

RADIO ASTRONOMY

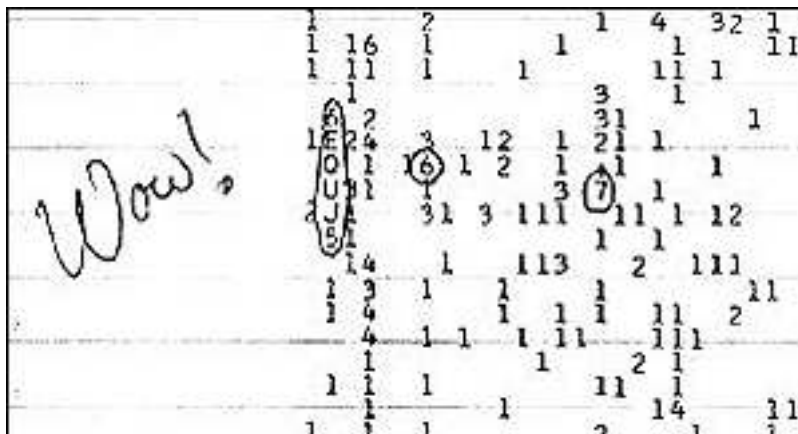

Wow! – It Wasn't A Signal

For quite a few years mankind has been trying to listen with electronic ears for evidence that there is life “out there.” Thousands of scientific papers and many science fiction films later there is still no evidence of space brothers.

On January 17, 2001 an article run in the BBC News, authored by Dr. David Whitehouse. The article went to state (almost as a lament) that nothing has ever come of the famous “WOW” transmission that was once received. That transmission was heard on the “Big Ear” radio-telescope located at Ohio State University by astronomer Jerry Ehman. Now, to clarify the whole deal here, the message never said “wow,” but that is what Ehman wrote down when he saw the random numbers and letters in sequence.

The signal and its caption

So why do so many in the scientific community have such an interest in finding life on other worlds. I think that in the forefront, science believes that if contact were made with other intelligences, there could be some good things, such as:

- To know that we're not alone
- To get help with mankind's problems.
- To further knowledge and to exchange ideas and beliefs.

All of us can relate to loneliness and I don't think that anyone likes it. You have to admit though that sometimes it is better than having others meddling in our problems. Sometimes we find people we regret ever meeting. Take for instance the man who is marooned on a tropical island. He gets lonely and decides to go on a trek to see if there are others on this large island. His search pays off and he finds a tribe on the other side of the island. Well, he makes contact with the tribe only to find out (to his horror) that they are cannibals. He finds out that he is their next course. Not a good scenario. So, sometimes it is good to be alone.

It would sure be wonderful to get help with mankind's problems. Wouldn't it be great to cure disease and find a solution to the hunger problem on Earth? Sure, it would. But what about the negative side of the proposition? What if the neighbors brought worse problems? What if they brought new exotic diseases that mankind had no idea of how to cure? Sometimes it is better to be alone.

An honest look at mankind and knowledge will show that mankind never gains knowledge, he changes knowledge. Take for instance the transition from horse to automobile. Back in the early part of the 1900's most of mankind rode horses and almost everyone was versed in the care of the horse and how to ride one. Along came the automobile. By the 1930's there were more autos than horses, especially in the urban areas. By the 1970's the horse was an outmoded form of transportation and very few knew the art of horse riding. Now, in 2001, the horse is only equated with the wild west and all but forgotten. A clear change of knowledge. You see, if mankind were to gain knowledge, we would keep the knowledge that we already have and add to it. Instead we change knowledge.

The same thing can be said for manually figuring math problems. Back when I was in grade school there was no such thing called pocket calculator. We had to learn how to figure math on paper and in our minds. When I was in high school calculators came on the scene, but our teachers wouldn't let us use them because they still wanted us to be literate in math. Today, the calculator is a requirement in schools. The schools are graduating students who can't do math without a calculator. A clear change of knowledge. This too is happening in a spiritual sense, which we will examine later.

Who is to say that any creature out in the cosmos would not want to come here to plunder our resources, conquer us, enslave us, or even have some sort of mass humanicide, killing us all off? Sometimes it is better to remain quiet and unnoticed. I remember feeling that way in math class. I would try to sit in back, or behind someone bigger than myself, just so that the teacher couldn't see me. I didn't want to get called to the board and humiliated. It worked quite a few times. It wasn't that I was very bad at math, but that I sort of fumble things in front of crowds and knew I would when I got called to the blackboard to solve a problem.

