

ROSA MYSTICA

Who and/or What Is It?

Recently my wife became reacquainted with an old friend from Mexico. This friend wanted to continue the friendship which my wife was okay with and it met with my approval too. Juan is a nice man and he was thrilled that I am a Messianic Jew, and that my wife married me, but he is concerned that my wife left her Catholic upbringing and became a Born-Again Believer in Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Jesus Christ).

This did not bother me until my wife started to receive e-mails telling her that she was in effect an apostate because she wasn't Roman Catholic anymore and we started to receive rhetoric about the Roman Catholic Church being the only true church; so, on and so forth. Juan told her that he was quite interested in some Catholic prophecies and that he thought that we should check them out. I felt like a Jew that has been pointed to Isaiah 53 or the Book of Daniel in order to prove that Yeshua is the Messiah. In the latter case, this is the truth; but having read what we will present to you shortly left me in disgust and I realized that things like Rosa Mystica are part of the Strong Delusion we are warned about in

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Thessalonians 2:7-12 KJV

We hold fast that when studying anything we need to see how it measures up to the Holy Scriptures; including the Tanakh (Mosaic Covenant, AKA Old Testament) and the Brit Hadasha (New Covenant). If any thought, practice, ideology or religion is opposed in any way to the rules that Yahweh has laid down in His Word (The Bible) then it has to be brought into the light and exposed. All Catholics, Christians and Jews who hold to truth that the Word of Yahweh is God breathed and inspired will have to agree that its pages are the only truth that one needs to show what is good and evil and how to discern what we must do to live righteous lives for Yahweh. IF something that we say, think or practice contradicts the Word of Yahweh, we must repent immediately and ask Yahweh for forgiveness.

At the Delusion Resistance Ministries this is exactly what we do. We find these things and we reveal them to people so that they can see the error (Scripturally speaking) about anything that goes against sound Biblical doctrine. Our aim is certainly not to offend Roman Catholic people or anyone who holds things like Rosa Mystica to be true in their estimation. We merely point out what the Bible says and contrast it to what Rosa Mystica has to say. Some might hold that we are Catholic haters because we question the doctrine of Rosa Mystica or other such things or practices. Well again we assert that we only want to show what the Bible says about things. If the Bible shows Rosa Mystica to be in error and someone is angry then they have issues with the Word of Yahweh and if that is the case, then that person should become circumspect and start asking themselves a lot of questions along with long and fervent prayer between them and Yeshua only.

With all of the above having been said let us look now at the story and messages of Rosa Mystica and see where it is Biblically accurate and where and if it falters. Please keep in prayer as you read this article and please keep yourself open to Yeshua for what He will want to tell you.

Apparitions of Our Lady – Rosa Mystica at Montichiari-Fontanelle

Introduction of Booklet by: Franz Sepeckbacher, Author of Booklet

Dear Readers, Our dear Mother of God has been appearing in Montichiari-Fontanelle (Italy) since 1947, at a time when Faith is diminishing more and more, and sins are on the increase at a most alarming speed.

If you ever visited one of the great places of pilgrimage, you will no doubt have returned from it firmly convinced that you visited a place where Heaven touches Earth. The many obvious favours received in answer to one's prayers are an indirect proof that the apparitions and revelations are genuine.

Perach, on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady, Mary the Mother of God, December 8, 1983.

Apparitions of Our Lady at Montichiari

In the little town of Montichiari, not far from the picturesque Lake Garda, which sit surrounded by mountains live 14,000 people. The town is situated at the edge of these clear mountains from which it derives its name, and close to the City of Brescia in the province of Lombardy, Northern Italy. It is from this podium that our Heavenly Mother requested on December 8, 1947, that H.H. Pius XII be notified of Her request that an Hour of Grace be observed every December 8th henceforth.

In the Spring of 1947, whilst praying in the chapel of the local hospital in Montichiari, nurse Pierina Gilli had an unforgettable experience. Mary, the Mother of God, appeared to her in a wonderful vision and magnificent light, as the exalted Lady, dressed in mauve, very sad and with tears in Her eyes. Pierina noticed that Her heart was pierced by three swords; The first sword means: the unworthy celebration of Holy Mass and Communion unworthily received; the meaning of the second sword is: being unfaithful to, and giving up, the vocation as a priest or a religious monk; and the third sword means: betrayal of the Faith. Our Lady asked for Prayer, Sacrifice, and Penance. These were Her only words.

Second Apparition on 13th July, 1947

*Our Lady appeared to Pierina in a white dress. She was adorned with three beautiful roses: white, red and yellow, which Pierina was allowed to see in place of the three swords. The white rose represented the spirit of prayer, the red one represented the spirit of sacrifice, and the yellow rose the spirit of penance and conversion. Pierina had not yet recognized the Mother of God, and she asked the apparition therefore: Please tell me, who are you?. In reply to this question She smiled and said: I am the Mother of Jesus and the Mother of all of you. Our Lord sends me to bring a new Marian Devotion to all religious orders and institutes, male and female, and to the priests of this world. I promise to protect those religious orders and institutes who will venerate me in this special way, increase their vocations, and achieve a greater striving for saintliness among the servants of God.

I wish that the 13th of each month be celebrated as a Marian Day. Special prayers are to be said during the proceeding twelve days. With an expression of great joy, She continued: On this day I shall pour out vocational holiness and abundant graces on those religious orders and spiritual institutes who have honoured me especially.

I wish that the 13th July be celebrated each year in honour of the Rosa Mystica (the Mystical Rose)

Pierina asked whether a miracle would follow. Our Lady replied: The most evident miracle will be this: Those who have given their souls to God – the religious who, for a long time now, have become indifferent thus betraying their vocation and as a result of their offenses have brought about the punishments and persecutions which are raging against the Church at the present time – will stop to offend Our Lord. They will again lead a life according to the original spirit of their saintly founders. The seer, Pierina, interpreted the words Mystical Rose as follows: “Mary is the master teacher of the innermost, mystical life and the Mother of the mystical body of Christ; in other words: She is the Mother of the Church.”

This interpretation by Pierina was magnificently confirmed by Pope Paul VI in his final speech during the third meeting of the council, on 21st November, 1964. Irrespective of the presence of observers from the separated Churches, he declared Mary as the Mother of the Church; finally, he let his heart speak out and said: We want that, in the future, the Most Blessed Virgin is still more honoured under this title, and called by this lovely title by the Christian people. This short, yet spiritually deep declaration, by the supreme office of our Church guarantees that we cannot go wrong, but can only feel once more reassured when we venerate Mary calling Her by the title ROSA MYSTICA.

Third Apparition on 22nd October, 1947

Pierina saw Our Lady again in the chapel of the hospital, in the presence of many staff members, doctors, and people from the town. This time, Our Lady requested that the desired devotion be realized, and said: I have placed myself as the mediatrix between my Divine son and mankind, especially for the soul consecrated to God. Tired of the continuous offenses, He already wanted to dispense His justice.

Pierina thanked Our Lady in the name of all present. Our Lady finished Her dialogue with the words; Live out of love!

Fourth Apparition on 16th November, 1947

Our Lady appeared in the Basilica of Montichiari in the presence of some people. Among them were several priests. Pierina heard the words: Our Lord can no longer watch the many grievous sins against purity. He wants to send a flood of punishments. I have interceded that He may be merciful once more! Therefore, I ask for prayer and penance to atone for these sins. Pierina replied to Our Lady's request with a willing "Yes". The Blessed Virgin added: I lovingly ask the priest to express their great love and stop the people from committing those sins. Whoever will atone for those sins, will receive my blessing and graces. In reply the seer's question whether we may hope for forgiveness, Our Lady said: Yes, as long as these sins are no longer committed. With these words She went away.

Fifth Apparition on 22nd November, 1947

*Our Lady appeared once more to Pierina in the Basilica of Montichiari in the presence of several people, and demanded that the seer make four times the Sign of the Cross with her tongue on the tiles in the center of the church. Our Lady then descended onto the spot and said: I descend on this place, for many great conversions will happen here. And in a sad voice She continued: The Christians of your Italian nation belong to those who offend most my Divine Son Jesus through their sins of unchastity. Our Lord demands, therefore, PRAYER, GENEROUS SACRIFICES, AND PENANCE.

Pierina asked: "What do we have to do to fulfill your demands for prayer and penance?" Our Lady replied full of tenderness: Prayer. After a short, silent pause, She explained: Penance means to accept every day all the little crosses and the duties too, in the spirit of penance.

*Thereupon She promised solemnly: On the 8th December, at noon, I shall appear again here in the Basilica. IT WILL BE THE HOUR OF GRACE.

Pierina asked: "Please explain to me the meaning of Hour of Grace".

This Hour of Grace will produce great and numerous conversions. Hardened and cold hearts resembling this marble will be touched by divine Grace, and they will become faithful to Our Lord in loyal love.

This was the only time that Our Lady announced Her next appearance. All other apparitions came unannounced.

Sixth Apparition on 7th December, 1947

Our Blessed Virgin appeared once more at the Basilica of Montichiari Three people were present including the father confessor of the seer. Our Lady, the Mystical Rose, wore a white cloak which was held by a boy at the right-hand side, and by a girl on the left-hand side.

*Our Lady said: I shall show my heart tomorrow of which the people know so little. In Fatima I asked that the devotion to my heart be spread. And with an ever sweeter voice She went on: I wanted to bring my heart into Christian families in Bonate: (near Bergamo, Italy) and after a brief pause She added: Here, in Montichiari, I wish to be venerated as the ROSA MYSTICA as already indicated so often, together with the devotion to my heart which must be specially practiced in religious institutes so that they may obtain more graces through my motherly heart.

Our Lady then confided a secret to Pierina with the promise that She would tell her the time for the secret to be made public. Pierina also wanted to know who the children were. Our Lady replied: Jacinta and Francisco; they will help you in your trials and suffering. They too, suffered. I wish from you the simplicity and goodness of these two children.

Our Lady then spread out Her arms as a sign of Her protection, lifted Her eyes to Heaven and disappeared with the words: Praised be the Lord!

Seventh Apparition on 8th December, 1947.

On this great feast countless priest were present. It was only with a great deal of effort that Pierina was able to get into the Basilica. She knelt in the center of the church, just where the other apparitions had taken place. During the recitation of the Holy Rosary, Pierina called out: "O, Our Lady!"

