerberg (and his handlers) believe to be words that cause other people to act in a manner that is not approved by the elite. In our current time, that is anything that goes against the plans of world conquest that the Elites have to take over the world. Type into Facebook anything critical to Agenda 2021 or Agenda 2030 and see how long your post lasts.

Lightning Kills Devils – There is no evidence that lightning kills demons. Current research indicates that the opposite is true. We know that when their plans are being accepted by their victims, such as when a person is oppressed by poltergeists and that person accepts that the poltergeist has won the battle the activity tends to get stronger. Also, UFOs, which are fallen angelic portals or fallen angelic entities often hover around high voltage power lines, almost like they can feed off of high current. In olden times people who were possessed and others such as witches were called devils. I do not doubt that lightning can kill people that are vessels for demonic possession. I guess that the only way that we will find out about the connection of this phrase with the numeric value of Mark Zuckerberg is to hope that he is struck by lightning and see if it is true.

The Holy Spirit Sins End – Zuckerberg claims that he was brought up Jewish but became an atheist. He also claims that after a period of thinking on the matter he is convinced that “religion” is important. The word “religion” is suspicious. In his rantings, he has never claimed to pick back up on Judaism. He certainly doesn't identify with any form of Christianity or Messianic movement. What most don't realize is that Luciferianism and Satanism are religions too.

Zuckerberg holds to the notion that the earth needs to be depopulated, and the sooner the better.

This would tend to lend to the idea that he leans more toward the manner of thinking that the Elites possess, that being Illuminati, which is Luciferian and Satanic.

Now that we have that out of the way, the reader needs to understand that Luciferians and Satanists see YHVH as a mortal enemy of Lucifer or Satan. Naturally, and since they practice a "same but opposite" mindset they believe that Satan and/or Lucifer is the light-bearer, meaning that he is the holder of truth. Believing this notion, they would naturally see YHVH as the rebellious God, therefore a sinner in their eyes. Remember, sin is defined as not living up to YHVH's standards, sort of missing the mark, an old archery term. Therefore, YHVH is seen as a sinner, a rebel, and one that Lucifer/Satan will defeat. The Elites have studied Scripture and they know that there will come a time when the Ruach Ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit) will be moved out of the way, allowing the Son of Perdition to reign upon Earth. They see that as the time when the Sins of The Ruach Ha Kodesh will end and an eclectic form of Satanic holiness will be allowed to exist on Earth. Of course, we see that as the Tribulation Period and a time that precedes the return of Yeshua to rid the world of the Luciferian/Satanic religion of delusion. If you think that Mark Zuckerberg is dictatorial now, just wait until his religion is allowed to prosper.

Hillary In Jail – It is well known that Mark Zuckerberg hates conservatism and that he venerates Hillary Clinton. The term "Hillary in Jail," being an equivalent in Gematria to Mark Elliott Zuckerberg is interesting because if Hillary does end up in jail, and most people believe that she belongs there, perhaps Zuckerberg will be joining her there.

What Is it – This phrase fits well into Zuckerberg’s life and plans. If we stick strictly to Facebook, and we ask that question we see that Facebook is probably the biggest bait and switch con job that there ever was. It was offered free (that’s suspicious right there) which suckered in millions of people. After that, it turned into an advertising front. Isn’t it interesting how, when you talk about a certain subject, Facebook offers ads for that particular item?? Facebook then turned into what it is now, a propaganda machine that will tell you what to think, say, and do. Goebbels would have seen Facebook as a powerful propaganda mechanism.

The Devil Is the Lord – From what we have looked at so far in this expose, I do not doubt that this phrase is a mantra that Zuckerberg chants regularly.

Waits Hit – This seems to be one of those bogus phrases that someone typed into the Gematria Calculator, probably to defame a singer with the last name of “Waits.”

Douglas Quail Doug Quaid – These are the names of the same character in the movie Total Recall. The movie came first then the series, one with the character named Quail and the other with the character named Quaid. The basis of the movie is that the character experiences an identity change that he is unaware of which ruins his life. This sort of scenario has a quasi-Project Monarch theme to it. One has to wonder if Mark Zuckerberg fell victim to experimental mind control at some point in his life. Remember, from a religious sense, he started as one that held Judaism but then he became an Atheist but now is “religious.” If such a metamorphosis can be manifest just in his philosophical belief system, what other areas has Zuckerberg been programmed in? Maybe, just maybe, he went from being a fun-loving computer game enthusiast but was programmed to be a social propagandist.

