

WHY ALIENS ABDUCT

NEPHILIM – PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

The talk about alien's abducting humans has become very common place. Thoughts and ideas that would have landed someone in a insane asylum just twenty years ago are now spoken out loud. It seems that our society and that of the whole world is moving from rationalism toward the esoteric. Practices that were taboo just one generation ago are common place. Witchcraft and Satanism, that in the past where were only whispered about in the dark recesses of society are now proclaimed out in plain site. Those who practice bizarre and perverted sexual practices now hold them up like banners in the streets. The world is in a definite spiral down the vortex to Hades.

Christians and others who have been studying Bible prophecy have known for years that there are many things that are happening in our time that fit the prophetic mold. The interesting thing though is that these days even those who don't call themselves practicing Christians seem to know that things are not quite right anymore. There seems to be a sense of impending doom in the air; something that says that utter chaos is about to befall mankind. In a recent poll conducted here in the States, it was discovered that the majority of Americans believe that the end of the world is right around the corner. So, what is going on?

Satan And His Candy-Coated Lies:

You know, you'll never understand the future without knowing the past. This is especially true where the lies of Satan are concerned. A wise man once said that those who fail to remember history are doomed to repeat it. Oh, what truth is written in that one small phrase. Let's look at one example that hits close to home where Americans are concerned. It is obvious that our leaders don't study history because after every war or military conflict they demilitarize our country. They close military bases, reduce the sizes of our military and cut spending for the military. Before World War One, the size of our military was quite small. When war became imminent, we had to gear back up for it and that took quite a bit of spending and effort. After that war the size of the military dwindled to a sorry state. Then came the attack on Pearl Harbor and they had to do it all upsize all over again and that caused more time, much more money and a great deal of effort to accomplish. Then came Korea, and then Vietnam and the war machine had to be cranked up every time. Then the Cold War ended and again came a downsize. A lot of time, money and effort could have been saved had they realized that there will always be war and we always need to be ready for it. This is just one of the myriads of examples of how humankind tends to repeat history because we forget it very quickly.

Whether you believe it or not, we have an adversary called Satan, and he is very crafty. He knows about our failure to remember history and he takes full advantage of it. He does know that we tend to remember a little, so he has to be creative and sometime package the same deception with different labels. Once a lie is exposed (usually at the cost of many human lives) he begins to package it again with a different wrapping paper and perhaps a different color bow, but underneath the facade is the same old lie. Earlier this year I conducted an experiment with some friends and coworkers. I've worn a beard ever since I was able to grow one, so most of my friends have never seen me without one. You have to understand that I look totally different without the beard. So, one Friday night I trimmed the beard very short then shaved the off the remainder. I went to work on Saturday to pick up some reading material that I left in my area. I wore a baseball cap, tee shirt, jeans and black tennis shoes. I walked up to the pharmacy counter and even stared at some of my coworkers while they stared back. They knew that I looked familiar, but really couldn't make me out. It wasn't until I said something that they finally realized that the man standing before them was me. It was quite a bit of fun. You see, they were getting the same package, but it was wrapped in different garb and they didn't immediately recognize it.

Now, one must remember that Satan knows that we have some intelligence and at times we're not so easy to fool. Because of that he tends to present mostly truth mixed with a little bit of a lie. Have you ever used rat poison to kill a rat in your house or yard? If you have a box of the stuff around you should read the ingredients. Mostly, the products are 99 percent food and around one percent poison. The rat would never touch it if it were pure poison. Rats will usually gorge themselves when they eat so each time, they eat the poison they are getting mostly good food, but enough poison to make them mortally sick. It doesn't happen overnight either and it takes a few trips to the bait for them to finally succumb.

A classic example of this in human terms illustrated in drug abuse. It starts out with smoking a little marijuana. The reasoning is that it isn't a hard drug and that you will get a good high and you won't get addicted. Well, while it might not be what one considers a hard drug, it is a gateway drug. The high is nice while it is occurring, but at some point, the effects wear off and you are back where you were. Sooner or later the marijuana smoker reaches a plateau where the effect of the drug is nominal and the person then has to decide whether they want to stay at that plateau or climb to a higher one. Most choose the climb which might be to some form of stimulant like crack or amphetamines, while others go on to hypnotics or sedatives. Well, after a while they reach another plateau and the decision has to be made to remain there contently or move on. Many move on to drugs like heroin and when you've reached the "BIG H," you're can't deny that you're a habitual drug addict. The whole process started out with what was going to be a little innocent fun and snowballed to a condition that will either enslave the person at one of the levels until they decide to go through some sort of treatment program for substance abuse. Many times, those programs fail and the addict will again go back to the habit and ultimately death occurs because of complications or overdose.

