

WHAT DOES THE GEMATRIA HAVE TO SAY ABOUT RICHARD

MICHAEL DOLAN

By David Ben Ya'akov

Richard Dolan is one of the most noteworthy researchers in the secular UFO community. Having met Dolan twice in Roswell, New Mexico I noticed that he carries a strange air about him. Having a trustworthy gift of discernment told me that he was not quite right, but I was not able to place it. That is, until 2008 at the Roswell UFO event that was put together by Joseph Jordan. Back in those days, there were usually two speaking events, the secular event that was sponsored by the UFO Museum and sometimes MUFON, and another event that allowed speakers from all venues to speak. Joe Jordan sponsored that event that allowed both secular and spiritual speakers to present their ideas and opinions. Richard Dolan was at the event as a secular man looking for a scientific answer to UFOs and the alien phenomenon.

At this event, as we were setting things up for the day's speakers one of Joe's crew came up to me and said that I was not going to believe what he had just heard. I'm not one for rumors, but this guy was credible, his name was Tony and from what I knew of him, he was an honest man. He told me that he had overheard Richard Dolan say, "they're in my head and they just won't leave me alone." That interested me much but we were setting up and after a while, the thought left my head, but it never totally left. What beings were in Dolan's head? We know from scripture that Yahweh comes into us if we ask him, but he never intrudes and lets us maintain our free will. On the other hand, UFOlore is rife with stories of alien intrusion into the minds of those who research the phenomenon and we know from spiritual lore that demonic entities are sometimes allowed into a person when they look into things or events that are controlled by demonic or fallen angelic entities. I see the beings that call themselves “aliens,” as fallen beings, either angelic or demonic. After hearing that news I watched Dolan but saw no outward signs that he was responding to internal stimuli but I did notice one thing, he didn’t like being around Christians. That spoke for itself.

To make matters more interesting, It was told to me by Joe Jordan that Dolans’ wife, Karyn Dolan was a Wiccan, in common man’s vernacular, she was a witch. I searched the internet recently to research who Richard is married to. He is currently on his second wife, and it’s not Karyn. Looking for some biographical information about Karyn I discovered something that she wrote in her own words and it is on the page source that follows the quote:

“Also, when I was about eight, I discovered a book on Wicca. The thing about Wicca is that no one ever "converts" to it -- people say they finally learn the name for what they've always believed. That's how I felt. Even though I was brought up in the Roman Catholic Church, I've always felt more Wiccan; and that is a religion that embraces all others as valid paths to the Light. Some of the main tenets of Wicca are to harm none, to respect all life, and to take responsibility for your own actions. It also teaches that everyone has potential psychic ability, which appeals to my belief that there's more to life than what appears in the newspapers.” [Source: <http://binnallofamerica.com/rr11.6.9.html>]

Pieces are now starting to fit into other puzzle pieces. We have a secular man, who claims that he’s looking for a scientific reason for UFOs and aliens, yet he is married to a Wiccan. Wiccans are quite spiritual people. They worship nature and the forces of nature, trying to control them at the same time to good to those that they like, or cast spells and incantations against those that they dislike. Yes, they pretend to get along, white, black and red witches, but in reality, they are opposed to each other in a very deep manner.

Sometime in the twenty-teens Karyn and Richard parted ways. You can find places online where people castigate Karyn for trying to steal fame away from Richard or where Richard is evil for what he did to Karyn. At or around 2018, Richard Dolan married his second wife, a woman named Tracey Garbutt. Information about her is easy to find. She bills herself as a remote viewer. She seems to pride herself in contacting “nonhuman intelligence.”:

Tracey Garbutt is a professionally trained remote viewer whose work has been evaluated by several leading figures in the field, including Paul Elder and Skip Atwater. Many of her remote views have been regarded as exceptional, including a striking example of accurately perceiving a location 2600 miles away through the eyes and sense organs of another person. Tracey has also had a number of direct contact experiences with apparent non-human intelligences, all of which she has carefully recorded, and one of which occurred while present with another witness.