Great silence ensued! Our Lady appeared on a large white staircase, decorated with a white, red and yellow rose. She said with a smile: I am the Immaculate Conception. And descending several steps with great majesty She continued: I am Mary, full of grace, Mother of My Divine Son Jesus Christ. Descending even more, She said: Through my coming to Montichiari, I wish to be known as the ROSA MYSTICA

It is my wish that every year, on 8th December, at noon, the HOUR OF GRACE FOR THE WORLD be celebrated. Many divine and bodily graces will be received through this devotion.

Our Lord, my Divine Son Jesus, will send His overflowing mercy if good people will pray continuously for their sinful brother.

One should very soon notify the Holy Father of the Church, Pope Pius XII, that it is my wish that the HOUR OF GRACE FOR THE WORLD be made known and spread throughout the world. If anyone is unable to visit his church, yet will pray at noon at home, he will also receive graces through me. Whoever prays on these tiles and weeps tears of penance, will find a secure heavenly ladder and receive protection and grace through my motherly heart.

Then Our Lady showed Pierina her heart and said: Look at this heart which loves mankind so very much, but most people only shower offenses upon it. If the good and the bad unite in prayer they will obtain mercy and peace through this heart. The Lord is still protecting the good and is holding back a great punishment because of my intercession. Our Lady smiled again and went on: Soon one will recognize the greatness of this Hour of Grace.

When Pierina saw that Our Lady was going to depart, she said: “Dear Lady, I thank you! Bless my homeland Italy and the whole world, but especially the Holy Father, the priest, the religious, and the sinners.”

Our Lady replied: I have already prepared a flood of graces for all the children who listen to my words and keep them in their hearts. She assured Pierina that she would return at a suitable time when the Secret entrusted to her, would be made public through the Ecclesiastical authority. Our Lady then said ‘good-bye’. Pierina withdrew to a convent where, hidden from the world, she served in the kitchen and where she waited in silence for the hour which, as promised, came after 19 years, on White Sunday (Sunday after Easter), 17th April, 1966, in Fontanelle, a settlement of only a few houses spread around and situated about 2-3 km outside Montichiari. Our Blessed Lady kept her promise.

APPARITION AT FONTANELLE

First Apparition: White Sunday, 17th April, 1966.

The Most Blessed Virgin said:

My Divine Son is total love, and he is sending me to give miraculous powers to this spring. As a sign of penance and purification kiss the top step. Steps made of stone led down from the path to the spring.

Then descend a few steps and kiss the stone again. Our Lady followed the seer. Now, for a third time, kiss the bottom step and have a crucifix placed there. With Her left hand Our Lady indicated the spot. The sick and all my children must kiss the crucifix and ask my Divine Son for forgiveness before they take the water, or drink from it.

Our Lady approached the spring and said: Take mud into your hands. Wash yourself with water! This is to teach the sinners that sin makes the soul dirty, yet the soul will be cleansed again through the water of grace. Thus, the sinner will once more be pleasing to God. What a clear symbol of the sacramental grace of God!

Our Lady bowed down and touched the water of the spring in two places. She added the following words: The wishes expressed by my Son Jesus in 1947, are to made known to all my children. Then I gave you His messages and mine in the Basilica (Montichiari). It is my wish, and I repeat: the sick should come to this miraculous spring and many of my children should come with them.

Second Apparition: 13th May, 1966.

On 13th May, Our Lady's anniversary of Her apparition at Fatima, Our Lady brought great joy to Pierina when She appeared once again at the spring, in the presence of about 20 people. It was 11:40 a.m. Our Lady said amongst other things:

One should make known my appearance at this spring. My Divine Son is all love. The world is walking the road to perdition. Once again I have been able to obtain mercy, and Jesus has sent me, therefore, again to Montichiari to bring you the grace of His love... It requires PRAYER, SACRIFICE AND PENANCE in order to save mankind.

Our Lady, pointing to the water at Her right-hand side which She had touched on 17th April, 1966, said: It is my wish that a comfortable basin is built here, in order to immerse the sick in the water... The other part of the spring (She pointed to Her left-hand side) is to be used for drinking.

Pierina wanted to know from the Blessed Virgin what to call the spring. Thereupon Our Lady replied: THE SPRING OF GRACE

And in reply to a further question: "What is your name?", Peirina was told: ROSA MYSTICA

At these words, the Mother of God spread out Her arms, spread open Her wide cloak, and said with a smile: I have come to bring love, unity and peace to the souls of my children. I ask you, do not throw any mud on the love for your fellow-man.

The seer questioned the meaning of the wide cloak. Our lady answered: This is the meaning of my love which embraces the whole of mankind.

Pierina asked: "What would you like us to do here at Fontanelle? Our Lady replied: Do acts of charity for the sick who will come here.

Third Apparition: The Feast of Corpus Christi, 9th June, 1966

About 100 people were present at the spring on this Day of Obligation. Pierina came to the Shrine after 3 p.m. and asked all those present to recite the Holy Rosary. Suddenly, in the middle of the recitation, Pierina called out: "Look up to the sky!" This time, Our Lady appeared five to six metres above the spring over a wheat field. Those present noticed that, in the direction of the seer's eyes, Our Lady seemed to touch the ears of the wheat with Her feet. Our Lady said: My Divine Son Jesus Christ has sent me here today, on the Feast of the Body of Our Lord, on the Feast of Unity and Love. Spreading out Her hand She continued: I should like very much that this wheat be transformed into the Eucharistic bread, into countless penitential communions. Majestically, lifting Her eyes to Heaven, Our Lady went on: It is my wish that the Hosts made of this wheat, be taken to Rome, and to Fatima for the 13th October.

Pierina asked: "Should all this wheat be used for it?"

Our Lady replied: May noble hearts fulfill my wish. I wish that a chapel be built here with a statue facing the spring.

Pierina said: "Dear Blessed Virgin, I do not understand."

Our Lady showed her an image and said: The statue is to be carried here in a procession on 13th October, but prior to it, it is my wish that the people of Montichiari consecrate themselves to my heart. Montichiari is the place which my Divine Son has chosen for me to distribute His graces.

Pierina saw that Our Lady was going to leave, so she asked Her to stay a little longer. Our Lady lingered, and Pierina was allowed to commend several petitions and to request Our Lady's blessing for the priests, the faithful, and the sick.

Fourth Apparition: The Feast of the Transfiguration of Our Lord, 6th August, 1966

Pierina came to the spring at about 2:30 p.m. About 200 people had gathered there. At 3p.m. the seer asked all to recite the Holy Rosary. During the fourth mystery she stopped, and called out: "Our Lady is here." Everyone was silent, and they all listened with emotion to the dialogue with Heaven.

The Mother of God said: My Divine Son Jesus has sent me again, in order to request the WORLD LEAGUE OF PENITENTIAL COMMUNION and this is to be done on 13th October. This Day of Penitential Communion should be spread throughout the world. It is to be held first in 1966, and then to be repeated every year. Those priests and faithful who will spread this devotion, will be given the wealth of my graces.

Pierina inquired again about the wheat. Our Lady instructed her: One should take this wheat to my beloved Son Pope Paul VI with the instruction that it has been blessed by

Our Presence. It is the wheat of his homeland, of Brescia, of Montichiari. Tell him the wishes of my Divine Son... also those concerning Fatima.

Pierina wanted to know what to do with the remaining wheat.

Our Lady answered: Have small bread rolls baked of the remaining wheat. These rolls are to be distributed here at Fontanelle on certain days in memory of my coming. This is to be the sign of gratitude of my sons, who till the soil. After my ascension into Heaven I have always acted as Mediatrix between my Son Jesus and the whole of mankind. How many graces I have been able to obtain in all these centuries! How many graces were shown. How much punishment was prevented. How many dialogues did I hold with souls. How often have I visited earth to bring my messages to the people, but people continue to offend Our Lord. I have chosen this place of Montichiari because there is still the humility of poor Bethlehem among my sons who till the soil. Furthermore, this place, where so many prayers are said continuously, will be transformed into a source of rich blessings.

After these revelations of Our Lady, Pierina withdrew once more into a life of peaceful retirement. In addition, the bishop ordered her to remain absolutely silent. Pierina obeyed the bishop's order.

The things that are forbidden are very tempting, and very soon the message of the apparition of Our Lady spread around the world drawing floods of pilgrims to Montichiari.

We will now endeavor to look at the messages from the Marian Apparition to see if they hold weight when compared to Biblical Scripture. If the messages of this entity align with the Word of Yahweh then they should be accepted. If they do not align with the Holy Scriptures, then should be discarded as doctrines of demons.

Mother of God?

The first thing that will examine is the claim that the entity posing as Mary, Maria or Miriam proudly proclaims. She calls herself the "Mother of God." Our ministry is quick to note and we believe that Yeshua was the Son of El Elyon (The Most High) and that He is the second member of what is commonly called the Trinity; therefore He is Yahweh; the Lord God of Israel. If the apparition was to tell the truth, it would say that it was the Mother of the Son of God, which is different. True, Yeshua is God and He's man too and this is borne out by the fact that a virgin conceived and gave birth to Him. Somehow, we don't know how; the Ruach Ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit) created the second 23 chromosomes that made up the body of Yeshua. By sheer deduction we have to conclude that He is God and human both at the same time.

We have the testimony of Yeshua Himself who on numerous occasions called himself, "The Son of Man." It is as if Yeshua was going out of his way to identify with his humanity in order to let humankind know that He was one of us.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Matthew 16:27

Yeshua, although He was God, had many of the limitations of being a man. For instance, because He left his heavenly estate to be a man, He was not privy to some of the information that He might have had if He had remained beside Aveinu (our Father), such as:

But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Mark 13:32

And the Apostle Paul sums it up by telling us the following:

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:5-11

The Roman Catholic claim that Mary is the mother of God is not quite accurate. First, we know that Elohim (the triune God) lives outside of space/time in an eternal state. He had no beginning and no end so it is utterly impossible that Mary (a created corporeal being) could be the mother of the Lord of Spirits, who is a spirit Himself:

You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." John 4:22-24

The inaccuracy that this being gives; claiming that she's the mother of God is something quite serious. Mary gave birth to Yeshua, who was man and God, not just God alone. So right from the start we see a distortion coming from this entity. If she was truly sent from Yeshua to minister to people then she would have her story correct and she would not present a distorted title. Perhaps there is someone more nefarious at work here.

Magnificent light?