The Real Reason:

Did you know that most astronomers are evolutionists? There is a small few that believe in the things of Almighty God, but they are a small minority. For the most part, they fear revealing their faith because it could lead to loss of employment or ostracizing from the community of scientists.

Ask yourself one question? How many evolutionists attend church services or even pick up a Bible? The answer is, hardly any. Even if they did attend a church, it would be a watered down church that only wears a thin veil of any sort of Christianity. There are only two reasons why an evolutionist would pick up a Bible; to disprove it or to find out the truth. There are very few of the second category.

We mentioned earlier that mankind tends to change knowledge rather than gain it. The scripture below will back up what I have said:

They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen. Romans 1:25 NIV

In other articles on my web page we have gone into the fact that evolution is a religion. Like religion, there is faith involved, there are rituals and there is a order of priest, ministers, lay people and parishioners. Unlike Christianity and Judaism which have been proved by both secular and religious documents and archeological finds, the religion of evolution is an ever-changing belief. This is mostly because its foundation is built on sand and its house shifts, settles and sometimes is blown away by storms, in the way of fraudulent finds and manufactured relics that are exposed for what they are.

Evolution is Evolving:

The only thing true about evolution is that only its theory evolves. Evolution is a lie, and like all lies, they can only be covered up with other lies. The crux of their whole thought process is that they have to prove that their religion is the true belief and that they have to teach it to all of the world to bring in new believers. Sadly, they have been quite successful over the past forty or fifty years.

So how do Biblical Christianity and evolution differ in this aspect? The answer is quite simple. Christians believe that God gave men a free will. So, when the Christian spreads the message of God's love and grace it is called planting a seed. After the seed is planted, God is then allowed to water that seed, and if the person allows, the seed sprouts and grows into a beautiful plant. This process is God Breathed and orchestrated. The message is always the same too, not changing to fit a societal mood or cultural conscience.

Evolution is very much akin to a cult where conversion is concerned and inculcation is always involved in its preaching. After their initial seed is planted, men (not God) are used as farmers to coax the seed to grow. Tainted water is used to water the seed causing a polluted plant to grow. But the important thing to remember here is that like all cults, evolution has to constantly enforce itself with new finds, theories and prospects. Whereas Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today and forever; evolution is ever changing (evolving) to suit its own needs and in the perpetuation of its deception.

Evolution was amalgamated into a theory by Charles Darwin, who wrote the book, "Origin of a Species," back in the 1800's. The theory back then stated that mankind became what it was through a series of mutations. Through the years a series of fraudulent discoveries embarrassed evolution, almost right out of existence.

Over the years, the age of the earth (according to science) has gotten older and older because evolutionists realized that the complexity of living creatures needed a larger time frame in order to have happened. They have gone through great attempts to make whole animals out of just a few fossils and have pretty well duped the public into thinking that what they have produced is true. But, deep in their hearts, they know that their theory is wearing thin, especially with the advent of the creation scientist, who are daily blowing holes in evolution theory. They know that they have to change their story or they will lose face, and all of that grant money that they get every year; our tax dollars.

So, if there wasn't enough time for life to evolve here, and there are no transition fossils to prove evolution, and the radiometric and isotope dating aren't correct then where do you go to prove evolution. You go to outer space, to other planets and perhaps other galaxies to prove that we evolved. After all, their suppositions can never be disproved if they aren't here for the public and the creation scientists to disprove. It is carte' blanc for theories to abound with no accountability. But again, isn't this a thing of faith again? After all, the Bible defines faith as:

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Hebrews 11:1

Now we have reached the point where the astronomical sciences come into play. Finding other life in the universe is the whole reason why organizations like NASA and JPL have been created. At first the public was lied to in that we were told that these organizations existed in order to help us explore the planets, find resources and perhaps other places to live. In all actuality, they were birthed in order to find life "out there." The Hubble telescope has been used extensively by those trying to promote that the universe is tens of billions of years old, again trying to destroy the credibility of the Bible, which says it is only six thousand years old. Building evolution and tearing down the Bible is the whole venture of evolution and now also astronomy. But we have to thank the Lord that he gave an explanation in the Bible to counter their claims:

For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water. 2 Peter 3:5

So you can see that by His foreknowledge, God knew that there would be people running around saying that the universe has to be old because of the distances between the galaxies and because of the speed of light. No, God made it look old when he created it. Incidentally, the above scripture also refutes the old earth theory. Evolution theory tells us that the early Earth was molten and there was no water. God tells us that there was solid land and water at the same time, right from the beginning.