She views her contact experiences and her work on remote viewing as an outgrowth and extension of her lifelong spiritual and philosophical endeavors. These include extensive explorative training at the renowned Monroe Institute in Virginia, as well as the Ramtha School of Enlightenment. Married Richard Dolan circa 2018

What I find interesting is that Richard Dolan now bills himself as a UFO Historian. This changes things. When he spoke in former days it was almost always from a scientific point of view. However, now he’s a historian. He’s appeared on several documentaries where he uses the title of historian. So when I remember hearing that Richard told another person that there were beings in his head and they weren't leaving him alone, well maybe it's because he tends to be attracted to women (and possibly other things) that scripture forbids and of which scripture says involvement in will lead to communion and servitude to the "god of this world."

Now that you have a little history of Richard Dolan, let's take a look at the words and phrases with Gematria values that match his name, shall we?

Amunet – Is defined as an Egyptian God whose name means a female who is hidden and her powers are connected to the words silence, stillness, mystery, and obscurity. According to some myths Amunet was the daughter of Horus and Hathor. She was also sometimes merged with Hathor, Isis and Neith, Mut, and Nut. As the goddess of the air, she is depicted as a winged goddess or a woman with an ostrich feather or a hawk on her head. [Source: Egyptian-god.org]

If you watch documentaries by Dolan he seems obsessed with Egypt, pyramids, and the secrets of power that the Egyptians possessed.

Occult – Well, this seems to be the road that Dolan is running briskly toward. It wouldn't surprise me that if someday soon he billed himself as the authority of Occult UFO History.

English Alphabet – Without a doubt, and after publishing a plethora of books it is obvious that Dolan has a command of the English Alphabet. I have to say that his writing is above par and he has an unusual, almost other-worldly way of connecting words with ideas.

Raquel – No relevant match to Richard M. Dolan

Best Friend Me – I was sort of amused when I saw this numeric equivalent. Bear in mind, I've only met Richard twice and at most have exchanged 250 or so words with him. With that in mind, via words, I cannot tell much about his personality. However, body language speaks many times when verbal speech is absent or not heard. Based on sight observations, Richard does think highly of himself. Also, in hearing Richard speak in person there is an air in his speech that appears to manifest through sarcasm and facial movements that Richard thinks highly of himself and lowly of others that disagree with him or he disagrees with.

High Priest – One has to understand that the secular UFO research community is actually like a church, or perhaps comparing it to the Roman Catholic religion is a better analogy, there is a hierarchy. The upper office is the Pope, then the higher cardinals, then the lower cardinals, then the bishops, then the priests, and lastly the laypeople. People vie for the Pope position often. The person who appears on TV more sells more books, puts out more videos, and such is the Pope. The higher cardinals are those who master specific areas, areas like exopolitics, abduction investigations, metaphysical investigations, and other such things. The lower cardinals work below these people. The bishops oversee the priests. The Priests disseminate information to the laypeople. The laypeople in turn over evidence to the priests who give them to the bishops who feed them up the food chain so that the higher cardinals and Pope. He can write books, produce videos and documentaries and stand up on stage telling all of the UFO religion what is right and what is wrong. It is nothing but a secular, pseud-scientific, and metaphysical religion wrapped up in a religion called UFO Research. Richard Dolan by far is the Pope of this religion right now, but the high cardinals are constantly trying to unseat him all the while paying him homage.

Tubal Cain - Tubal-cain or Tubalcain (Hebrew: תּוּבַל קַיִן – Tūbal Qáyin) is a person mentioned in the Bible, in Genesis 4:22, known for being the first blacksmith. He is stated as the "forger of all instruments of bronze and iron".

In modern terms, Tubal Cain was a man that was into the higher technology of his time. The book of 1 Enoch says that fallen angels came to earth and taught men these technologies.