A Narcissist Sociopath Correct – The DSM-IV defines the three personality disorders as Narcissist, Sociopath, and Psychopath. In simple terms, Narcissists are people that are shaped by their upbringing (if you believe Freud) which causes them to become self-centered and manipulative through emotional means. Narcissists can sometimes be cured through therapy, but rarely. Sociopaths are people that are into themselves and are skilled at manipulating people in any way possible to achieve their goals. Their mode of operation can range from simple manipulation to criminal manipulation. They hurt people and they don't care who they hurt as long as it gains them some sort of advantage. The difference between a sociopath and a psychopath, in simple terms, is that a sociopath will not do physical harm to hurt someone. Psychopaths will hurt people physically to gain their means. A good example of the difference is that the sociopath will steal your credit and/or identity, a psychopath will just rape or kill you (oftentimes both) to get a feeling of satisfaction. All serial killers are psychopaths.

So how does this apply to Mark Zuckerberg? Well, people that have worked with him say that if he's getting what he wants, he is a pleasant person to be around. If he does not get what he wants, he treats people horribly; that is a narcissist, using mood and temper to achieve a goal. Mark Zuckerberg's use of fact-checkers and propaganda mongering is sociopathic. If you do not abide by his rules, he bans you from Facebook for ever-increasing periods until you comply with his wishes and if you continue, he shuts down your Facebook account and/or may malign you in public before others; that is the sociopath.

Gazza Police Dog – This was a dog in New Zealand that was shot dead during a siege with an armed felon that had escaped monitoring by cutting off his ankle monitor. Where Zuckerberg is concerned, he is a proponent of many socialist causes in our modern-day, one of them being the defunding of police. With Zuckerberg propagating and fostering such a movement it puts law officers in harm's way and criminals feel that it is "open season" on killing police officers.

A Bad Ray Too Much Time on Hand – A look into Webster's 1828 dictionary for the word "Ray" produced this piece of information or definition:

Figuratively, a beam of intellectual light.

Now that might look like a wonderful definition, but put together with the rest of the sentence would render thusly, "a bad beam of intellectual light with too much time on his hands." One thing that rich and powerful people have is too much time on their hands. They have no worldly troubles, no monetary ladders to climb and they can pay people to do just about anything for them. I feel that this is why wealthy people acquire an interest in social and political issues, because when you have all the wealth that you can ever use, you lust for power, and with that lust, you have a lot of time on hand to figure how to abuse the power that you attain. This describes Zuckerberg perfectly.

Jesus Satan – Could this be a hint that Mark Zuckerberg worships someone that identifies as a Satanic Jesus? Many of us have speculated that the Antimesiah will be the "same but opposite" form of Jesus Christ, that he would somehow mimic Messiah's life and ministry. And of course, the question begs, is it possible that Zuckerberg might be that Antimesiah, or have some play in elevating that entity to world fame?

Word of God King – It is quite evident that the new social order that people like Zuckerberg, Gates, and others are implementing will be the social norm sometime soon. Zuckerberg has been quite active in establishing what can and cannot be said on social media. Is it possible that when the world king is finally revealed that Zuckerberg will be issued some sort of title as the King of Talk Speak and that his insidious Facebook will be held up as the standard that must be lived up to keep the secret police from dragging people away in the wee hours of the night, never to be seen again?

The Mirror Eleven – This is a Kabbalistic term. In Kabbalah, there is a belief that there are eleven principles that you must abide by to be a successful light being. But we'll go one thing better on this. If indeed someone were a narcissistic sociopath, they would have to wear a mask so that they would not be revealed, even though their fruit manifests who they are. The eleven principles that such a person would have to mirror are:

- Pay attention to what shows up as a reflection of what you still need to learn and grow into.
- Be present to the moment. This includes fully processing emotions that come from the past and how plans for the future impact your present living.
- Accept reality as it is. Live with a deep sense of gratitude. Seek and offer forgiveness in your everyday experiences.
- Live by setting intention. Be open to possibility—one door closing opens another. Measure success by effort not by outcome.
- Hold opposites and recognize that those qualities you may judge in others are mirrored in you. Seek common ground with others.
- Set limits to access greater intimacy and focus in your relationships.
- Expand your concern and love for the “other”.
- Recognize the multiplicity of masks you wear (so they don't wear you).
- Perceive and understand the metaphors that underlie your life choices.
- Witness the masks and metaphors and enter a state of no-thingness.