What's Really Out There?

Well, if we are speaking about corporeal life, there is nothing out there. That is why we haven't heard any signals from other civilizations. The WOW signal was most probably a reflection of gibberish that somehow came back to us. The only credible WOW signal that we will ever hear is when Jerry Ehman, the one who wrote WOW, will finally say, "wow, I don't believe I wasted my whole life in pursuit of nothing."

There are however real aliens, who although they don't come from other worlds, are here with an insidious plan to enslave mankind. They are more commonly referred to as demons. They have been here all along and have been trying to lead mankind down a path of destruction ever since they were cast out of heaven so very long ago. They have a leader whose name is Satan.

For millennia they have taken on different forms, in the style of the times, to fool men and women. To the ancient Persians, they were genies, also known as Jinn. The Romans and Greeks knew them as the Titan gods. In the middle ages they took on the form of ghosts, goblins, ogres, elves and fairies. Today, in the supposed age of enlightenment, they pose as ghosts, poltergeists and space aliens.

There are several things that ghosts, poltergeists and space aliens have in common. Ghosts and poltergeists are really the same entities. Have you ever heard of the "good cop, bad cop," routine? When two police officers pull you over one will be a nice guy and the other a real louse. They know that a person will respond to one of the personality traits. The good cop will say, "hey, if you are honest with us, I can get you a good deal," while the bad cop makes you scared so that you will align with the good cop and capitulate to his offer. It works every time. The same thing is true about ghosts and poltergeists. They are both demons, just like the officers are both cops. Both the ghost and poltergeist are trying to get you to believe in the occult. The poltergeist is the bad one and because of that most people today believe that regular ghosts are benevolent and look out for our best interest. God knows that both are demonic and he warns us in his word not to cleave to either one.

There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. Deuteronomy 18: 10-12

A “consulter with familiar spirits,” is a person who channels spirits and a “necromancer,” is a person who consults ghosts, or departed spirits.

A lot of people are surprised these days when you tell them that ghosts are evil entities. We’ve been so conditioned by mediums on television and friendly ghost movies that come out of Hollywood that people really don’t know the truth anymore. Ghosts never do anything that brings glory to God. The thought that ghosts are the disembodied spirits of our loved ones is not Biblical. The Word of God teaches us that those who die in Christ go immediately to Him, their bodies to be resurrected later, and those who die outside of Jesus sleep until they are resurrected to judgment.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Corinthians 5:8

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: John 11: 24-25

So now we know that ghosts and poltergeists are demonic and that God warns us that we are not to entertain such spirits. But what about the extraterrestrial aliens?

We are given a little more help to determine where demons originated. To see this, you have to go into some books that were highly regarded by the religious people of Jesus’ time. These books are today known as the Apocrypha.

For an overview, In Genesis, Chapter 6, it is stated that the Sons of God (B’nai Elohim) saw that the daughters of men were beautiful and took (abducted) any that they wanted and that those women bore children to them, who were called the Nephilim. The word Nephilim in Hebrew means “the fallen ones,” and in the Greek the word is translated to mean Giants. Their word for giant really means “earthbound.” Therefore, the Nephilim were beings that resemble men, but were actually half spiritual being and half earthbound being. They were an evil race and did much harm, as can be seen if you go to the website main page and go to the book of Enoch link in the category feature.

The book of Enoch explains where demons originated as is illustrated below, in a proclamation that God gave to the angels who sinned:

3... Wherefore have ye left the high, holy, and eternal heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives, and done like the children

4 of earth, and begotten giants (as your) sons? And though ye were holy, spiritual, living the eternal life, you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and have begotten (children) with the blood of flesh, and, as the children of men, have lusted after flesh and blood as those also do who die

5 and perish. Therefore have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them, and beget

6 children by them, that thus nothing might be wanting to them on earth. But you were formerly

7 spiritual, living the eternal life, and immortal for all generations of the world. And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling.

8 And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon

9 the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin;

10 they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling.]

11 And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless

12 hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.

Since demons and evil people can disguise themselves so well as to fool almost everyone, there are several tests to figure out who they actually are:

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 1 John 4: 1-3

And

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Matthew 7:16-20

Just like anyone you run into, you know how sincere they are by what they say and what they do. If a person says that they like you but they spread malicious rumors about you then you know that they are not your friend. This is a simple thing to know and accept. So, do extraterrestrial aliens show fruit of godliness?