Richard Dolan has produced many articles, books, and videos illustrating how some of the technologies that we possess are products of backward engineering from crashed alien vehicles. In essence, just like Enoch is a historic book that tells us about man obtaining technology from fallen angels, Dolan is repeating the history told by Enoch but is replacing the fallen angels with aliens. Michael, being a student of history, should see that he is repeating history, as is mankind.

Parents – The strange thing is that for a person of such notoriety, very little is found about Richard's life, his parents, siblings, and such. It is almost as if he just appeared on earth in 1962? Maybe he's the product of hybridization by aliens? Just kidding.

Open Sesame – All kidding aside, this might have something to do with Dolan's quest to find the truth about UFOs and to unlock a mystery that will gain him untold notoriety. The phrase is defined as:

The phrase first appears in Antoine Galland's Les Mille et une nuits (1704–1717) as Sésame, ouvre-toi (English, "Sesame, open yourself"). In the story, Ali Baba overhears one of the 40 thieves saying "open sesame". His brother later cannot remember the phrase, and confuses it with the names of grains other than sesame, becoming trapped in the magic cave.

In metaphorical terms, we could say that Dolan is trying to unlock the secret that is hidden in the cave, the truth about UFOs. It's almost as if Dolan is playing a slot machine, trying to hit the right numbers, or come up with the right phrase that will allow unseen forces to help him gain secret information that will change the world. I can say without a doubt that the voices in his head that won't leave him alone are only confusing him and they will not let him see clearly. Yeshua described this as having eyes but not seeing and having ears yet not hearing.

Lucifer Hell – If somehow Dolan could open his eyes and ears he would see and hear that UFOs and aliens are just the same ruse that fallen angels and demons have been playing against mankind since the beginning. Lucifer goes by many names. He's the Light Bearer, the Prince of The Power of The Air, and other things. He might be able to see that the serpent in Genesis was Lucifer, also called the Nachash (Bright upright standing creature). He could surmise that all of the aliens want mankind to become light beings, to change their auras (light around people) and that the Bible tells us to be aware because Satan can come as an "angel of light" to deceive many. He'd also understand that hell, or Torments is the abode of Lucifer and his minions and Lucifer's aim is to get people to join him in that abode so that he'll have company when Torments is tossed into the Lake of Fire.

Aliens In The Media – Richard Dolan has been a champion for Alien Disclosure. He's even written books about it and any time that there is a mention of aliens or UFOs in the press he's around to make some sort of comment.

Inscension – This word is defined as the act of kindling a fire or setting something on fire. Richard has spent much of his life trying to ignite interest in the general public about aliens, abductions, and not his pet project is Alien Disclosure and what the world will be like after that disclosure.

Aaronites – First we need to define who Aaronites are:

AARONITES. According to the Mosaic law, the priesthood in Israel was limited to the "sons of Aaron" (Exod 28:1; Lev 1:3; Num 3:10). Aaron had four sons, two of whom were cut off for sacrilege (Lev 10). All the legitimate priests were the descendants of his two younger sons, Eleazar and Ithamar. David divided the priests into two courses (1 Chron 24:1-6), sixteen men of the line of Eleazar and eight of Ithamar. Among the exiles who returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel there were 4089 priests, or about one tenth of the total. They belonged to four of the twenty-four courses. At that time the claim of certain men to priestly rank was rejected (Ezra 2:61ff.) because of inadequate evidence, which shows that the records were carefully kept. No one of the sons of Aaron who had a deformity or blemish could perform the duties of the priest (Lev 21:16-24). [Source: <https://www.biblegateway.com/resources/encyclopedia-of-the-bible/Aaronites>]