Death and misery will always occur when people forget or ignore history. Another wise person once said, "fool me once, shame on you; fool me twice, shame on me." Does that ring true with you? I know that I've found it to be true in my life.

Our History Book and Life's Primer:

Every one of us who has been schooled can remember having a lot of history pumped into us. This is especially before the formation of revisionist history. The purpose of those history classes was to show us the result of good and bad societies and the outcome of those societies when they practiced righteousness or wickedness. God has been gracious to give us the Bible for such purposes. One of the purposes of the Bible is as a guidebook to life. By reading about the lives of peoples and nations mentioned in its wonderful pages we can see how to conduct our daily lives. It shows us God's response to our actions; how He gives rewards to the righteous and how the actions of sin separate us from Him.

The Original Deception – Antediluvian Humanity and the Nephilim:

The world before the great flood was much different that it is today, both ecologically and in human terms. It was common for people to live for over nine centuries. Disease conditions were probably very low and they were probably sick very little. Plants and animals grew to be very large too as the fossil record proves. And yes, there were dinosaurs. After all, reptiles never stop growing during their lifetimes. The dinosaurs were just very old reptiles. It probably never rained either. The Bible says that the Earth was watered by springs that sprung up from the ground. The lack of rain also explains why God made such emphasis on giving Noah a rainbow to promise that He's never flood the whole world again to destroy it. The rainbow was a brand-new thing to witness when God gave it to him.

The Bible doesn't go into much detail about the condition of humanity before the flood, except to state that they had become desperately wicked; so much so that God repented that He had ever made man. There are other books that go into more depth about the condition of mankind before the flood. These books, although not accepted canon are still quite credible and are even referred to by some of the characters in the Bible. If you want to read those books, go to the Categories place on the main page on the website. Pay particular attention to The Book of Enoch and The Book of Jasher.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, was asked about the end of man's reign on Earth and He made a statement that makes one wonder. He said:

But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Matthew 24:27

And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. Luke 17:26

Jesus went out of His way to explain that just before His coming, the world would be like it was before the flood came and destroyed the whole world. Now the Bible doesn't go into much detail about those past days. It only says that all men were wicked and that they had corrupted the whole Earth. It also mentions that the Sons of God found the daughters of men attractive and took all whom they pleased. In Genesis we read that the result of the union between the Sons of God and the daughters of men was a race of giants. Aside from those things, very little is mentioned.

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Genesis 6:1-4

Who Were the Sons of God?

If you do a word study on the “sons of God,” you would find that it’s transliterations is B’nai Elohim, which is simply translated to “sons of God.” If you were to pick out a group of Bible scholars and ask them who the sons of God were in Genesis chapter six, you would get two different answers. One group would tell you what is called the “Line of Seth” doctrine which says that the sons of God were the righteous line of Seth, the son of Adam. The other group would tell you that the sons of God were rebellious angels who had sexual relations with human females.

Rebellious Angels

The early Christian Church believed in the B’nai Elohim to be angels up to and through the fourth century. Some of the early church fathers who believed they were angels were Cyprian, Eusebius, Justin Athenagoras et.al. The Apocrypha backs up this belief as well as Philo, Judeaus and Josephus. The text from Josephus reads:

Now the posterity of Seth continued to esteem God as the Lord of the universe, and to have an entire regard to virtue, for seven generations; but in the process of time they were perverted, and forsook the practices of their forefathers and did not pay those honors to God which were appointed them, nor had they any concern to do justice toward men. But for what degree of zeal they had formally shewn for virtue, they now shew for their actions a double degree of wickedness, whereby they made God to be their enemy; for many angels of God accompanied with women, and begat sons that proved unjust and despisers of all that was good on account of the confidence they had in their own strength, for the tradition is that these men did what resembled the acts of those who the Grecians call giants. But Noah was very uneasy at what they did; and, being displeased at their conduct, persuaded them to change their dispositions and their acts for the better; but seeing that they did not yield to him, but were slaves to their wicked pleasures, he was afraid that they would kill him together with his wife and children, and those they had married; so he departed out of that land. Josephus – Antiquity Of The Jews – Chapter 3:1

The term B’nai Elohim is a term that always refers to angels. It occurs four times in the Old Covenant. In the ancient Septuagint translation, it is always rendered, “Angels of God.”