The vision of an apparition that calls itself Mary in this case was seen accompanied by a magnificent light. Many times this "light" has been seen with angelic visitations. One such example occurred when Peter was in prison:

And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. Acts 12:7

And:

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. Luke 2:9

Now the argument could be brought to us that since the two instances above were angelic and that they were Holy angels, that all holy angelic visitations have such lighting, like a Shekinah glory light. Such an instance was seen at the Transfiguration of Yeshua, as accounted in the Gospel

And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. Matthew 17:1-8

It has to be noted that the account in Matthew wasn't an angelic visitation, but it was a portal, so to speak, where the glory of heaven was manifest for a brief moment here on earth. The same thing happened to Moshe when he spent time with Yahweh:

And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him. Exodus 34:29-30

A natural question would be to ask if that since a light seems to appear with angels of Yahweh; then does the same thing happen when fallen angels appear to people? The Bible answers that question

Now the serpent (Nachash) was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? Genesis 3:1

The Hebrew word rendered "serpent" in Gen. 3.1 is Nachash (from the root Nachash, to shine), and means a shining one. Hence, in Chaldee it means brass or copper, because of its shining. Hence also, the word nehushtan, a piece of brass, in 2 Kings 18.4. In the same way Saraph, in Isaiah 6.2,6, means a burning one, and, because the serpents mentioned in Numbers 21 were burning, in the poison of their bite, they were called Saraphim, or Seraphs. But when the LORD said unto Moses, "Make thee a fiery serpent" (Numbers 21.8), He said, "Make thee a Saraph", and, in obeying this command, we read in verse 9, "Moses made a Nachash of brass". Nachash is thus used as being interchangeable with Saraph. Now, if Saraph is used of a serpent because its bite was burning, and is also used of a celestial or spirit-being (a burning one), why should Nachash be used of a serpent because its appearance was shining, and be also used of a celestial or spirit-being (a shining one)? Source: The Serpent of Genesis 3 – By Dr. Bullinger: [www.ovrInd.com/Teaching/serpentofgen.html]

And we see again, concerning the brightness of fallen angels:

Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee. Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more. Ezekiel 28:12-19

And to put the final nail in the coffin, in our assertion that fallen angels can masquerade as holy angels by their appearance, we look at the words of the Apostle Paul. He wanted to warn the church about false apparitions and did so in the following passage:

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. 2 Corinthians 11:14-15

Paul tells us quite plainly that Satan can transform himself into an angel of light in order to deceive Christians and anyone else for that matter. His “ministers” in the passage can mean either other fallen angels, demons or humans who work for darkness. But the point in all of this is that just because something shines with a light it doesn’t mean that it is from Yahweh. We’re commanded to test all spirits to see if they are from Yahweh; and we use the Bible to do so and this is done by looking at the message of the apparition and the fruits thereof.

So far, the Marian apparition of Rosa Mystica hasn’t met the critical standards set by Biblical Scripture. Let’s look at some more to see if perhaps the apparition just faltered on a couple of things, or if it fails the whole test.

Her heart was pierced by three swords:

In the veneration of the Marian apparitions one thing that is almost always mentioned is Mary’s Heart. The number of swords piercing the heart differs with each apparition. When one wonders where the Roman Catholic religion could have possibly gotten any idea that a sword could have pierced Mary's heart, we can do a study of scripture to see if that is in the pages of Holy Script. There is one scripture that does mention something similar, but we have to study this scripture to see if it is talking about what Roman Catholicism calls the Sacred Heart of Mary, or if it is a perversion of what Scripture is really trying to say. We find a scripture in the Gospel of Luke that says:

And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said: "Lord, now You are letting Your servant depart in peace, According to Your word; For my eyes have seen Your salvation Which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles, And the glory of Your people Israel."

And Joseph and His mother marveled at those things which were spoken of Him. Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be spoken against (yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." Luke 2:25-35 NKJV

In most Bible translations, including the Douay-Rheims Bible (a translation sanctioned by the Vatican) we see the translation "yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also." The only readily available translation that renders the word "soul" as "heart," is the King James Bible. We know that our hearts are an organ in our bodies, very important indeed because without it we cease to live; but it is not the soul. As noted in the definition below, the soul survives death while the body (and heart) does not.

Heart: psychē Strong's G5590

1) breath

A) the breath of life

1) the vital force which animates the body and shows itself in breathing

a) of animals

B) of men

b) life

C) that in which there is life

1) a living being, a living soul a) the seat of the feelings, desires, affections, aversions (our heart, soul etc.)

2) the soul

b) the (human) soul in so far as it is constituted that by the right use of the aids offered it by God it can attain its highest end and secure eternal blessedness, the soul regarded as a moral being designed for everlasting life

c) the soul as an essence which differs from the body and is not dissolved by death (distinguished from other parts of the body)

In essence, our soul is the part of us where we have intellect, feelings, deduction and problem-solving capabilities. Now when we take that into account and make a proper presentation of the scripture using the original languages we come up with the following. We know that Miriam had been given foreknowledge of her son's atoning death. If you are a parent imagine that you have been given a gift from Yahweh and you know that your child was born so that someday he or she would be put to death as a sin offering. Imagine wondering this would happen; will it be when he is in his teens; and if he survives the teen years would it be in his twenties or thirties. Every new year probably brought to memory the words of the angels to Miriam. She must have thought; "is today the day Yahweh, or tomorrow or this week or this month?" So, the sword that would pierce her soul was meant to mean that she would live expecting the death of Yeshua at any time, and she didn't know just when. That would drive many people over the brink of sanity; but Miriam knew the whole story and that brought her some comfort we can only assume.

As I was writing this my wife Lourdes was used by Yahweh to show me another truth. Now let's look at this from another angle. We know from Holy Scripture that the Bible is referred to as the Word of Yahweh, but it is also called a Sword:

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God...Ephesians 6:17

And we know that it is a special kind of sword by reading in Hebrews:

Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. Hebrews 4:11-13

We know that Miriam was of the lineage of David as was Joseph, and she was also of the lineage of Levi, the priestly tribe. Because of this her family most probably studied the scriptures and it is possible that her father might have officiated over some priestly rites at some stage of his life. Because of her priestly heritage, and because all of Israel was waiting for the promised Messiah, Miriam was almost assuredly familiar with the messianic scriptures, especially the scriptures that pointed to the suffering messiah. Her knowledge of these scriptures, coupled with what the angel told her would ensure that Miriam knew the fate of her son from the day of conception until the day that he was laid in the tomb at Gethsemane. That was quite a burden to bear, but for the grace of Yahweh she was able to bear it.

As we mentioned above, there is a special aspect of religious adoration in Roman Catholicism where the heart of Mary is concerned. As a matter of fact, in Catholic circles it is referred to the “Sacred Heart of Mary.” The best way to try to understand this belief is to go to the source; in this case that source being the Catholic Online Encyclopedia, which describes the following:

Just as devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is only a form of devotion to the adorable Person of Jesus, so also is devotion to the Holy Heart of Mary but a special form of devotion to Mary. In order that, properly speaking, there may be devotion to the Heart of Mary, the attention and the homage of the faithful must be directed to the physical heart itself. However, this in itself is not sufficient; the faithful must read therein all that the human heart of Mary suggests, all of which it is the expressive symbol and the living reminder: Mary’s interior life, her joys and sorrows, her virtues and hidden perfections, and, above all, her virginal love for her God, her maternal love for her Divine Son, and her motherly and compassionate love for her sinful and miserable children here below. The consideration of Mary’s interior life and the beauties of her soul, without any thought of her physical heart, does not constitute our devotion; still less does it consist in the consideration of the Heart of Mary merely as a part of her virginal body. The two elements are essential to the devotion, just as soul and body are necessary to the constitution of man. [Catholic Encyclopedia: Devotion to The Immaculate Heart of Mary; <http://www.newadvent.org/cathen/07168a.htm>]

Drawing showing typical “Sacred Heart of Mary”

Anyone who knows the slightest bit about internal human physiology knows that the human heart looks absolutely nothing like the tradition icon for the human heart. As a matter of fact, the traditional icon has much more pagan origins:

What the traditional “heart shape” actually depicts is a matter of some controversy. It only vaguely resembles the human heart. Some people claim that it actually depicts the heart of a cow, a more readily available sight to most people in past centuries than an actual human heart. However, while bovine hearts are more similar to the iconic heart shape, the resemblance is still slight.

A coin from Cyrene, depicting a silphium pod.

The seed of the silphium plant, used in ancient times as a herbal contraceptive, has been suggested as the source of the heart symbol.

*The “heart” shape could also be considered to depict features of the human female body, such as the female’s buttocks, pubic mound, or spread vulva. The tantric symbol of the “Yoni” is another example of a heart-shaped abstraction of a woman’s vulva. In the introduction to The Vagina Monologues Gloria Steinem writes, “[The heart] was reduced from power to romance by centuries of male dominance.” Source: Wikipedia; [http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Heart\_\(symbol\))]*

As we see, the icon of the heart probably has origins in the sexuality cults, as do many icons that we see around the world in our modern times. Interestingly enough, Gloria Steinem points out to us that the symbol of the heart is a feminine symbol and it was a symbol of power (feminine power) or perhaps, it was another symbol of goddess worship of such entities as Semiramis, Aphrodite, Diana and Columbia, to name a few. The Egyptians of old had a symbol that was similar to our present icon for the human heart:

If you were to take the symbol of the heart on the left side of the scale and draw a line from each 90-degree angle to the next it would make the symbol of a heart. So we see that the current icon for the human heart has origins far back into the pagan past. Why would someone want to use a pagan symbol on a representation of Mary or one for Yeshua for that matter. Well, either it is done out of ignorance, or it is a deliberate attempt by Roman Catholicism to show us its true foundations.

As we see in the picture of the supposed “sacred heart of Mary” we have pictured above, we see a sword sticking into the heart. Why is the sword there? Well, it could be a perversion of the scripture that we examine above; the one where Simeon tells Miriam that a sword would pierce her soul (not her heart). Or, it could be that the Mary apparition is trying to convey that it’s suffering is on equal par with the suffering of Mashiach Yeshua.

As we mentioned above, the apparition had three swords piercing her heart. According to the ghostly image, the three swords represent:

The first sword means: the unworthy celebration of Holy Mass and Communion unworthily received;

The second sword means: being unfaithful to, and giving up, the vocation as a priest or a religious monk

The third sword means: betrayal of the Faith.