Earlier I talked about the secular field being very much akin to the religion of Roman Catholicism where a rank of the Ecclesia is concerned. Aaronite fits well in defining Richard Dolan. In the Levitical Order of the priest, things were a bit different. The High Priest only held office for a short time and he was elected high priest by the other priest who cast lots, who technically were of the same order. These men were descendants of two of the four sons of Aaron who was a member of the Tribe of Levi. Aaron originally had four sons, but two were killed because they led the people astray in the wilderness. Richard Dolan seems to have the position of High Priest at this moment. Richard has evolved from a regular priest, in a sense, because earlier in his career he wanted to seek out the truth about UFOs. Now that he's advocating for a revelation of the aliens into our society (much like the High Priest would encounter Yahweh in the Holy of Holies] he has been elected spokesman for the UFO community, in a sense, an advocate between the Cosmic Gods and Mankind. The Levites, like the rest of Israel, were forbidden to intermarry with the prior inhabitants of the land. In like manner, the Alienites stick to their kind, which is anyone that is into either the research of UFOs or those who practice the paranormal. Dolan is 2 for 2 in this regard, first marrying a Wiccan after which he married someone who talks to familiar spirits and sees through demonic eyes. Both of these practices are prohibited by Yahweh who lays it out in Leviticus.

Hidden Master – In the biblical book of Ephesians we are told in Chapter six about the forces that oppose us. The Apostle Paul is telling us that while we deal with flesh and blood beings on earth, their hidden masters are the fallen entities, from the Lead Fallen Cherub to the lowest of demonic entities. These enemies are not very inventive, except in their ability to take what Yahweh has already done and to turn it around for evil. Dolan and his fellow Steven M. Greer present the supposed “aliens” as saviors of mankind who will make everything right with the world. That is just one example of counterfeit deception. Dolan however has taken it one step further. For millennia the acronym A.D. stood for the period after the birth of Yeshua, meaning The Year of Our Lord. Admittedly, the change came around about thirty years ago when A.D. was changed to C.E. meaning the Current Era; some say Common Era. However, turning A.D. from The Year of Our Lord to “After Disclosure,” is especially offensive seeing that it denotes the end of any sort of mention of our coming Mashiach and replaces it with a series of races that are coming to do what a returning Yeshua Ha Mashiach will in reality do.

CIA Mission Failed – The mission of Dolan and others like him is to promote the arrival of what they call “aliens,” which they assert will save mankind from himself. Many people like Dolan assert that the governments of this world have known about the presence of Aliens for decades. They assert that they have gained knowledge from these supposed aliens while keeping them behind a veil of secrecy. Some even assert that President Eisenhower signed a pact where we would get their technology and in exchange, they would be able to abduct a fixed number of humans yearly from the United States. They allege that other governments have done likewise. Finally, they assert that the CIA and other intelligence agencies oversaw this covert policy, but that the supposed aliens have decided to override their promise and to manifest to mankind, proclaiming themselves to be our benefactors. The covert mission of the CIA has failed according to people like Dolan and that a new reality of panacea on Earth is about to start. Like Curley from the Three Stooges once said, “The truth is stranger than fiction, Judgy Wudgy.”

Omniscient – After talking to Richard Dolan those few short times and watching him at live events and listening to him ad nauseam on television one would get the idea that he is wholly versed in the subject of Aliens, UFOs, and Final Disclosure. When he speaks he takes on a narcissistic air about him, as if to say, “I’m going to reveal something to you that I understand and I can only hope that you can wrap your mind around it.” He is the all-seeing and all-knowing Richard M. Dolan. The problem is that like when putting together a jigsaw puzzle, he is all-seeing and all-knowing about a certain area of the puzzle but is ignorant about the entire puzzle. If he could see the whole puzzle he would see that he is presenting the return of barbarism on Earth which will end with the return of Yeshua Ha Mashiach, who will have to clean up the mess that people like Dolan have prepared the world for without seeing the whole picture. In many ways, his gospel can be compared to how Martin Luther set up the German people to commit the Holocaust.

Lithium – I am not a doctor so I will diagnose. All I am going to say about this numeric value is that when a person suffers from mania and they are awake for days and/or weeks on end, they start to hallucinate. They sometimes hear voices and sometimes see visual hallucinations. Lithium is often used as a treatment for mania. I’ll leave it with reminding you that at one point Dolan said that there were beings in his head and that they would not leave him alone. Draw your conclusions.