The corrupt angels are referred to a couple of times in the New Covenant. Peter, while writing about the events that proceeded the flood of Noah's time says:

For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 2 Peter 2:4

The word that Peter uses for hell here is the Greek word Tartarus. This Greek word is for a "dark abode of woe, the pit of darkness in the unseen world." It is the same word that is used in Homer's Iliad which portrays Tartarus "as far below hades as earth is below heaven."

And in Jude we read:

"And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering and vengeance of eternal fire." Jude 1:6

The strange flesh that the angels went after was the daughters of men. Jude equates this to the sins of homosexuality, bestiality and other sexual perversion that were predominant in Sodom and Gomorrah and their surrounding cities.

It is interesting to note, as written in the Book of Enoch, that these angels were also responsible for bringing the occult into the world as well as corrupting the seed of mankind:

Chapter 6

1 And it came to pass when the children of men had multiplied that in those days were born unto them beautiful and comely daughters.

2 And the angels, the children of the heaven, saw and lusted after them, and said to one another: 'Come, let us choose us wives from among the children of men

3 and beget us children.' And Semjaza, who was their leader, said unto them: 'I fear ye will not

4 indeed agree to do this deed, and I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin.' And they all answered him and said: 'Let us all swear an oath, and all bind ourselves by mutual imprecations

5 not to abandon this plan but to do this thing.' Then sware they all together and bound themselves

6 by mutual imprecations upon it. And they were in all two hundred; who descended in the days of Jared on the summit of Mount Hermon, and they called it Mount Hermon, because they had sworn

7 and bound themselves by mutual imprecations upon it. And these are the names of their leaders: Samlazaz, their leader, Araklba, Rameel, Kokabel, Tamlel, Ramlel, Danel, Ezeqeel, Baraqijal,

8 Asael, Armaros, Batarel, Ananel, Zaqel, Samsapeel, Satarel, Turel, Jomjael, Sariel. These are their chiefs of tens.

Chapter 7

1 And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms

2 and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. And they

3 became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: Who consumed

4 all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the giants turned against

5 them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and

6 fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones.

Chapter 8

1 And Azazel taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all

2 colouring tinctures. And there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they

3 were led astray, and became corrupt in all their ways. Semjaza taught enchantments, and root-cuttings, 'Armaros the resolving of enchantments, Baraqijal (taught) astrology, Kokabel the constellations, Ezeqeel the knowledge of the clouds, Araquel the signs of the earth, Shamsiel the signs of the sun, and Sariel the course of the moon. And as men perished, they cried, and their cry went up to heaven . . .

The Line of Seth Theory and How It's Flawed:

During the early days of the Christian Church, many things came against the true faith. One of those things was an attack on the doctrine of a Created Earth. As is always the theme of persons who perpetuate heresy, they try to discredit one part of scripture to cause doubt of the whole scripture. One such man was Julius Africanus. He proposed the doctrine that the sons of God mentioned in Genesis were actually a Sethite race. His intent was to prove that the B'nai Elohim simply referred to the sons of Seth who were determined to preserving the true worship of God. His theory prevailed in the Medieval Church and it is still a predominant view. Granted, it is a more politically correct version of the events and a pill that is easier to swallow, but as is the case most of the time, a lie is sweeter than the truth.

There are several reasons why the “Sethite” theory is flawed as we will illustrate below:

The first being that there is no scripture to back it up. There are no ancient Hebrews books to back up its claim either. In contrast, as mentioned above there is a lot of documentation to back up the truth of angelic visitations.

The second flaw is thus. If one is to say that the Sethites were righteous then one has to say that the daughters of men were of Cain’s lineage and unrighteous. The first assumption then is to believe that all of the daughters of Seth were unattractive, which is not mentioned in the Bible. If the Sethites were so righteous then why did they seek out unrighteous women cohabitate with? There is no indication that the sons and daughters of Cain were all evil. As a matter of fact, several of them have the suffix of “EL” at the end of their names which most likely denotes that they feared and worshipped God. Time and time again in the Biblical sense, names that end with that suffix denote godly personages. Ezekiel and Daniel are human examples and angelic examples are Gabriel and Michael.