Another “version” of this apparition says something close to what is above, but the wording is a bit different:

The first sword means loss of the vocation as a priest or a monk.

The second sword means priests, monks, and nuns who live in deadly sin.

The third sword means priests and monks who commit the treason of Judas. While giving up their vocation, they often lose also their faith, their eternal beatitude, and become enemies of the Church.

All of the messages by this Marian entity are hard to digest and for the most part defy scriptural truth, but this one can be seen as being true. But one has to say that they are predictions that almost anyone can prognosticate given the life that priests, nuns and all of the ecclesiastical body are told that they must live. If you tell a man or woman that they must remain celibate then they will most likely break that vow. They are humans and humans have to have sexual relations or they will become perverted in their thoughts. This can be evidenced by the myriads of priests and higher Roman officials who have been found to be child molesters and even homosexuals. If you prohibit a person from doing what Yahweh intended them to be then they’ll turn to perversion or drug abuse or alcoholism or any number of deadly sins.

If a Catholic priest has the desire to marry and have children and you prohibit him from doing that, and he doesn't become perverted sexually, then he's going to find a woman to marry and the Catholic hierarchy will take away his priesthood. If you prohibit nuns from marrying they'll either leave the order and marry or they'll have secret sex with the priests and/or other nuns. Humans are built as sexual beings and to deny the needs and desires that Yahweh built into us will only lead to chaos.

And finally, that priests and monks that lose their vocation (employment) within the church are often labeled by the Roman Catholic Church as heretics, and the Church excommunicates them. But what the apparition didn't mention is that many of those priests and nuns who leave the Roman Church become Christians and that while they might be enemies of Roman Catholicism, they are friends of Yahweh. Any person who seeks the truth will admit that the latter is eternally more important.

Penance and Spirit of Penance:

One of the main areas where Roman Catholicism and Christianity differ is in the area of penance as opposed to repentance. The difference between the two can best be shown by shopping retail versus shopping wholesale. When you shop retail, you buy through a seller that sells a product that they purchased through the wholesaler. When you shop wholesale, you bypass the middleman and you go straight to the buyer. In Roman Catholic "penance," you have a middleman involved; his name being the priest. You confess to him and he imposes a fine (markup) and he absolves you of your sin. In the act of repentance, you avoid the middleman and you go straight to the buyer.

With Roman Catholicism though, you are told that you cannot go to the wholesaler and that you have to buy retail. You are told that God has given the priest the right to sell to you at a marked-up price (penance) and that once you perform the markup you can have your product (forgiveness). While the Roman Church has gone to great lengths to make this sound biblical, it goes against the words of Yeshua, who stated:

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14:6

And Paul who said:

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus I Timothy 2.5

Repentance on the other hand is something that is Biblical and was practiced by Yeshua:

Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. John 5:14

And:

When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. John 8:10-11

The whole lesson of repentance is that there is no middleman. We can go straight to Yeshua, who is our advocate before Aveinu (the Father). The Ruach Ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit) convicts us of our sins, we feel guilty and go to Yeshua to tell Him our sins and he tells to “go and sin no more.” With penance a person can keep sinning and they can feel that they will have their sins resolved by the priest who will tell them to say a few Hail Mary’s or some Our Father’s; but just like the Torah sacrifices before Mashiach, these things were just temporary and the penalty for sin still needed to be meted out. Repentance means to see the errs in our ways and to turn around so that we are looking at Yahweh again, and not our own silly ways.

We have seen that penance is not biblical and if anything, it is antichrist because it allows men to think that they can have their sins resolved by someone other than Yeshua. Therefore, the spirit of penance does not stand on a Biblical foundation (on the foundation of grace through Yeshua Ha Mashiach) and therefore it is another indictment against this Marian apparition, as being a doctrine of demons given by a fallen angel in the guise of Miriam, mother of Yeshua.

Penance means to serve the Roman Church; but for me and my house, we will serve the Lord God of Israel, our redeemer Yeshua Ha Mashiach!

“Our Lord sends me to bring a new Marian Devotion to all religious orders and institutes, male and female, and to the priests of this world. I promise to protect those religious orders and institutes who will venerate me.”

The apparition claims that our Lord (presumably Jesus) sent it to bring a new Marian Devotion to many aspects of Catholicism. In the dictionary, “Marian” is defined as something that relates to the virgin Mary. That is fairly easy to understand. Where the apparition raises the eyebrows of those with spiritual discernment is where it says that it is sent to bring a “new Marian Devotion.” A search in the dictionary yields the following definition of “devotion:”

Main Entry: de·vo·tion

Pronunciation: \di-vō-shən\

Function: noun

Date: 13th century

1 a : religious fervor : piety b : an act of prayer or private worship —usually used in plural c : a religious exercise or practice other than the regular corporate worship of a congregation

2 a : the act of devoting <devotion of time and energy> b : the fact or state of being ardently dedicated and loyal <her devotion to the cause> <filial devotion>

3 obsolete : the object of one’s devotion

According to the apparition, supposedly Jesus is sending it to bring a new act of private prayer and/or worship to “it” and not to Him. Even if the meaning of the word is the second meaning instead of the first, it still means that the apparition is saying that Jesus is sending it to create a new order where people will be ardently dedicated to it. In no place does the apparition suggest that it has been sent to bring a more ardent dedication or worship to Jesus. I highly doubt that Yahweh would send a messenger to bring dedication and worship to it instead of Him.

In the second part of the message that we are examining the apparition says, “I promise to protect those religious orders and institutes who will venerate me.” Well, we have a problem here because a “promise,” is a vow, and scripture says the following about vows:

“Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths to the Lord.’ But I say to you, do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is God’s throne; nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. But let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No,’ ‘No.’ For whatever is more than these is from the evil one. Matthew 5:33-37

The Greek word for “swear” is omnyō (strongs G3660) and it literally means to swear an oath or to make a promise. We see that the apparition, which claims to be sent by Yeshua is breaking one of Yeshua's commandments, and not in the power and authority of Yeshua, but in its own power. If that authority is not from Yeshua, then there is only one other alternative.

Next, we come to the word, "venerate." The apparition promises to protect those that venerate it. The word "venerate," is defined thusly in the dictionary:

Main Entry: ven·er·ate

Pronunciation: \ve-nə-rāt\

Function: transitive verb

Inflected Form(s): ven·er·at·ed; ven·er·at·ing

Etymology: Latin veneratus, past participle of venerari, from vener-, venuslove, charm

Date: circa 1623

1 : to regard with reverential respect or with admiring deference. venerate implies a holding as holy or sacrosanct because of character, association, or age

2 : to honor (as an icon or a relic) with a ritual act of devotion

If we were to ascribe the first definition to the word "venerate," we would say that the apparition is saying that it wants to be seen as holy or sacred because it claims to be the "mother of God." We've already laid that title to rest earlier in this article. It could be argued that it might be venerated because it claims to be the mother of Yeshua, but the character and message that we have pulled apart so far shows that it is from an insidious source and not from Yahweh.

If we were to ascribe the second definition to "venerate," the case would be even worse because what the second definition describes, without coming right out and saying it, is that to venerate is to commit idol worship.

"I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. "You shall have no other gods before Me. "You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments. Exodus 20:2-6

Put simply, Yahweh is the only one that we're supposed to venerate and show devotion to. There is a Biblical test that has been used to see if an apparition is from Yahweh or if it is from Satan. If an angel, a human, a being of light or whatever says it is from Yahweh it will never want to be adored or venerated, as we see in the following scripture:

And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. Revelation 19:10

The Marian apparition called Rosa Mystica wants adoration, worship and veneration, so it can only be a fallen angel in the guise of Miriam.

I wish that the 13th of each month be celebrated as a Marian Day.

For some reason this Marian apparition likes the number thirteen. The number 13 is quite prominent in the occult realm, as we can see from different occult dictionaries and such:

The number 13 has been associated with bad luck at least since Roman times. The 13 people present at the Last Supper incorporates this idea, and it is still considered unlucky to have 13 people at a table. A coven of witches was supposed to have 13 members. The 13th day of the month is considered unlucky, especially when it falls on a Friday.

Taboos: On the simplest level this principle can be seen in number taboos. For example, in the American society most people considered the number 13 unlucky. Therefore, things connected with 13 are too be avoided such as the 13th day of the month, especially if it is a Friday, the 13th floor, 13 dinner guests, and so on. As a contrast in Belgium it is considered a good-luck charm for women to wear the number 13. The negativity of the number 13 is predominantly thought to have been derived from the Biblical narration of the Last Super where Judas was the thirteenth apostle. However, an earlier concept stresses its relationship to 12, a good number identified with the Zodiac, which had strong positive associations in Babylonian and other early astral mythologies.

And from another source we read:

The lunar calendar, favored by many spiritual belief systems, is sacred and contains thirteen lunar cycles with a moon that moves thirteen degrees across the heavens each day. The Tarot Deck contains thirteen cards of each suit in the minor arcana. The Death card is numbered 13. Like many representations of thirteen, it represents the end of one thing, only to lead to a new beginning. The human body has thirteen major joints. In the ancient runic alphabet, the thirteenth rune symbolized the end of a cycle and the new beginning that followed. Witches covens have thirteen members. The final step on the ladder before Egyptians souls reached to their eternal rest is the number thirteen.

While it seems this would be bad luck, they saw it as the step that led them into their immortal afterlife. The Aztec religious calendar centered on the number thirteen, though their regular calendar was based on a 365-day year with 18 months. The same day would fall concurrently on both calendars every 52 years – a multiple of thirteen. Paganism sees the number thirteen as a time of transition and in Celtic beliefs was considered the “coming of age” for boys. Old Celtic beliefs say that the number thirteen is sacred as it represents the one joining the Goddess, represented by the number three. Numerology puts significance on the number thirteen when the equation  $1+3=4$  is considered, four being representational of the circle of life.

While modern superstitions place negative meanings on the number thirteen, in older belief systems, now considered to be linked to the occult, 13 is a number of transition and change. One ending becomes a beginning, continuing the sacred cycle of life.

One might say that it is just a coincidence that the apparition chose the number thirteen. Considering however what we have discovered already about this apparition we cannot discount that there is an occult significance to the apparition’s use of that number. Things get even more bizarre when we see that another apparition; the Fatima apparition occurred on the 13th day of six consecutive months in 1917, starting on May 13 of that year with the last one being on October 13th. For some reason, the Marian apparitions like the number thirteen; perhaps it’s because the Marian visitations have sinister origins?