Let's look at the ideals that aliens promote:

1. They promote the notion that Jesus Christ was just one of many masters who have come to Earth to teach mankind.

But in reality, Jesus himself says:

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6

And the test of all tests is:

This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world. 1 John 4:2-3

2. They promote the notion that the Bible is just another great book.

But in reality, The Bible claims that:

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. 2 Timothy 3:16 Note: This refers to Biblical Scripture only!

And:

For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. ¹³ Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Hebrews 4:12-13

3. They have gone out of their way to say that evolution is a fact.

But in reality, the Word of God says:

The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons. 1 Timothy 4:1

And:

They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator, who is forever praised. Amen. Romans 1:25

4. They promote spiritual evolution, ascending to higher planes of knowledge. The connotation here is that reincarnation is real. It also denotes that mankind can achieve godlike status.

But in reality, the Word of God says:

Just as man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, Hebrews 9:27

And:

*All of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags; we all shrivel up like a leaf, and like the wind our sins sweep us away. Isaiah 64:6
Note: the term filthy rags in actual translation means used menstrual cloths.*

5. They say that they are here to save mankind.

At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'There he is!' do not believe it. For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles to deceive even the elect; if that were possible. See, I have told you ahead of time. Matthew 24:23-25

And:

Many deceivers, who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh, have gone out into the world. Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch out that you do not lose what you have worked for, but that you may be rewarded fully. Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not take him into your house or welcome him. Anyone who welcomes him shares in his wicked work. 2 John 1:7-11

6. They perform tests on men and women that are of a sadistic nature.

Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. Ephesians 5:11-12

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Ephesians 6:12

In every society on Earth kidnapping is a crime, and rightfully so. So, if these entities are so advanced and so caring, why abduct people. It's because what they are doing is demonic in nature and goes against human nature and right principles. And we have to ask, if they are so advanced (like they would have us believe) how come they have to abduct so many people so many times? Can't they get it right in one or two times? Are they inept bundlers, and if so, should humankind trust them? No, they are demonic in nature and abduct to get pleasure in duping mankind into believing a great lie. Time will prove this correct.

7. They promote pantheism – all religions are the right way to God.

This is hogwash because Jesus proudly proclaimed:

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6

And:

In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again. "John 3:3 Note: Born in the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Every one of the 7 things listed above are "fruits" of the anti-Christ way of thinking and acting. I've taken the liberty of also adding refutations from the Bible toward the message of the alien horde. Extraterrestrials do nothing but try to discredit the life and ministry of Jesus Christ and discredit the Bible.

The interesting thing is that the ideals that the aliens promote are all in accordance with the non-monotheistic religions. They promote all of the ideas of the “New Age” religion which enforces the idea that there is no accountability and that every man can do what is right in their own eyes.

Hollywood and the news media have been working in conjunction with the New Age religion where the belief of aliens is concerned. Of recent years we have been bombarded with movies about aliens and their purpose and you can find at least one documentary every week that talks about meeting ET. The thought of the existence of a benevolent space brother who cares for us here on Earth has gone from a remote possibility to a distinct probability in the minds of many.

So, where has all of this mild manipulation and brainwashing gotten us. Society in large has forgotten God and our Savior Jesus Christ. Our society believes more in aliens who are coming to save mankind rather than the salvation that is already offered through Christ. Jesus came to save us and clean out hearts. Mankind forgets a very important principle; that we can't have peace on Earth without peace in every man's heart. Outward peace only happens when inward peace is achieved. Inward peace only comes through forgiveness through Jesus Christ.

When the world decays to what looks like a point of no return the demon hordes will enter the scene in the guise of aliens. They will usher forth the reign of anti-Christ. He will use the demons to keep an eye on mankind and to administer a twisted form of justice on all who won't believe in him or his mission here on Earth. But thanks be to God that anti-Christ's reign and the demonic menace will only last for a total of 7 years. At the end of that time, Jesus our Lord will return to expose the little aliens for what they really are.

The point now is that you know the truth. You have been told by me that what appears to be a benevolent race is really of a demonic element, bent on the destruction of godly things and ultimately all of mankind. You will have to make a decision as to what side you want to serve. My hope is that you will choose to serve Jesus. If you want to find out how to do this then click on the “saved” feature on the site main page.

I know that this document has been pretty long and I thank you for reading to the end.
God Bless You Richly!
