

THE POPE PROVES AGAIN THAT HE IS IGNORANT OF SCRIPTURE - KNOWLEDGE AND A RELATIONSHIP WITH YESHUA HA MASHIACH

In my 35 years of faith in Yeshua I have seen a lot of people fall flat on their faces. They blame the church, or a pastor and claim that Christianity has failed them. Well, the first problem is that you went in needing, but after you got what you wanted, you still kept needing. There comes a time when the needing ends and the giving begins. By giving, I mean contributing what talents you have as a believer, and the gifts that the Ruach Ha Kodesh has given to you. Rabbi Paul said that when he was a child, he did childish things, but then he grew up:

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 1 Corinthians 13:11

Children are constantly needy and as we grow them up, we slowly meld them into the fact that they will be contributors to society, not just takers. Well, that's what we're supposed to do anyway. Half way through my adolescence I learned not to trust in men. People will let you down every time, and, at the age of twenty, I finally found Yeshua, someone who will never let me down, simply because he's perfect and doesn't have the capability to make mistakes or deceive me.

I grew up going to dead religion. My father wanted nothing to do with Church but my mother brought me to her Episcopal Church. For me, I got the rudimentary foundation of Christianity from this church as this is all that they could teach because they knew nothing more. For a school-age child however, this was boring and all of the liturgy in the church I found to be more of a Broadway play sort of thing rather than faith in Yahweh.

I went to school with many Roman Catholics. We were sort of an oddity; in that we were Protestant Italians rather than Roman Catholic. My paternal grandfather left the Roman Catholic church in his youth; his expression about it being, "I got tired of people acting pious in church and then getting in fistfights outside the church." Grandpa had discernment, which I am thankful for because he passed it onto me.

Like I said, I had many Roman Catholic friends. They didn't know why they were Catholic. They were born into the tradition of Catholicism and it was just a way of life for them. Later on they would differentiate between me and themselves, saying that Protestants were rebellious and that we were cursed because we didn't believe in the Pope, worshipping Mary and following Catholic Saints. I would hear about how in their religion, the Pope was infallible and that he was their link to Jesus Christ. I heard how the priests could forgive sin if one went to confession and how uttering just a few words repeatedly would remove your sins. Comparing this with the rudimentary faith that I received from the Episcopal Church, I saw that something wasn't right. Either the Vatican was right, or the Protestants were right. I reasoned that God could have only one truth, if truth is truly truth.

I started to look into the history of the whole Church, both the Vatican's version and Protestantism. What I found appalled me. I saw what seemed to be more of a business (the Vatican) that opposed people who wanted to take the Bible seriously and obey Yahweh. I saw that Yeshua was the vicar (mediator) between God and man, and it wasn't the Pope that held that position. I read about idol worship and how Catholics bow to saints and genuflect before the Crucifix that still contained the body of Yeshua. Like my mom always said, "the Catholics just can't get over that fact that Jesus isn't on that cross anymore." I talked with my mom and discovered that she already believed what I had been finding out. I read about James and Jude in the Bible, and how they were biological brothers with Yeshua, so how could Mary be perpetually immaculate (virginal)? I read about the inquisitions, the indulgences, the land grabs by the Vatican and what someone had calculated to be 70 million Bible believing Christians that had been exterminated by the Vatican and its agents.

What I came to believe, and I still do today, is that if the Pope says something, the opposite is probably true. Up until last week, I thought that me and the Pope agreed on at least two things; the sinfulness of abortion, and the sinfulness of homosexuality. Well, that was up to last week. I came across an article in the Daily Mail, a British newspaper that often has interesting articles. It's a shame when one has to go to sources half a world away to get the news. In the Daily Mail, published on October 19, 2014. The article states:

God is not afraid of new things, Pope tells Catholics after his plans to soften church's attitude towards homosexuals were rejected by Synod

- Pope calls for the church to adapt to 'changing conditions of society'
- As plans to soften stance on homosexuality and divorce are rejected
- A year long debate and discussions will now begin to finalise the document

By STEVE HOPKINS FOR MAILONLINE

PUBLISHED: 08:41 EST, 19 October 2014 | UPDATED: 11:57 EST, 20 October 2014

Pope Francis called on the church to adapt to 'changing conditions of society' yesterday following a conference that rejected changes that would have softened the church's stance toward homosexuality and divorce.

As he beatified Pope Paul VI who implemented the Second Vatican Council's vast changes, Pope Francis said 'God is not afraid of new things'.

Liberal reforms to church doctrine which fell short of the two thirds majority needed for success in the meeting would also have opened the way for Catholics who are divorced and remarried to receive communion, the central sacrament of the church.

Traditionalists, the Pope said, risk a temptation of 'hostile inflexibility'.

It is unclear whether the document issued Saturday is a set-back for the pope, but the conference did prompt the church to discuss difficult issues such as the role of gays, lesbians and divorced Catholics.