On this day (the 13th) I shall pour out vocational holiness and abundant graces on those religious orders and spiritual institutes who have honoured me especially.

This is an interesting statement. To be honored is to be put in a place of honor, in other words, distinct from others because of a special nature or because of a special deed, or something of the like.

The apparition mentions that it is the apparition that is to be honored; not anyone else, only the apparition. There is not mention of Yeshua, or Aveinu or the Ruach Ha Kodesh; but only the apparition.

The apparition says that the honor is to go to it “especially,” or to be more precise, the word “especially,” means specifically. Specifically denotes that the apparition not only means “me” but specifically “me” and nobody else. Again, we see a being of light appearing and demanding adoration for itself and no one else. This is not from Yahweh, but from the adversary.

I wish that the 13th July be celebrated each year in honour of the Rosa Mystica (the Mystical Rose)

The apparition then asks that the 13th of each year be celebrated in honor of Rosa Mystica. Honor means “a showing of usually merited respect.” How does the apparition qualify the merit? Well, remember that it claims to be the Mother of God; so, in the eyes of many, that is the merit. But what about the meaning of the words, “Rosa Mystica?” What is the etymology of those words? Well, let’s have a look at them, shall we? The etymology of “Rosa,” is:

*ROSE: O.E. rose, from L. rosa (cf. It., Sp. rosa, Fr. rose; also source of Du.roos, Ger. Rose, Swed. ros, etc.), probably via It. and Gk. dialects from Gk.rhodon “rose” (Aeolic wrodon), ult. from Pers. *vrda-. But cf. Tucker: “The rose was a special growth of Macedonia & the Thracian region as well as of Persia, & the Lat. & Gk. names prob. came from a Thraco-Phrygian source.” Aramaic warda is from O.Pers.; the modern Pers. cognate, via the usual sound changes, is gul, source of Turk. gül “rose.” The ultimate source of all this may be PIE *wrdho- “thorn, bramble.” Used of a color since 1530. In English civil wars of 15c., the white rose was the badge of the House of York, the red of its rival Lancaster. Rose-water is attested from 1398. Rose-colored “optimistic” is first recorded 1854. In the fig. sense, bed of roses is from 1593. Rosy in the sense of “cheerful” is first recorded 1775; meaning “promising” is from 1887. Rose of Sharon (Song of Sol. ii.1) is attested from 1611 and named for the fertile strip of coastal Palestine. The flower has not been identified; used in U.S. since 1847 of the Syrian hibiscus. Source: Online Etymology Dictionary – [www.etymonline.com]*

Anyone that has worked around a rose plant knows what a thorn is. The thing about a rose thorn is that once you get one in your skin the pain lasts for a long time and it is an especially bad stinging pain. For those who do not know what a bramble is, it is defined as:

Main Entry: bram·ble

*Pronunciation: \bram-bəl*

Function: noun

Etymology: Middle English brembel, from Old English brēmel; akin to Old English brōm broom

Date: before 12th century

1 : any of a genus (Rubus) of usually prickly shrubs of the rose family including the raspberries and blackberries; also : the fruit of a bramble
2 : a rough prickly shrub or vine

In essence, “Rosa” means a rose or bramble bush. It doesn’t mean the flower part of the rose because it is equated with brambles and the only thing that the two things share are the sharp spines that emanate from the branches of either plant. So, the accentuation is on the part of the plant that can hurt you; the spines.

The word “Mystic” has a more sinister meaning. The dictionary defines “mystic” as:

Pronunciation: \mis-tik\

Function: adjective

Etymology: Middle English mistik, from Latin mysticus of mysteries, from Greek mystikos, from mystēs initiate

Date: 14th century

1 : mystical 1a

2 : of or relating to mysteries or esoteric rites : occult

3 : of or relating to mysticism or mystics

4 a : mysterious b : obscure, enigmatic c : inducing a feeling of awe or wonder d : having magical properties

[Source: Merriam Webster Dictionary]

For those who require more proof, and who want to know the etymology of the word “mystic,” we present the following:

mystic (adj.) late 14c., “spiritually allegorical, pertaining to mysteries of faith,” from O.Fr. mistique, from L. mysticus, from Gk. mystikos “secret, mystic,” from mystes “one who has been initiated” (see mystery (1)). Meaning “pertaining to occult practices or ancient religions” first recorded 1610s. The noun meaning “exponent of mystical theology” is from 1670s, from the adjective. [Source: Online Etymology Dictionary – www.etymonline.com]

If we put the two words together with the definitions that we have researched, it would go something like this: “a thorny dangerous plant that has its roots in the magical properties of the occult.” That is a big difference from the glowing woman that talks such sweet words; but it is not a woman and its words are deception.

The seer?

I don't know about you the reader, but whenever I see the word "seer" used in any context the first thing that comes to my mind is the New Age. The New Age religion sometimes uses that title to present people that they see as prophets; but as Christians who are spiritually adept in the deceptions of the enemy, we know that such people are the witches of old and what we currently call psychics or channelers.

The dictionary defines "seer," in a way that cannot possibly be flattering to anyone who calls themselves a Christian or someone who worships the person of Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Jesus Christ), in any form or fashion. A Christian cannot be a seer any more than one could say that the ocean is made out of air. The definition of "seer," is:

Main Entry: seer Part of Speech: noun

Definition: clairvoyant

Synonyms: augur, channeller, crystal ball gazer, diviner, forecaster, fortune-teller, medium, oracle, palm reader, prophet, psychic, soothsayer

I'd like to add a little side note here. I have been involved in spiritual matters for quite some time. Our ministry is to help those who are spiritually oppressed and to bring them to a knowledge and faith of Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Jesus Christ). I can personally attest that apparitions, ghosts, poltergeists and other things that go bump in the night generally do not manifest to those who belong to and serve Yeshua. As a matter of fact, they tend to flee away from the Sons and Daughters of Yahweh. So, in my estimation, this woman who either called herself a seer, or is called a seer, probably was not walking with Yahweh (God) and if anything, she probably had many dabbling's in the occult, and may have even been a witch that infiltrated the Catholic Church. I would feel quite comfortable in betting that this was true and would feel comfortable that I would win the bet; but this could probably not be confirmed because these apparitions happened around 62 years before the writing of this article, and the "seer" is probably deceased.

“Mary is the master teacher of the innermost, mystical life and the Mother of the mystical body of Christ; in other words: She is the Mother of the Church.”

The apparition that said the words just above didn't think about what it was saying, or it is so tripped up on its lies that it cannot distinguish what is true and what is a lie anymore.

We learned above that “mystical” means “occult practices,” or if it a noun it means the “exponent of mystical (occult) theology.” What the apparition was saying is that IT is the one that teaches occult theology to those who listen to her. In other words, she is teaching witchcraft. I didn't make this up, the words are hers, not mine.

The apparition says that it is the Mother of the mystical body of Christ. We learned in the last section that mystical means occult or magical. So, it is saying that it is the “mother” or the one who gave birth to the magical or occult body of Christ. Anyone with an inkling of spiritual discernment knows that the words “mystical and magical” do not mesh with Christ. This in itself is an indictment of Rosa Mystica as being of demonic origin. However, we have to remember that we were warned by Yeshua that in the last days there would be many that claim to be Christ. Christ means “anointed one,” and these days it is not specific to Christian theology. There are many people running around, especially within the New Age who claim to possess the Christ Consciousness. The one thing that they all have in common; they all abhor the Biblical Jesus Christ. Rosa Mystica has more in common with New Age occult magic than it does with Yeshua of Nazareth.

The thing that we see next is another foul up that the trained eye can catch right away. She says that she is the “mother of the Church,” but in another place she says that she is the “mother of Jesus.” If one reads the Bible, one will find that the church is the “Bride of Christ.” If the apparition's theology were correct (which it is not) then when her son Jesus would come back to take the Church as his Bride; he would be committing incest because that would make the Church and Yeshua brother and sister. I know that Roman Catholicism goes out on tangents, but I don't think that they condone incest; but if they believe the malarkey that comes from this Marian apparition, then they condone and believe in incest.

This is why it the “Bride of Christ” is rarely if ever mentioned in Catholic circles because what is written above is an indictment about lies, error and practiced spiritual adultery; plus they know that they are not the true Church of Yeshua Ha Mashiach!

I know that Miriam is in heaven and that she cannot see what is being done in her name by the powers of darkness. Thank Yahweh that someday soon, the real Yeshua will come back and put an end to all of this foolishness.

I have placed myself as the mediatrix between my Divine son and mankind,

It is interesting how this apparition claims to have taken authority that does not belong to it. The last time I read the Bible (quite recently I assure you) I found that there are only three that call the shots; Aveinu (the Father) ha Ben (the Son) and the Ruach Ha Kodesh (the Holy Spirit). But what exactly is a “mediatrix? The Merriam Webster Online Dictionary defines Mediatrix as the following:

Main Entry: me·di·a·trix

Pronunciation: \-ā-triks\

Function: noun

Date: 15th century

: a woman who is a mediator

And when we look up the word “mediator” just for clarity sake, we find the following definition:

one that mediates; especially: one that mediates between parties at variance

There are quite a few bothersome things about this statement by the apparition. First, she says that she placed herself in this capacity. This is not the way that things work in Heaven. El Elyon (God Almighty) gives the orders and others obey; that is the only way that things can work and do work. The last person who thought that they could take things over was Satan, and we all know what has happened to him and what will happen to him in the future.

It is as though this apparition, masquerading as Miriam, the mother of Yeshua has decided that things in heaven are not run according to its (the apparition’s) liking and it is going to go ahead and make things right. Anyone who has known a mother or mother-in-law that acts in this manner can relate to what the Mary apparition is inferring by her actions and words. Amongst those of us who work in deliverance ministry this spirit is encountered a lot in women who are domineering; it is called the Jezebel Spirit.

But aside from that; we have to see how this action violates Yahweh's Word, the Holy Scriptures. We are told clearly and succinctly:

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. 1 Timothy 2:5

There is a person who is the go between Yeshua and His People; that person being called the Ruach Ha Kodesh, or in English, the Holy Spirit. We read in Scripture:

Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you. John 16:7-15

Whether it is the claims of this apparition of its being a go-between between man and Yeshua, or the Pope's claim that he is the vicar between Yahweh and man we see these claims to be null and void simply by reading and believing scripture; the Word of Yahweh!

Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:14-16

You see, we don't need a middleman, or a Pope or a fallen angel in the guise of Miriam. We can approach Yeshua one on one and have communion with Him, and receive forgiveness while approaching His Throne boldly, but with a humble and contrite spirit.

*Whoever will atone for those sins, will receive my blessing and graces.

Yeshua said that we will know false prophets by their fruits. One bad fruit that we see time and time again in these Marian apparitions is that she (it) speaks false things. In our ministry we often say that we hate religion. That raises quite a few eyebrows at which time we mention that Yahweh requires not religion, but relationship between He and us. Religion is man's attempt to satisfy Yahweh's requirements for righteousness and holiness. The entity that calls itself Rosa Mystica said that people could atone for their own sins. What exactly does "atone" mean? The Webster's dictionary defines "atone" as:

Main Entry: atone

*Pronunciation: \ə-tōn*

Function: verb

Inflected Form(s): atoned; aton-ing

Etymology: Middle English, to become reconciled, from at on in harmony, from at + on one

Date: 1574

transitive verb 1 obsolete : reconcile

2 : to supply satisfaction for : expiate intransitive verb : to make amends<atone for sins>

This is the trap that religion falls into. On our own, the atonement for sins is impossible. The Bible says this in the following scriptures:

But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. Isaiah 64:6

Any attempt that any human would make to atone for their own sins would be akin to washing their car with a bucket full of mud. It just does not work. If we lived for hundreds of millions of years and did good deeds every hour of every day for that whole time it would not satisfy Yahweh's requirements for justice. Our hearts are too impure to do what is required:

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? Jeremiah 17:9

The only way to have atonement of sins is through the blood of Yeshua, and accepting his gift of salvation through becoming Born Again through His Spirit. Then we have relationship and reconciliation. Rosa Mystica does not have the power or authority to forgive any sins, nor does the Pope, or a priest or any other human agent. Like the Bible says, it is only Yeshua:

And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Romans 5:11

And:

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them. Ephesians 2:8-10

This Rosa Mystica entity is proving itself to be contrary to the Bible and the foundations of the Christian Faith. If anyone or anything comes to us and it is contrary to Yahweh or His Word, then it is antichrist, plain and simple. And since this entity is not from Yahweh, then receiving blessings and graces from it will not serve any good thing for anyone.

Our Lady appeared once more to Pierina in the Basilica of Montichiari in the presence of several people, and demanded that the seer make four times the Sign of the Cross with her tongue on the tiles in the center of the church.

If you read the Bible you will notice that Yahweh is a gentleman with those whom He loves. All throughout the Bible He respected His holy people and He never asked them to perform any of the pagan customs in the lands where they resided or conquered. As a matter of fact, Yahweh abhorred those customs and commanded that His People not do as the heathen.

In His days the righteous shall flourish, And abundance of peace, Until the moon is no more. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, And from the River to the ends of the earth. Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before Him, And His enemies will lick the dust. Psalm 72:7-9

We see in the scripture above that licking the floor (or the dust) is something that is expected from an enemy that has been conquered. It is an action that is commanded from a person that you want to humiliate.

But what about the faithful? What about the righteous whom Yahweh loves and those who serve Him? What does the Bible say about us? Well, we're given titles and places of honor, as we see in the following scripture:

To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Revelation 1:5-6

Yeshua not only washes us from our sin, but he makes us kings and priests to El Elyon! The true servants of Yahweh are royalty, and royalty is not asked to lick the floor or to make religious signs on the floor with the tongue. This is yet more proof that Rosa Mystica isn't a messenger or servant of Yahweh, but a fallen angel that wishes to make a fool out of those who think that they are serving the Living God!

Our Lord demands, therefore, PRAYER, GENEROUS SACRIFICES, AND PENANCE.

This supposed command comes as a response to (as Rosa Mystica) says is the supposition that Yeshua was mad because the Italian Christians (we're supposing that it's talking about Catholics when referring to Christians) have sinned greatly.

Rosa Mystica talks about penance being one of the deeds that will satisfy the lord, and we've looked at penance in a prior section. It also mentions that Yeshua demands prayer from the Catholics to make amends toward him. In all of the Bible I cannot remember or find one instance where Yahweh "demanded" prayer from any of His people. Prayer was always offered as a form of communion between Yahweh and His people and He suggested it many times as a way to make things right between us and Him; but it was never "demanded" of anyone. Of course, in the Bible we're talking about the one true God; but since Rosa Mystica (from what we have studied thus far) seems to be a fallen angel in the disguise of the virgin Mary, then perhaps it is a different Jesus that is demanding the prayer. We'll see this in the next paragraph.

Rosa Mystica also said that its Jesus demanded "generous sacrifices." This is obviously Rosa Mystica slang for donating money to the Roman Catholic Church, and/or its local chapters. The lord that Rosa Mystica represents isn't the Yeshua of the Bible, but instead he is some Mafia boss that demands money for protection and forgiveness. My God, the one of the Bible NEVER demands money. He does suggest that if someone gives cheerfully then they will be blessed in like manner; but He isn't a strong-arm Mafioso that commits extortion like Rosa Mystica's lord.

Here, in Montichiari, I wish to be venerated as the ROSA MYSTICA as already indicated so often, together with the devotion to my heart which must be specially practiced in religious institutes so that they may obtain more graces through my motherly heart.

Just prior to this section we read how Rosa Mystica was demanding prayer, financial sacrifices and penance from the common everyday Italian on the street. We have examined the veneration that Rosa Mystica longs for and how it claims that it is the mother of all people, and Yeshua and even El Elyon Himself.

Look though how whenever this entity speaks to those in some sort of religious rite, she offers grace and sympathy but with the common man there is severity. This has to do with the practices of the Nicolaitans mentioned by Yeshua in the Book of Revelation; those who are in power in the church who lord over the common man. When the real Yeshua talks about correction, he chastises the Church first.

She said with a smile: I am the Immaculate Conception.

Okay, might I suggest that for those of you who have never heard of this before; that you put your tray-tables in the upright position and make sure that your seatbelts are fastened because you're about to come in for a wild landing.

I think that it would be only fair that we look at the official Roman Catholic definition of immaculate conception:

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Title of the Blessed Virgin as sinless from her first moment of existence. In the words of Pope Pius IX's solemn definition, made in 1854, "The most holy Virgin Mary was, in the first moment of her conception, by a unique gift of grace and privilege of almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ the Redeemer of mankind, preserved free from all stain of original sin." This means that since the first moment of her human existence the mother of Jesus was preserved from the common defect of estrangement from God, which humanity in general inherits through the sin of Adam. Her freedom from sin was an unmerited gift of God or special grace, and an exception to the law, or privilege, which no other created person has received. Neither the Greek nor Latin Fathers explicitly taught the Immaculate Conception, but they professed it implicitly in two fundamental ways. Mary, they said, was most perfect in purity of morals and holiness of life. St. Ephrem (c. 306-73) addressed Christ and Mary with the words “You and Your mother are the only ones who are totally beautiful in every way. For in You, O Lord, there is no stain, and in Your mother no stain.” Mary was described as the antithesis of Eve. Again in Ephrem, “Mary and Eve [were] two people without guilt. Later one became the cause of our death, the other cause of our life.” While implicit in the early writers, the Immaculate Conception had to be clarified before becoming explicit dogma. Main credit for this goes to the Franciscan John Duns Scotus (c. 1264-1308), who introduced the idea of pre-redemption in order to reconcile Mary’s freedom from original sin with her conception before the coming of Christ. (Etym. Latin im-, not + maculare, to stain.) [Source: Catholic Reference Online; www.catholicreference.net]

From what we have read above, Roman Catholic theology holds that Mary (Maria) was conceived as sinless and that she remained that way her whole life. They also believe that she was immune from the Law of Moses. Catholics argue that Mary had not children after Yeshua, however scripture proves that to be a fallacy:

Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there. When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, “Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? Is this not the carpenter’s son? Is not His mother called Mary? And His brothers James, Joses, Simon, and Judas? And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?” So they were offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house.” Now He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief. Matthew 13:53-58

And what about James, the brother of Yeshua that is mentioned in Galatians:

But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord’s brother. Galatians 1:19

And what about the historical accounts:

Eusebius of Caesarea (260-340), Archbishop under Constantine, tells us in his “Ecclesiastical History” that James was “The Lord’s Brother, who had been elected by the Apostles to the episcopal throne at Jerusalem,” [“Ecclesiastical History” 2.23]

Yet still even Josephus chimes in about “James, The Brother of Jesus”

Even Josephus (37-96 CE), who was not a Christian, but was a Jewish contemporary of James, knows about him, and even insists that James' death was the reason the Jewish people believed Jerusalem fell: "These things [the Uprising and consequent destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans] happened to the Jews in requital for James the Righteous, who was a brother of Jesus known as Christ, for though he was the most Righteous of men, the Jews put him to death."

Many scholars believe that Jude (author of the book of Jude) was also a brother of Yeshua. Hegesippus, a commentator of the Book of Acts, wrote the following about Jude, and ascribed him and his descendants of being related to Yeshua:

Hegesippus (ca 110 A.D. – ca 180) wrote five books of Commentaries on the Acts of the Church. They are lost, but a few fragments are quoted by Eusebius in Historia Ecclesiae, 3.20. Among them is the following relation, ascribed to the reign of Domitian, 81–96 A.D.:

There still survived of the kindred of the Lord the grandsons of Judas, who according to the flesh was called his brother. These were informed against, as belonging to the family of David, and Evocatus brought them before Domitian Caesar: for that emperor dreaded the advent of Christ, as Herod had done.

In our studies we have found that the Bible states that Yeshua had step-brothers and sisters via the union of Yosef and Miriam. We have also learned that historians and commentators have written that this was true and one even goes on to mention that Yeshua had grand nieces and nephews via his brother Judah (Jude). It seems that the only people that have problems with this fact are those who hold to Roman Catholic Marian doctrine. They would rather hold to myths and notions to back up their Marian worship rather than believe what the Holy Word of Yahweh says about this and any matter.