There is no indication whatsoever that the Sethites were set apart as a pious group or people. God did not discriminate between them and the others lost in the flood and they died along with those others. As a matter of fact, there is indication that Seth’s son Enosh was the one who introduced apostasy to the inhabitants of the Earth. The scripture where he is mentioned (Genesis 4:25) reads:

“then men began to call upon the name of the Lord.”

In the Strongs Concordance, the Hebrew for that word is: 07121 qara’ {kaw-raw’} which means literally to call upon.

There is an identical word, spelled the same way: 07122 qara’ {kaw-raw’} which means to encounter whether accidentally or in a hostile manner. [To use in a profane manner]

Hebrew in some instances is a lot like the English language where words are concerned. In English we use the term love, but the meaning of the word depends on the context that we are using it in. In Hebrew you can say shalom to welcome someone, or to bid them farewell or to bid them peace.

Now where the word qara' is concerned in the passage above, what were the intentions of the writer? We must remember that mankind always tends to go from purity to corruption; from good intentions to bad intentions. When Adam and Eve were cast from the Garden of Eden you can be sure that they had a purer relationship with God than their grandchildren did. They spent time in God's presence for some time before they were corrupted, so they had to be able to worship him in a purer manner. Because of the entropy of the human condition, their descendants would become more corrupt as time went on, or at least they would lose some of the tradition of worship that their ancestors had. The Church experiences this a lot and that is why we have a need for revival from time to time. Those who hold to the Sethite view assume that the worship of God remained pure down through Seth's descendants, but if that is true, then why would they have to "begin to call upon the name of the Lord," again. Thus, the passage makes more sense when it is translated:

"...then men began to profane the name of the Lord."

And finally, when the faithful marry the unfaithful they do not produce unnatural offspring. Their offspring might turn out to be faithful or unfaithful, but not unnatural.

Who Were the Nephilim?

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Genesis 6:4

As the scripture says, the Nephilim are the unholy offspring of the union between rebellious angels and women who lived before the flood of Noah. The Bible that we read today is actually an English version of the Greek translation of the Hebrew. The word "giant," actually comes from the Greek word, "gigantes, which actually means, "earth-born." This goes to prove that the Nephilim were not the result of union between two human adults, but of a union between a human woman and an angelic being. After all, all humans are earth-born so the only reason to refer to the Nephilim earth-born would be to differentiate them from regular humans.

The Greeks translated the word from the following Hebrew word:

05303 n@phiyl {nef-eel’} or n@phil {nef-eel’} which means giant, but the root word for Nephil has an expanded meaning. That root word is:

05307 naphal {naw-fal’} which has several similar meanings, some of which include: fail; fall down; cast; cast down; fall away; divide; and overthrow.

Now I’m not questioning the use of term “giant,” meaning a very large person, because it is correct that Nephilim were of great stature. It has to be said though that the term “giant,” that we use today gets its connotation from the Nephilim, not the other way around. The Nephilim were the original giants.

We now come to where the scripture mentions that these Nephilim were mighty men which were men of old, men of renown. The word for “mighty,” in the Hebrew language denotes just that, that they were mighty and brave. The Hebrew word for the phrase, “men of old,” has an interesting meaning. It can either mean just that, “old,” but in a majority of times it refers to ancient or everlasting. This is interesting because the Nephilim were half angelic, and if you take into account that most scholars who study the creation of angels ascribe them as having been created a day or two before mankind, this would make them seem ancient. And finally, the Hebrew word for “men of renown,” could also be translated, “men of infamy,” or to put it another way, they did things that are evil and were opposed to everything that is good.

So Why Did This All Happen?

To put it simple, Satan hates mankind. Remember that Adam was formed in God’s image. Angels were not formed in God’s image. You, me and every other human that ever lived all remind Satan that he is inferior. We also remind him of his hatred for God.

Back in the Garden of Eden, after Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit, there were some judgments pronounced. God cursed Satan and He made a promise. He told Satan that He (God) would put enmity between Eve’s seed and Satan’s seed. He told Satan that his (Satan’s) seed would bruise her seed’s heel, but that her seed would bruise his seed’s head. This was the prophecy of a future redeemer of mankind (Jesus) who would have a wounded heel (which He did at the crucifixion) but He (Jesus) would survive (i.e. the Resurrection) but Satan’s wound would be fatal because it will be a head wound.