Lord Of The Dance – This is an example of where looking at Gematria pays off wonderfully. If you search using the words “mythology lord of the dance,” you come up with the following:

Nataraja, (Sanskrit: “Lord of the Dance”) the Hindu god Shiva in his form as the cosmic dancer, represented in metal or stone in many Shaivite temples, particularly in South India.

In Hindu legend, Shiva is the god of destruction. They assert that Earth goes through cycles of destruction and rebuilding. Shiva destroys after which Vishnu rebuilds. We have already seen that Dolan is trying to introduce alien saviors, or the idea of such, into our society so that they will be accepted when they arrive. Depending on which channeler you read or which abductee that you listen to the aliens have different messages. That should be proof enough that they are frauds. One group says that the aliens will take the faithful away while the earth is destroyed and then they will bring the faithful back when it is restored. Another group says that the aliens will come to avert the destruction of the earth by saving man from himself. Pick your poison. In either case, Dolan is closely tied numerically to The Lord of The Dance, that is, Shiva.

There is another group that is also trying to open doors to allow fallen entities to enter our reality. They are the group of scientists at CERN, a facility located near Geneva, Switzerland. Their complex is located in France and Switzerland, several hundred feet underground. Stories abound that they are trying to open portals to alternate dimensions. The stories, whether true or not range from mundane to truly frightening. What I find interesting is that outside the headquarters of CERN is a statue of the god Shiva. It seems that these entities are using every means possible to open the gate to the abyss after which they will control the world, destroy it and remake it for their purposes, but scripture promises that they will fail.

At the bottom of the bronze Shiva statue there is an inscription written in Sanskrit but also translated into English. It reads:

“O Omnipresent, the embodiment of all virtues, the creator of this cosmic universe, the king of dancers, who dances the Ananda Tandava in the twilight, I salute thee.”

When I was a young man and I was taught science, I was taught that science and religion were two different things. Before my time, men like Sir Isaac Newton used Bible Scripture to prove science and science to prove Bible Scripture. It is ironic how scientists could not go for very long before they realized that they did need a god, but not the God of creation, El Elyon, they chose the Hindu god of destruction. Doesn't that seem to be a bit prophetic all things concerned?

Unbeatable – It seems, by watching Dolan and reading his works that he truly believes that his philosophy is unbeatable. Of course, it will not be verified without the arrival of “aliens” in spacecraft, but with the faith that many Christians lack, he awaits the arrival of these beings and is truly convinced that they are coming. Paul said, Faith is the belief in things unseen, the evidence of things hoped for. If Christianity had the faith of Richard M. Dolan there would be a revival that would sweep the world. If and when the “aliens” arrive it will lead to a mass apostasy from Christianity. Go to any church and ask if the parishioners believe that we are alone in the universe? More hands will be raised than not. Satan is getting ready to pluck the tares away from the wheat.

Tre Regis – This term is Latin and it means “Three Kings.” In the UFO Disclosure world, the three kings that advocate for that disclosure are Richard Dolan, Stephen Greer, and British Journalist Nick Pope. While the first two are outright advocates for disclosure, Pope is an advocate in that he worked for the British Ministry of Defence in the capacity of UFO Investigator. He legitimizes the subject while the others build on Pope’s foundation. If one were to ascribe kingship to the supposed “aliens,” they would be the Insectoids, the Grays, and the Reptilians, the three which are predominant at encounters with humans. Finally, if we are talking about three kingdoms we would say the United States, Russia, and China, all of who have a great interest in the subject and what they can gain from the intruders should the event present itself.

Children of Ammon – This is an interesting entry. After Lot was rescued from Sodom before it and the Cities of The Plain were destroyed by Yahweh, Lot’s wife looked back on the destruction and was said to have been turned into a pillar of salt. The daughters of Lot caused Lot to consume a lot of alcohol which made him drunk. In that state, they forced themselves on him and both became inseminated with his seed. The result was the birth of Ammon and Moab.