The Catholic Dictionary definition of Immaculate Conception also states that Mary can be described as a second Chava (Eve). The dictionary quoted St. Ephrem (c. 306-73), as saying; "Mary and Eve [were] two people without guilt. Later one became the cause of our death, the other cause of our life." Where does this concept come from? Well, perhaps it is a perversion of something mentioned in Scripture:

Therefore, as through one man's offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through one Man's righteous act the free gift came to all men, resulting in justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by one Man's obedience many will be made righteous. Romans 5:18-19

And:

And so it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 1 Corinthians 15:45

We see in all of the Marian apparitions, and Rosa Mystica is no different; that the apparitions either circumvent the nature and ministry of Yeshua Ha Mashiach or some priest or higher officer in the Roman Church will manufacture new dogma for the faithful of the Church to believe. This is dangerous territory to tread upon, because we are strictly warned to teach correctly:

My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment. James 3:1

And:

It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Luke 17:2

When people try to learn from the Bible using their own understanding, they will get it wrong almost every time. If you or I was to try to read a book on mathematical calculus we would not understand it. Furthermore, if we tried to use calculus without knowing how to use it we would be foolish. However, if we had someone to teach us what was in the book and how to apply it to our daily lives then Calculus would become easy to understand and use and we would then know how to comprehend the book.

I heard a fictitious story in the form of joke many years ago. The story told of a man who would drop his Bible and then he would point to a scripture on the page that would open, but he would do it with his eyes closed. When he opened his eyes, he would do whatever the scripture said. One day he did this and the scripture said, "and Judas hanged himself." Thinking himself to be in peril he decided to perform his ritual again and follow the second scripture. He dropped his Bible and pointed to a scripture and when he opened his eyes, he noticed that the scripture said, "go thou and do likewise."

Now how does this apply to what we are talking about in regard to the messages of the Rosa Mystica and those who adhere to the messages of this apparition and others similar to it. Well, it is easy to tell that people who listen to the Marian apparitions and follow their commands really do not know the Bible well. It is as though they are thirsty and they take a scripture here, and another there, and they pour them all into a blender and mix them up well and then they listen to whatever that mixture is.

When a building is built well upon a strong foundation it is hard to topple. But if you build your foundation out of some Biblical ingredients and some pagan ingredients and some downright satanic ingredients then the foundation will not be sound. The walls of your structure will not be plumb and the cross members will not be level. Your house might seem okay to you, but to those who have astute eyes to see things as they are, your house is crooked, twisted; out of plumb and out of level. They will tell you that your house is not sound, but you will be adamant that you are safe and secure.

When people pervert the Word of God, they tend to become perverted in that word worse and worse. This is true in the case that we cited above. Roman Catholicism believes that Mary is like Eve; only that Eve sinned brought death to people, but Mary didn't sin and through obedience brought life to people. They ignore the fact that although Mary was used to bring Yeshua into the world; it was Yeshua's atoning death and His blood that brings life to people. It is Yeshua's resurrection that brings eternal life to people and that too had nothing to do with Mary.

Roman Catholicism says that Mary was born sinless and even just after her conception she was sinless. This contradicts the Bible that says:

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Romans 3:23

And:

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isaiah 53:6

And:

For there is not a just man on earth who does good And does not sin. Ecclesiastes 7:20

And:

As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one...Romans 3:10

The Bible is quite clear that aside from our Messiah, nobody on earth is righteous and although Mary was a vessel that Yahweh used to bring Yeshua into the world, she was far from perfect. Sin is built into our human genetic structure; we're born with it, and to say that Mary was sinless is to say that she was not human. She could not have been covered by the grace that was offered by the Blood of Yeshua because he had not shed his blood yet and the atonement was not available until his sacrifice.

To say that she was the second Eve is a fallacy too. As we mentioned above, that assertion is a perversion of scripture. You see, Adam and Eve were made perfect and they did fall; and Eve did become the mother of all fallen humanity. But Adam and Eve were married. As we saw above, Yeshua is called the "Last Adam" and while the first Adam brought sin into the world, the last Adam gives men a way to have that sin taken away from them. But, to use the Eve and Mary scenario, and since Eve was married to the first Adam then, to use an antithesis to that Yeshua would have to have a wife that would be the last Eve; which the Roman Catholics assert Mary to be. We know that Yeshua never married so there was no woman to act as a "Last Eve," so the Catholic supposition that Mary was a second Eve is preposterous and it is a perversion of a scripture about Yeshua's atonement for sin, and it is a heresy because they're placing Mary (a woman born in sin) on par with Yeshua (her son born without sin) and in some cases they elevate Mary higher than Yeshua.

Whoever prays on these tiles and weeps tears of penance, will find a secure heavenly ladder and receive protection and grace through my motherly heart.

Previously in this document we talked about the fallacy of "penance," so we will not discuss it further here. We will however talk about the claims that Rosa Mystica makes that the penance will help followers of Rosa Mystica to find a "secure heavenly ladder," and that they will receive protection and grace from its "motherly heart."

Remember that in its dissertation, Rosa Mystica had the "seer" make the signs of the cross on the tiles of the church using the seer's tongue. These are the tiles that the apparition says that people are supposed to weep tears of penance on.

The thing that is particularly bothersome about this sentence is that the apparition promises to provide a "heavenly ladder," to the penitent who follow her instructions. Again, we have a fallen angel promising to provide something that it cannot possibly provide to anyone. There is only one way to obtain passage to heaven:

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14:6 KJV

And:

Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. John 3:3-6 NKJV

And:

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved Romans 10:13

The Name of the Lord (Yahweh) is Yeshua (Jesus) and He is the only one that we can call upon for salvation. He is the only one that can provide a "heavenly ladder," but even better, he provides a heavenly elevator. Climbing a ladder takes personal effort, but Yeshua provided the Way and He brings you up to Heaven on His own accord and by the power of his might!

When one is given this information, they can ignore it if they so choose to do so. But if you were a betting person, who would you place your money on? Would you bet that an apparition that brings doctrine of antichrist? Would you bet on the doctrine of a church that has gotten so many things wrong when it comes to the Bible and Faith the way that Yahweh (God) intended it to be? Or, would you place your trust in the Bible as the Word of God, and what God has told you to do. Would you place your trust in a church full of idols and elders that cannot even interpret the Bible correctly, or will you ask the Ruach Ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit) to interpret the Bible for you as you read it for yourself?

The Lord is still protection the good and is holding back a great punishment because of my intercession.

My goodness, there seems to be no end to the Marian apparitions and their placing themselves in the place of Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Jesus Christ). Taken at face value, they seem to be advocating faith in God, but when you dissect their messages by using the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, so many errors, fallacies and downright supplanting statements can be found.

We have the words of Yahweh as given through the Apostle John, who wrote so wonderfully this basic truth:

My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world. 1 John 2:1-2

And we have the words of the Apostle Paul to the Hebrew Church in Jerusalem:

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:16

As true believers in Yeshua (Jesus) we don't have to rely on entities that call themselves Mary, such as Guadalupe, Rosa Mystica, Fatima or any other name. We can do directly to our Lord to seek mercy and ask for forgiveness. Yeshua came to abolish religion and set up relationship with the Father through HIM, not some religious organization or demonic apparitions.

I have already prepared a flood of graces for all the children who listen to my words and keep them in their hearts.

Okay, so now Rosa Mystica says that if people listen to its words and keep its words in their hearts, they will receive a flood of graces from it. For those of us who read our Bibles, we know that we need to keep the Word of Yahweh in our hearts. His words are more than plentiful and they will bless us so that our cup runs over. The Bible is clear that Yahweh's words are to be on our hearts and minds:

How can a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed according to Your word. With my whole heart I have sought You; Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments! Your word I have hidden in my heart, That I might not sin against You. Blessed are You, O LORD! Teach me Your statutes. With my lips I have declared All the judgments of Your mouth. I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, As much as in all riches. I will meditate on Your precepts, And contemplate Your ways. I will delight myself in Your statutes; I will not forget Your word. Psalm 119:9-16

And the New Covenant in Yeshua gives us all that we'll ever need in the way of blessings; and it is the promise that Yahweh gave to the Jews and all who call on the Name of The Lord, as we see below:

“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,” then He adds, “Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.” Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin. Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, and having a High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. Hebrews 10:16-23

My advice to all those who are Roman Catholic is that they study the book of Hebrews because it will help them to understand Yahweh in a more clear manner and it will help them to understand that just as my Jewish people got off on religious tangents in the time of Yeshua and afterward too; so do the teachings of Roman Catholicism. If Roman Catholics could understand that Yeshua, not the Church, is the answer then they could live fulfilled lives in Yeshua and through Yeshua, instead of in dead religion. Yahweh wants to have a living fellowship with them, and all people; a living communion without the hindrances of manmade rules and regulations that only keep people from seeing Yahweh for who He really is.

As a sign of penance and purification kiss the top step.... Then descend a few steps and kiss the stone again.....kiss the bottom step and have a crucifix placed there....The sick and all my children must kiss the crucifix and ask my Divine Son for forgiveness before they take the water, or drink from it.

Can anyone imagine a loving, caring and forgiving God having people perform a thing like this. Nothing like this is found in the Bible! The few things that were done in the prophetic books were done as allegories that pointed to a bigger picture; one of redemption and sacrifice for atonement.

If you'll notice by the account, the apparition was following as the seer was kissing the steps. In other words, the apparition was having this person kiss the ground that the apparition was walking on. In essence, the seer was performing worship of Rosa Mystica. Maybe we need to read yet again what Yahweh told to us in the Bible:

"You shall have no other gods before Me. "You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments. Exodus 20:3-6

Then the apparition says that anyone who wants to be blessed by the waters of the stream must kiss the crucifix (which makes it into an idol) and they need to ask its divine son for forgiveness before they can take the water. Kissing a crucifix has no redeeming value and when one venerates the crucifix like Rosa Mystica demands, then they have turned the crucifix into an icon, or an idol that has to be shown adoration. The Bible says that the cross is a curse:

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13

In actuality, the crucifix (with Yeshua hanging on it) is really a reminder of the curse; but the empty cross is a reminder of a blessed victory over death because Yeshua was taken down from the cross on the same day He was crucified and on the third day was raised to life forevermore.

..yet the soul will be cleansed again through the water of grace. Thus, the sinner will once more be pleasing to God. What a clear symbol of the sacramental grace of God!

The grace of God is not a sacrament, it is a blessing bestowed upon everyone that comes to Yahweh in faith; believing in the atoning blood of Yeshua Ha Mashiach. The Bible teaches these many times and one can see it if one opens the Bible and believes its words above the words of those who claim to represent Yahweh through religion:

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John 1:7

And:

And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. Revelation 1:5

It requires PRAYER, SACRIFICE AND PENANCE in order to save mankind.