- Flow in the paradox of being and non-being in every moment.

One should note that these principles are all self-centered. Notice also that there are eleven principles. This is humanism in its finest form, with a strong disregard or gross ignorance that YHVH (the God that Kabbalah is supposed to represent if you believe that trash). Interesting that the Satanic version of “self” has one more precept than YHVH’s original Ten Commandments, and that it is minus any commands that show reverence to a creator being. This Eleven Principles is second in line only to Lucifer’s five “I Will,” statements found in scripture.

Insane Blasphemous Lying – This pretty well describes Mark Zuckerberg. He rejected his Jewish religion, went on to become an atheist, but now states that religion is important, yet doesn’t state which religion he is talking about. Earlier we surmised that it is probably Illuminati and/or Luciferian/Satanic inspired. Remember too that he has attacked all politics that he does not agree with a subtle strength. Once he has conquered the political realm of free speech he will, mark my words, start to attack religion, but not all religions, just those that hold the Judeo/Christian ethic.

All Black Lives Matter – It has been revealed that Zuckerberg has donated heavily to this communistic doctrine that masquerades in a social justice format.

Cthulhu Mythos – This is a pantheon of gods and hideous creatures created by the author H.P. Lovecraft. Lovecraft was a strange character that stayed home for the most part and is said to have had many visitations in dreams and visions of the creatures/gods that he formed into his pantheon. While I cannot find anything that says that Zuckerberg is a fan of H.P. Lovecraft that doesn’t necessarily mean that he hasn’t or doesn’t read Lovecraft’s books. I think that the strangest thing is that Zuckerberg could be a doppelganger of Lovecraft as they share many facial features. See below:

Satan’s Seal Escape Reality – Many believe that what the Bible calls the “Mark of The Beast,” will be some sort of injection or biomedical marker that will change the DNA makeup of humans and change the species. There are Biblical indicators that might show this to be true. Biblical scriptures such as men wanting to die but not being able to, or descriptions of what appear to be biogenetic super-soldiers are talked about in the Bible’s pages. The Bible states that those who take the Mark have no chance of ever being redeemed because they have sold themselves out to Satan. And, the Bible alludes that Eve’s main sin was that she was told that she would be like God and she wanted that ability so she deliberately sinned. The promise from Satan has always been that those who follow him will not die and that they would be like gods. So, it is obvious that something will be genetically changed in those persons that will make them not fully human anymore, hence, they will become something akin to Nephilim.

Watching Mark Elliott Zuckerberg’s body language and other things show indications that he is not fully human as though there has been some sort of change. Yes, it could be CIA mind control that is being exhibited, but even then, the guy looks unreal, almost otherworldly. Maybe someday we’ll find out the truth.

Who Created God – This question has to do with who you think God is. Christians and Messianic believers believe Yeshua's claim that He is fully God and fully Man. Many religions believe, as do Satanists, that Jesus and Lucifer are both created beings (Lucifer is), and that there was a falling out at the beginning and Jesus somehow supplanted the authority that Lucifer was supposed to receive. If it is true, that Zuckerberg is an Illuminist, Luciferian, and/or Satanist he would hold this view. He would also probably believe that El Elyon is a created being also, and this would be because they see things from an inside-the-universe perspective, not an outside-the-created universe perspective.

SUMMARY:

It appears that the Gematria has nailed it where Mark Zuckerberg is concerned. One picture that is going around online shows that Zuckerberg knew the Obama's in their college days. The picture shows a very young Barack Obama, next to him a very young Bill Gates and a very young Michael Robinson, who was the precursor to Michelle Obama.

This seems to suggest that many people were brought together long ago by a person or an organization that groomed them to be the future destroyers of Capitalism and those who would introduce Socialism/Communism into American society after a generation or two of immersion of the public into those doctrines through the schooling system, mainstream media and those in the video arts.

Mark Zuckerberg was born a bad seed. He is a psychopath who will help his puppeteers to gain control of society through any means possible, yes, even using a medium such as Facebook.