Commentators said the bishops had done what Francis had asked of them, which was to talk about the issues in an 'open way'. But those talks, to 'take the bishop's pulse' on current issues, had exposed a split reformers and conservatives.

An interim document issued last week by the bishops halfway through their synod included wording that welcomed the 'gifts and qualities' of gay Catholics and called on pastors to 'avoid any language or behavior' that could discriminate against divorced Catholics, USA Today reported.

Saturday's report did not feature the reconciliatory language.

The final paper also emphasised strongly that there was no change in the church's attitude to gay relationships.

'No grounds whatsoever exist for assimilating or drawing analogies, however remote, between homosexual unions and God's design for matrimony and the family,' it said.

Divorced and remarried Catholics were denied hopes of a reform that would approve their taking communion without any annulment of their first marriage.

The synod said 'greater theological study' and 'further consideration' were required.

The church does not recognise divorce so remarried Catholics are regarded as adulterers.

Some experts compared Pope Francis' efforts to modernise the church's position, with Paul's implementation of the Second Vatican Council, which dramatically modernized the church in the 1960s and 1970s.

Sunday's ceremony leaves Paul, who was pope from 1963 until his death in 1978, just one step short of sainthood. Popes John XXIII and John Paul II, who came before and after Paul, respectively, were made saints six months ago. Also attending the beatification Mass was Emeritus Pope Benedict XVI.

Since Francis became anointed last year, he has repeatedly broken with tradition.

While the bishops failed to build on the tone he set last year by saying, 'Who am I to judge?' when asked whether gays can be good Christians, observers applauded the openness of addressing the contentious issues.

A year-long debate and discussions will now before the bishops will reconvene for another three-week synod. A document on pastoral guidelines will then be formalised.

Commentators believe Pope Francis will spend the next year making his case with bishops, but they believe the outcome could simply lead to the gap between church leaders widening.

[Source: <http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2799042/Church-not-fear-change-pope-says-synod-close.html>]

What was quite alarming is that by his actions and his words, this Pope knows very little if anything about the Character of Yahweh. For a person that is supposed to be (according to RC Doctrine) the vicar between God and Man, the man is failing. To be a go-between, which is what a vicar is means that you have to know what both parties do, and what they require as well as what they need. Yeshua fills this position perfectly, the Popes never have.

The Vatican has always had a strange attitude about Divorce, almost making it impossible to attain. People had to go through stringent measures to separate from one-another and then it had to be sanctioned by a Priest or a Bishop body. Also, men always found it easier to divorce their wives than wives did for divorcing their husbands. This attitude continued well into the 20th century. The thing is, divorce is not new, although by what was said in the article, the current Pope would like to change. Granted, this might be a good thing on a part of this Pope, but by declaring that divorce is something new, or flexibility on it is something new is ludicrous. Moshe, when given the Torah by Yahweh wrote the decree:

The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. Matthew 19:3-9

There is a little bit of misinterpretation here. It almost makes it sound like a divorced woman cannot be married after she has been divorced, unless her husband committed adultery. Yeshua is confirming that infidelity is the only real reason for a divorce to be allowed because by becoming one flesh, a covenant has been established through the act of coitus. If in fact a husband or wife practice adultery within the marriage, the coitus in effect makes the adulterer a polygamist and a divorce is necessary because one cannot have more than one spouse. However, what Yeshua was saying here was quoting the Old Testament Law concerning divorce. If a man divorces his wife and gives her a paper of divorce and marries another, and THEN decides that he wants to marry his first wife again, HE commits adultery. So, in the last sentence of the text, it should read, my loose paraphrase:

If you divorce your wife for anything other than her committing fornication, the man commits adultery if he marries another. And, if he decides to remarry her, then he commits adultery.

You see, by divorcing her for anything other reason than fornication with another man, you are breaking apart your bond for nefarious reasons and it is almost always to marry another woman, and that is adultery because you violated the only criteria that Yahweh accepts to divorce. So, you are already and adulterer when you marry the other woman. So, you've made bonds with the second woman, making her an adulteress. You decide that you want to go back to your first wife, who in Yahweh's eyes you divorced illegally so you divorce your second wife without the proper motives and decrees because you want your first wife back, so you become a double adulterer. It has nothing with the divorced wife (the first one) being an adulterer.

Now, what the article seems to state is that there are many in the Vatican that want to keep the old ways, which although they were stringent, made it hard to divorce, and most of the time it was allowed because of unfaithfulness, unless you had clout and could work a deal with the church hierarchy. But this Pope is talking like nothing is new to Yahweh, and he also states that the cardinals are being too rough and unbending. So, the assertion is that the Pope wants to relax the stringent measures needed to get a divorce, much like the Pharisees did in Yeshua's time. The article also seems to suggest that the Pope thinks that the Vatican should go easier on homosexuals.