So where or what does this have to do with Michael Dolan. Dolan is expecting the arrival of human-looking creatures. I think that he realizes that Grays, Insectoids, and Reptilians would be a bit hard for mankind to digest. The purpose of alien abduction over the past several decades has been to create a hybrid of alien and human. David Jacobs has outlined this plan well in his book “Walking Among Us,” where he shows how the hybrid (or as he calls them hubrids) has advanced and how the “aliens” plan on placing these zombies among real humans in society to destroy the human race by infiltration. Ammon and Moab examples of what happens when people cannot comprehend their situation and rush things. The creation of the Ammonites and Moabites caused many problems for Israel and almost corrupted the Messianic line. The intent of the “aliens” is to again contaminate and destroy the human race using many different means, including seeding the earth with human appearing beings that will somehow work themselves into high places in society and will destroy mankind. This ties in well with the Book of Revelation and also the account of Joel’s Army in the Book of the Prophet Joel.

Magician Deception – We need to look at the definition of these words to see if they fit Dolan. First, we know deception to be the action of deceiving. Deception is trickery, fooling, and lying to gain something. Magician on the other hand is a more involved definition. Today when we think of a magician, we think of some man or woman that is hired for parties who pulls rabbits out of hats, can make someone appear to disappear, or someone who can do neat card tricks. This title has been bastardized over the years, so we have to go back to earlier sources to define the word. We have to delve into the original word, and words that describe it. Webster’s 1828 dictionary defines magician as:

MAG'CIAN, noun One skilled in magic; one that practices the black art; an enchanter; a necromancer; a sorcerer or sorceress.

That’s wonderful but now we are left defining the rest of the definitions.

ENCH'ANTER, noun One who enchants; a sorcerer or magician; one who has spirits or demons at his command; one who practices enchantment, or pretends to perform surprising things by the agency of demons.

Okay, so work with me on this one. We know that in place of Dolan having spirits that he commands (at least with the information that we can glean) he is commanded by spirits.

Remember, they're in his head and they won't leave him alone. Webster's 1828 further defines the word by defining Enchantment:

Irresistible influence; overpowering influence of delight.

And using it in a sentence it is an indictment against Dolan:

The warmth of fancy--which holds the heart of a reader under the strongest enchantment

What better news for a world filled with strife, war, hatred, racism, and of course now, COVID-19, than to fill the mind of the reader with notions of beings that are coming to earth to bring peace, harmony, and to bring us all together. Ships full of messianic figures coming to Earth to right all the wrongs and to fulfill the promises that the real God, Yahveh has not yet come to fulfill. In this McDonald's fast-food drive-thru world, people want salvation, and they want it now.

For this following word, we first will look at the word necromancer, but to know what a necromancer is we need to know what necromancy is. So follow with me if you will:

NECROMANCER, noun [See Necromancy.] One who pretends to foretell future events by holding converse with departed spirits; a conjurer.

Now that we know what a necromancer is, let us see what necromancy is:

Necromancy (/ˈnekərəmænsi/) is the practice of magic involving communication with the dead – either by summoning their spirits as apparitions, visions or raising them bodily – for the purpose of divination, imparting the means to foretell future events, discover hidden knowledge, to bring someone back from the dead, or to use the dead as a weapon. Sometimes referred to as "Death Magic", the term may also sometimes be used in a more general sense to refer to black magic or witchcraft.

The word necromancy is adapted from Late Latin necromantia, itself borrowed from post-Classical Greek νεκρομαντεία (nekromanteía), a compound of Ancient Greek νεκρός (nekrós), "dead body", and μαντεία (manteía), "divination by means of"; this compound form was first used by Origen of Alexandria in the 3rd century AD. The Classical Greek term was ἡ νέκυσια (nekyia), from the episode of the Odyssey in which Odysseus visits the realm of the dead souls and νεκρομαντεία in Hellenistic Greek, rendered as necromantia in Latin, and as necromancy in 17th-century English.