We do not dispute that prayer is a very important element in the process of the salvation of mankind; but it must be emphasized that we need to pray to Aveinu (The Father) and Yeshua (Jesus) and to none other. Prayers for the salvation of individuals and peoples are always heard by Yahweh, but they have to be the prayers of His People; or of a repentant sinner who is truly repentant.

Where we differ from the message of Rosa Mystica in this regard is where it says that we need to perform sacrifice and penance to achieve this goal. Again, if we read Biblical Scripture, we see the following:

And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 1 Samuel 15:22

And:

For You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it; You do not delight in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart—These, O God, You will not despise. Psalm 51:16-17

Notice how the sacrifices of Yahweh differ from the sacrifices of Rosa Mystica. Penance and sacrifice are efforts of men to please Yahweh and to obtain what their opinion of Yahweh's will might be. When a person is contrite and broken then they desire the will of Yahweh and He can use them as HE sees fit. This is quite a simple process if one allows it to happen and they shed the heavy burden of religion.

This is the meaning of my love which embraces the whole of mankind.

Again, we have Rosa Mystica being a bit egocentric by this phrase. Frankly, the love of Rosa Mystica is not mentioned at all in Holy Scripture. Mary is mentioned in five books of the Bible and never again. Why could that be? Well, it is probably because she is not important where the salvation of mankind is concerned. I am sure that if Yeshua wanted Mary venerated he would have mentioned it personally, or in the 66 books of Scripture penned by numerous authors, all inspired by the Ruach Ha Kodesh would have said it somewhere. No, there is no mention of any prophet, poetic writer, Torah writer or any other person who penned the Bible saying that Mary should be venerated.

However, there are numerous scriptures that tell of Yahweh's love for us, and how that love is found and how it is expressed. Here are just a few of those scriptures:

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8:39

And:

Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. Jude 1:21

And:

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. Romans 5:5

It is quite clear to see that the Love comes from Yahweh and it is the Ruach Ha Kodesh that makes it possible for us to exhibit that love through us. Any other way is a doctrine of demons. Rosa Mystica has so far done nothing but show that it is not from Yahweh, nor the Ruach Ha Kodesh nor any other agent of the Living God; but its messages run contrary to the Bible and it preaches another gospel.

I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. Galatians 1:6-9

Rosa Mystica preaches a different gospel than the Gospel of Yeshua. Rosa Mystica is accursed. But the warning is two-fold; that being that those who preach Rosa Mystica are accursed. Great caution should be taken before believing the words of Rosa Mystica and preaching the words of Rosa Mystica will land a person in Hell. However, there still is time to repent and recant, should a preacher of Rosa Mystica feel convicted to do so.

Our Lady showed her an image and said: The statue is to be carried here in a procession on 13th October, but prior to it, it is my wish that the people of Montichiari consecrate themselves to my heart.

Okay, now this is the queen mother of all indicators that something is not of Yahweh. We read earlier that Yahweh commanded that:

“You shall have no other gods before Me. “You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water [or] under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments. Exodus 20:3-6

Rosa Mystica here is commanding that a idol of itself be made and housed in shrine. Actually, the shrine part was just before our text in question. Anyway, the idol is to be carried on the 13th of every October and paraded around the town at which time the people are to consecrate themselves to the idol’s heart. Consecrate is an interesting word and is defined as:

Main Entry: consecrate

Function: transitive verb

Inflected Form(s): consecrat-ed; consecrat-ing

Etymology: Middle English, from Latin consecratus, past participle of consecrare, from com- + sacrare to consecrate — more at sacred

Date: 14th century

1 : to induct (a person) into a permanent office with a religious rite; especially : to ordain to the office of bishop

2 a : to make or declare sacred; especially : to devote irrevocably to the worship of God by a solemn ceremony b : to effect the liturgical transubstantiation of (eucharistic bread and wine) c : to devote to a purpose with or as if with deep solemnity or dedication 3 : to make inviolable or venerable <principles consecrated by the weight of history>

Simply put, Rosa Mystica is telling them to make a statue and put it in a shrine. It is telling the people that they need to parade the idol around town and to worship it. Nothing else needs to be said about this except that if anyone still doubts the fallen angel aspects of this evil apparition, just read what it said and read Exodus 20:3-6 over and over again until it sinks in. Then, repent and ask Yahweh for forgiveness and ask Him to come into your life and save you.

My Divine Son Jesus has sent me again, in order to request the WORLD LEAGUE OF PENITENTIAL COMMUNION and this is to be done on 13th October.

Rosa Mystica, who claims to be the mother of Jesus comes up with yet another falsehood. First it says that Yeshua sent it. But look at what Yeshua sent it to do; to establish a World League of Penitential Communion. In other words, it expects all the faithful to spend every October 13 praying the rosary and doing other works so that they can earn the favor of Yahweh Yeshua.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God Ephesians 2:8

So according to Rosa Mystica, there is no grace of God and salvation is not a gift; but it is something that has to be earned. This brings us back full circle to religion vs. relationship. Someone once said that religion is man's attempt to work his way into heaven, but true Christianity is Yahweh's attempt to reach man. Frankly, I believe that Yahweh knows the true way to please Him and how to have communion with Him; and that way, the only way is through the gift of salvation through the blood of Yeshua. To think any other way is to nullify the sacrifice of Yeshua in one's heart.

These rolls are to be distributed here at Fontanelle on certain days in memory of my coming.

It is interesting that as we have been examining the words of Rosa Mystica, we have seen a progression from an apparition of Mary to a being that demands worship. Now we see it echoing the words of Yeshua Himself. We remember that at the Last Supper Yeshua made a comment about eating the bread that was a symbol of His Body. He said:

And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake [it], and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Luke 22:19

We then compare it to Rosa Mystica's commandment, where it tells the seer, regarding the remaining wheat, that they are to make small bread rolls and to eat them on certain days "in memory of my coming." Or to "do this in remembrance of me."

After my ascension into Heaven I have always acted as Mediatrix between my Son Jesus and the whole of mankind.

We examined earlier what the word "mediatrix" means; that it is a female mediator. We examined also scripture and found that we have only one mediatrix between mankind and Yeshua; that being the Ruach Ha Kodesh. But the next claim of Rosa Mystica should make anyone who knows scripture or has any regard whatsoever of Yahweh, to question the claims of this fallen angel. It says that it ascended to heaven.

This is quite an incredible claim, and one that is antichrist. Let's look at one scripture that proves that Rosa Mystica is a fraud, a charlatan and a deceiving fallen angel:

And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. John 3:13

A person can go one of two ways with this one. Either you can believe the Creator of the Universe, the Eternal God when He says that no man has ascended to heaven, but Himself; or you can call Yeshua a liar. The ball is in your court where you are concerned, but as for me and my house, we'll believe Yahweh on this and all things.

Oh, and by the way, for those who would say that Yeshua said that "no man" has ascended and they might present that it doesn't say "woman," there is a caveat. The Greek word for "man" in the scripture in question is "oudeis" and its only two meanings are; "no one," and "nothing."

There is another being that has wanted to ascend to heaven and the Bible records his desires and his proclamation as:

How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, You who weakened the nations! For you have said in your heart:

*'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north;
I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
I will be like the Most High.'*

Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, To the lowest depths of the Pit. "Those who see you will gaze at you, And consider you, saying: 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, Who shook kingdoms, Who made the world as a wilderness And destroyed its cities, Who did not open the house of his prisoners?' Isaiah 14:12-17

It's not hard to see now that Rosa Mystica is one of Satan's minions come in the disguise of Miriam, the mother of Yeshua. Her messages have more akin and in accordance with the five "I will's" of Lucifer than they have with a ministering spirit sent from Yahweh. But there is just one more counterfeit that we need to examine.

How often have I visited earth to bring my messages to the people, but people continue to offend Our Lord.

One would naturally ask a question of Rosa Mystica; that question being if "her messages" were from Yeshua, or just messages from a fallen angel bent on deceiving millions of people. We've proved that the latter is the truth.

With this final message Rosa Mystica again reveals that it is a counterfeit and it is because of one simple fact. That fact is that only the Ruach Ha Kodesh is the bringer of messages from Yeshua to His People. In essence, Rosa Mystica is a counterfeit of the Holy Spirit and in doing so it blasphemes the third person of the Trinity.

Which Jesus?

Several times in the messages from Rosa Mystica we see it claiming to be the mother of Jesus, and sometimes it says that it is the mother of its “Divine Son Jesus.” Knowing that this isn’t spirit of Miriam the mother of Yeshua, we have to seriously ask what Jesus it represents.

Having dealt with many spirits in our time of ministry we have run into many people who claim to have had the spirit of a Jesus inside of them, or that they heard from Jesus that gave them messages that conflicted with the Jesus of the Bible.

Yeshua said that in the end times there would be many “Christs” that would claim to be Him. It comes as no surprise that Rosa Mystica claims to be the mother of a Jesus. The New Age has a Jesus that they know as the “Christ Consciousness,” which is an antichrist spirit that uses doubletalk to dupe people into believing that Jesus was really an ascended master from a universal force. The Jesus of Mormonism is not the Jesus of the Bible, nor is the Jehovah’s Witness’ Jesus the same one as in the Bible.

In a nutshell, while Rosa Mystica claims to be the mother of the Divine Jesus, or her son Jesus, that Jesus is not the Jesus of the Bible. It tries to convince the faithful that it is the mother of the Biblical Jesus, but the Biblical Jesus would not commission a fallen angel to represent himself, nor would he condone that fallen angel would pervert scripture and spread a gospel that is different than the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

What Do I Do Now?

Without a doubt there will be some who, after reading this document, will want to turn around and not believe the lies of Rosa Mystica. The thing is that the other apparitions; Guadalupe, Fatima, Lourdes and others are the same spirit masquerading as Miriam and they should not be trusted either. The best thing to do is to renounce your faith in any Marian apparition and to seek the face of Jesus Christ. The thing is that you probably won’t find him at your Catholic Church and your priest will lead you back to false doctrines and such. We suggest reading your Bible and asking Yahweh to send the Ruach Ha Kodesh to guide you in all righteousness. You need to become born again too; to be born of the Ruach Ha Kodesh as well as born in the flesh. Seek out Christians who have been Born Again and hang out with them.

If you want to know more about being Born Again, then click on the “saved” link on the front page of this site.

May the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; our Lord Yeshua Ha Mashiach (Yahweh) bless you in mighty ways that you never thought possible. Amen and Amen!