Knowing that there would be a redeemer that would someday bruise his head, Satan formulated a plan to corrupt the human race. If he could intermingle his seed with the seed of humans then God wouldn't find anyone righteous to redeem mankind. Hence, the corrupt angels came down and intermingled their seed with human women to corrupt the race. When Satan saw that this was not working, he corrupted mankind's soul with all sorts of occult ways. And finally, when that didn't work, he used the Nephilim to attempt to kill off those of the human race who were still pure and had not been corrupted by his seed. Just look at the lineage of Jesus Christ and you will see that Satan has tried several times to wipe out the Children of Israel, but he never knew God's secret plans and his attempts, however gruesome, always failed.

The Fate of The Corrupt Angels and The Nephilim

The Book of Enoch has a lot to say about the corrupt angels and the Nephilim. It really fills in the gaps left in the Biblical account. You will notice that Enoch uses the term "The Watchers." This was the name of the corrupt angels, most probably before they became corrupt. These angels were assigned to Earth to guide mankind in righteousness and to watch over them, but they rebelled. Below is some of the account of Enoch concerning the fate of the Watchers and the Nephilim.

Chapter 10

1 Then said the Most High, the Holy and Great One spake, and sent Uriel to the son of Lamech,

2 and said to him: Go to Noah and tell him in my name "Hide thyself!" and reveal to him the end that is approaching: that the whole earth will be destroyed, and a deluge is about to come

3 upon the whole earth, and will destroy all that is on it. And now instruct him that he may escape

4 and his seed may be preserved for all the generations of the world. And again the Lord said to Raphael: Bind Azazel hand and foot, and cast him into the darkness: and make an opening

5 in the desert, which is in Dudael, and cast him therein. And place upon him rough and jagged rocks, and cover him with darkness, and let him abide there for ever, and cover his face that he may

6,7 not see light. And on the day of the great judgement he shall be cast into the fire. And heal the earth which the angels have corrupted, and proclaim the healing of the earth, that they may heal the plague, and that all the children of men may not perish through all the secret things that the

8 Watchers have disclosed and have taught their sons. And the whole earth has been corrupted

9 through the works that were taught by Azazel: to him ascribe all sin. And to Gabriel said the Lord: Proceed against the bastards and the reprobates, and against the children of fornication: and destroy [the children of fornication and] the children of the Watchers from amongst men [and cause them to go forth]: send them one against the other that they may destroy each other in

10 battle: for length of days shall they not have. And no request that they (i.e. their fathers) make of thee shall be granted unto their fathers on their behalf; for they hope to live an eternal life, and

11 that each one of them will live five hundred years. And the Lord said unto Michael: Go, bind Semjaza and his associates who have united themselves with women so as to have defiled themselves

12 with them in all their uncleanness. And when their sons have slain one another, and they have seen the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them fast for seventy generations in the valleys of the earth, till the day of their judgment and of their consummation, till the judgment that is

13 for ever and ever is consummated. In those days they shall be led off to the abyss of fire: and

14 to the torment and the prison in which they shall be confined for ever. And whosoever shall be condemned and destroyed will from thenceforth be bound together with them to the end of all

15 generations. And destroy all the spirits of the reprobate and the children of the Watchers, because

16 they have wronged mankind. Destroy all wrong from the face of the earth and let every evil work come to an end: and let the plant of righteousness and truth appear: and it shall prove a blessing

We see that the Watchers were forced to watch as the Nephilim slew each other in battle. Then those angels were thrown into Tartarus, a place which is as far below hell as Earth is from heaven. The Nephilim have been assigned a terrible fate. Have you ever wondered where evil spirits and ghosts come from? Demons are not fallen angels, they are the disembodied spirits of the Nephilim, as you will see in the text below:

Chapter 15

1 And He answered and said to me, and I heard His voice: 'Fear not, Enoch, thou righteous

2 man and scribe of righteousness: approach hither and hear my voice. And go, say to the Watchers of heaven, who have sent thee to intercede for them: "You should intercede" for men, and not men

3 for you: Wherefore have ye left the high, holy, and eternal heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives, and done like the children

4 of earth, and begotten giants (as your) sons? And though ye were holy, spiritual, living the eternal life, you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and have begotten

(children) with the blood of flesh, and, as the children of men, have lusted after flesh and blood as those also do who die

5 and perish. Therefore have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them, and beget

6 children by them, that thus nothing might be wanting to them on earth. But you were formerly

7 spiritual, living the eternal life, and immortal for all generations of the world. And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling.