Actually, the notion that "God is not afraid of new things," again defies the any notion that the Pope knows Scripture of Scripture's God. First of all, when did divorce become new? It was addressed in the Torah, so it is a very old notion, and one that Yahweh is not happy about. I ask you too, when did homosexuality become a new thing? Look at the following in scripture:

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Luke 17:26-29

Note that Yeshua says that in the days of Noah, men were given wives and they were given in marriage. Yeshua was saying that the men were given in marriage. In Hebrew culture, and many Middle Eastern civilizations, it was the women that were given in marriage, never the men, unless they were homosexuals who gave each other in marriage. What gives even more credence to this notion is that Yeshua then compares Noah's time with the time when Lot left Sodom and Yahweh destroyed Sodom, Gomorrah and other cities with fire and sulfur. The men of Sodom tried to have relations with the angels that Yahweh sent to warn Lot to flee. Nothing happens coincidentally, especially not in Yahweh's Scripture.

Yahweh was the one that spoke to Moshe from the Burning Bush. He was the one that gave the Torah to Moshe. The Torah is quite clear about Yahweh's thoughts about homosexuality, and might I add, all sexual sin. Leviticus 18 illustrates all sexual sin as abomination:

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the Lord your God. After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. Ye shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the Lord your God. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the Lord.

None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the Lord. The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness. The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover. The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness. The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness. Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness. Moreover thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord. Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the Lord your God. Leviticus 18:1-30

Yahweh is clear that the abominations that he mentions in this chapter are the ones that are being committed by those who possess the land (the Canaanites) and that this is the reason why they were being vomited from the Land of Promise. This was Yahweh, the Word of Elohim that was saying these things to Moshe. The penalty's for doing such things were often death:

Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not: Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people. And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God. And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the Lord which sanctify you.

For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him. And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them. If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you. And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people. And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity. And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out. And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people. Leviticus 20:1-24

And we even see it in the Brit Hadasha, where Rabbi Paul talked about times past, and how sin progressed into worse sin:

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Romans 1:18-32

We see how Yahweh feels about sexual sin, and especially homosexuality. Sexual deviancy was one of the things that caused Him to destroy the antediluvian world with a flood.

Israel is charged several times in the Torah not to participate in homosexual activity. Israel was told to wipe out whole cities; men, women, children and animals; probably because of a polluted gene pool, themselves having been intermingled with fallen angels. But we know that the Canaanites practiced sexual immorality. Sodom, Gomorrah and other Cities of The Plain were destroyed by Yahweh who used fire and sulfur to destroy those places because of sexual immorality. And Rabbi Paul, when talking about the past, talked about homosexuality and lesbianism as being things that Yahweh saw as godlessness, and he says that they not only practiced such things, but took pleasure in them that do it. Seen many Gay Pride parades lately? Yes, we have.

How foolish it was for the Pope to say that “God is not afraid of new things.” First of all, there is nothing “new” to Yahweh. He’s seen it all. He lives outside of time and space and he has seen the beginning from the end. Nothing is new to him. Solomon proves this very thing and speaking through the Ruach Ha Kodesh, pronounces a curse upon mankind, in effect saying that mankind cannot remember its old mistakes and is doomed to repeat them:

The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after. Ecclesiastes 1:9-11

It is impossible for something to be “new” to Yahweh. We have to take into account that Yahweh never changes. His Words and his Character are immutable. And, if he never changes, then his message never changes:

*“God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent.”
Numbers 23:19*

And:

“And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.” 1 Samuel 15:29

And:

“For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” Malachi 3:6

And:

“Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.” James 1:17

And:

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Hebrews 13:8

If Roman Catholics want to believe that the Pope is Yahweh’s representative here on earth, and that he is infallible and his word is the final authority. I am sure that Pope Francis has all of the rules, regulations and dictates of the Vatican Religion down, to the last dotting of the “i” and crossing of the “t,” but where scripture is concerned, the man goes one of two ways. Either he is incredibly illiterate about scripture, or, he deliberately twists scripture to fit the need of the Church’s hold over its people and to perpetuate the lies that will allow the Vatican to big a very big player in the Whore of Babylon role during the last days.

And we have to ask why Pope Francis wants to become laxer on homosexuality? Could it be because over the past few decades it has turned out that quite a few priests have been found to be pedophile homosexuals? If there is a large number of priests, bishops, cardinals, nuns and so on that are practicing homosexuals and lesbians then relaxing the punishments and in time accepting it as a common lifestyle would negate any legal action against the RC Church because it will be part of the Vatican’s doctrine, and thus it must be accepted by the common church goer. It opens up pedophile “hunting season” on all little boys and girls by the church hierarchy.

Pope Francis, the answer would be no, nothing is new to Yahweh and nothing can surprise him. He watches and waits and hopes that prideful and narcissistic Nicolaitans will humbly repent before him, knowing all the time that that same pride and narcissism will prevent most from doing just that. You Francis, are not a tool of Yahweh, you are a puppet of Satan. You and your Vatican will be thrown into the Lake of Fire with the Devil and his angels and all other people who refuse to humbly and truthfully bow a knee to King of The Jews and the Lion of Judah. Have your fun now Papa, because you have received your reward and what awaits you is too horrible to even imagine.