First, let me state that it is not my belief that Dolan is involved in necromancy. However, his first wife Karyn proclaims proudly to be a Wiccan. Wiccans say that they use the forces of nature to manipulate people and things, but those who know Wicca know that it involves much more. The Bible talks about the Witch of Endor who used necromancy for King Saul to raise Solomon from Sheol to consult him about the future. Solomon cursed Saul and Saul soon died in battle along with his sons. So as you can see, the Wiccan uses more magick than they let onto.

Dolan's second wife claims to be a remote viewer and an astral traveler. This sort of person uses this conveyance to consult with the dead as well as astral being, the same creatures that Dolan calls aliens and spiritual believers in Yeshua know to be fallen angels and demons. So if Dolan, who claims that there are beings that interfere with his thought patterns is connected in marriage to a necromancer, demonic entities may be in one or both wives (at different times of course). They can play off of or in unison with the entities in Dolan's mind to make quite a team of deception. The enemy is skilled at making its subjects believe that they are in control while the whole time the enemy plays the puppeteer unbeknownst to those that are being played.

The next and last word is a sorcerer. Let's see how this might fit into Dolan's equation:

SOR'CERER, [Latin sors, lot.] A conjurer; an enchanter; a magician. The Egyptian sorcerers contended with Moses.

The definition mentions that a sorcerer is a conjurer. To conjure means to call up. But what if the demonic entities are already called up. As an advisor to people who have been demonically harassed, I know that there are things that can call up demons into our lives without us ever knowing about it. One modern example is the practice of reading Harry Potter books or watching Potter movies. I can't count anymore the amount of Christians that I have been told read the books or let their children read the books or watch the movies. Real Wiccan incantations are read out in those books and movies. Parents will almost always scoff at the idea and say that it's just a movie and can't do any harm. No, such things are portals that allow malevolent entities into the lives of people of all ages and they allow those entities to inhabit your physical home as well as your bodily home.

That being said, one of the "portals" that we found existed around people who were being abducted by aliens was that they had a keen interest in the phenomenon. Also, they too admitted that they believed that we are not alone in the universe. In Dolan's case, he is not a conjurer in the sense that he calls up demons on purpose, but his words and actions bring them into his life and his person. Add that to the fact that he became one flesh with a Wiccan and after divorcing her he became one flesh with an actual conjurer adds to the fact that he's not a purposeful conjurer, but his actions and the actions of his spouses invite these malevolent forces in. You cannot ask for a better breeding ground for demonic possession and for the plethora of ideas that he conveys in his books, videos, and other forms of media.

The Intelligence – I believe that “The Intelligence,” had to do with where information is being retrieved from. Dolan might receive intelligence from Nick Pope, who we mentioned above as one of the three kings. It may be possible that Dolan has a source inside the CIA or NSA or DIA, but these intelligence agencies are great at giving out false information and they can make it look more authentic than the real information. If he is receiving intelligence it is most probably from the sources cited above. He also might be a good historian, using humanity's past pros and cons to show what society will be like after Disclosure. However, I find it more plausible that his second wife, the astral traveler who talks to aliens, conveys their messages to Dolan. Remember, these entities are fallen angelic and when it comes to deception they are masters. They've studied mankind since Yahweh first breathed breath into the being that he just formed out of the dust of the earth. They know mankind's every frailty, as well as every want and desire. They know how humans will act in just about every situation. So in a great sense, the information that he's receiving, the intelligence so to speak, is just a reworking of things that have happened before. If Dolan were a good historian he would be able to see this, however many historians have a bias in one thing or another, and many times it clouds their thinking and leads them toward what they desire, not what actually can happen.

Bleeding Hearts – Dolan's works are for people who want to know the truth that they hope to know. Bleeding hearts would love to have aliens arrive to take make us all happy without much effort on the Alien's part. Most of the ills of this world are brought about by the malevolent forces that are coming here to save us from what they have done to mankind, or in the guise of doing so.

A few years ago I received a late-night call from a woman who read my book, “Unholy Communion..” She was adamant that our claim that crying out the name of Jesus or Yeshua during an abduction would end the event. She told me several times that I was wrong before I was able to ask her why she stated that our remedy didn’t work. She stated that she had cried out the name of Jesus several times during abduction attempts or night terrors (I cannot remember anymore) and that it never stopped the events.

As she went on I heard a small voice in my head tell me to ask her who she thought Jesus was. She replied that Jesus was Sanada Jesus, one of the great sages that the universe had sent to the earth to teach mankind how to live and love. It hit me, she was crying out to another Jesus, not the Savior of Mankind. I told her that the only Jesus that works is the Jesus of the Bible, not some cosmic Jesus, upon which time I told her that what she was doing was akin to a Jew running into Gestapo headquarters during the Holocaust asking for them to save her from Hitler. I quickly explained the Gospel of Jesus to her before she hung up on me in anger. No difference between this story and what bleeding hearts want to hear and receive.

The Jesus or Yeshua of the Bible said that life on earth would be tough, that persecution and hatred would continue, and that the world would be a crappy place until he returns to make things right. The Jesus that the woman wanted and the beings that Dolan and his followers are desiring to see will wreak havoc on the Earth and mankind. Yeshua said that he would have to shorten the time of his return because if he doesn’t so there’s a possibility that no flesh will survive. Life on Earth is like life in prison, it is supposed to make you yearn for heaven and/or the blessed return of the Creator of All Things.

SUMMARY:

Richard Dolan is a fantastic writer as well as a great orator and teacher, but so was Adolph Hitler. I am not equating Dolan with Hitler, but I'm stating that just because a person is good at something doesn't mean that they're right or that their intentions are right.

Dolan has hit some nails square on the head. I do believe that there will be not just a disclosure, but a physical visitation and intervention by so-called alien beings. They will be the fallen angels that have deceived mankind since the beginning of time, just wrapped in technology wrapping paper to appeal to this generation. They will deliver their answer to all of the world's ills through an alien/human hybrid that the Bible calls the Antichrist. He will do great and miraculous things. He will mimic Yeshua in many ways and in just the same way he will mimic Buddha, the Brahman, who will claim to be the final Imam for the Moslems. He can cure the world's ills because he sent them in the first place; he'll just remove the curses that he's placed there, or his father Satan has placed in the world.

He will soon afterward demand to be worshipped and the sign of that adoration will be some sort of mark on the right hand or forehead. He will coax many to take that mark by promising them immortality and a form of godhood. His panacea on Earth will last for a short while until he realizes that not everyone follows him, then he'll start a murderous campaign of evil.

There will come a time when Yahveh, the real God will close the books and call his own home, after which he will start judging the world for their evil ways. The culmination of this story is an Earth that will probably not be recognizable because of all the judgments that have occurred. This demented creature will decide to call Yahveh to the carpet in one final battle which he'll lose and he'll be tossed his false prophet buddy directly into the lake of fire.

In reality, the full disclosure is this. Yeshua died 2 millennia ago to save us from our sins and to turn us into his form of hybrid, described as a new creature in scripture. He's offered forgiveness and eternal life to all who will accept it and sealed the deal with the promise of a Resurrection. After his return, the story continues where he turns the world into the Garden of Eden. After the passing of a thousand years, Satan is let free to deceive those who were born under Yeshua's reign. Those who did not accept him will join Satan in a brief battle that they will lose. Then Yahweh destroys creation and creates a New Heaven and Earth that will last forever, with a New Jerusalem that will be the mansion that he promised he was building. Scripture says "and God will live with men..." in a paradise that we as mortals now can never comprehend. Dolan's aliens are all gone, swimming in a lake of fire, hell is destroyed in that fire and perfection exists forevermore. Yes, you can choose Dolan's temporary saviors, but you'll suffer their fate in the end. Yahweh said in scripture, "Behold, I set before you life and death, choose life..."