8 And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon

9 the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin;

10 they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling.]

11 And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless

12 hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.

Chapter 16

1 From the days of the slaughter and destruction and death of the giants, from the souls of whose flesh the spirits, having gone forth, shall destroy without incurring judgment - thus shall they destroy until the day of the consummation, the great judgment in which the age shall be

2 consummated, over the Watchers and the godless, yea, shall be wholly consummated.” And now as to the Watchers who have sent thee to intercede for them, who had been aforetime in heaven, say to them:

3 “You have been in heaven, but all the mysteries had not yet been revealed to you, and you knew worthless ones, and these in the hardness of your hearts you have made known to the women, and through these mysteries women and men work much evil on earth.”

4 Say to them therefore: ” You have no peace.”“

A lot of people make the mistake of thinking of demons as the fallen angels when in fact, they are the disembodied spirits of the children of the fallen angels. Angels can appear in any physical form they want to. Demons on the other hand, have to possess a body or severely oppress someone to get their agenda accomplished. This pretty well concludes our history lesson. All of the above was written as a primer to prepare you for the focus of this paper; the real reason for alien abduction.

Alien Abduction – The True Purpose

Reports of alien abduction have been on a steady rise ever since the Betty and Barney Hill incident happened. What on Earth is going on where all of this is concerned. From the things I've read and the research I've done, I'm convinced that the phenomena is real and that it has happened to a fairly large amount of people. I think that there are a few kooks out there who report false reports, but for the most part they are real. As to if these occurrences are real or if they are played out in the psyche there has been research that would claim both to be true.

Research has shown that there is a correlation between abductees and dabbling in the occult. The occult is what is called a door for these things to enter. Drugs and hypnosis are other doorways that allow demonic entities (aka aliens) to enter into one's life. All of these activities cause a surrendering of the person's will, allowing anything to enter that wants to enter. Believe me that I know what I'm talking about because I dabbled in the occult and drugs before I became a Christian. If you've ever lived in a bad neighborhood you know the value of locking your doors at night. Thieves know that late at night people are more vulnerable and are easily taken off guard. Well, their teacher is Satan, who has been stealing and lying for millennia and he knows every way possible to get into a person's life. His demonic minions are always poised, ready to enter. It's of interest to note that most abductions take place at night. Seems to fit the regular method of operation.

If you've read my own account that is located on this site, you probably know that I've had a couple of visitations by what I know to be demonic entities which were sent to harass me. These things usually happened when I was a young Christian and I was making great strides in my walk with Jesus. My relationship with Jesus was such a blessing, but the enemy wanted to scare me away from that walk, and it almost worked. It would always happen at night and I would be paralyzed, almost to the point where I wasn't able to talk. I would just lie there praising the name of Jesus and thanking Him for victory and after a short while the entity would leave. I would then sit there remembering that the fear that I had just gotten over was the same fear I had years earlier when I had a UFO experience as a young child. Well, as the years of my Christian walk grew the harassment began to wane. From time to time though, when I begin to make more great strides, or when the Lord reveals something of great importance that bolsters my faith, I will get that feeling like the harassment is going to begin. I can always feel it coming. I will always face the direction of the attacker and start singing songs about Jesus and proclaiming His blood and then the demon goes away again. My most recent attack came when I started this website; proclaiming the truth about UFO's and aliens. But the enemy can't stand when Jesus is battling for me.

So Why Do They Conduct Sexual Experiments?

The answer to that is quite simple. But before we answer that one, let's go back to our history lesson. We learned that the fallen angels came down and had sexual relations with human women. We know that they had children by those unions. We also know that the disembodied spirits of those children (the Nephilim) roam the earth to make all sorts of trouble. And too we also know that those angels are locked up in the bottomless pit in utter darkness, so they're not able to do what they did before the flood. But we can't assume that all of the evil angels were locked up. I refer to those who weren't involved in the unholy union before the flood. These manifests as UFO's and other apparitions that deceive mankind.

We know from the testimony of Jesus, that demons like to inhabit the bodies of humans and animals. When they're not in a body they are not satisfied but miserable. When they inhabit a human, they are capable of causing much trouble. Adolph Hitler was an occultist and was most probably the home of one or more demons and look at what he did. Some accounts speak of Hitler excusing himself from his people and walking off alone, all the time arguing with voices that nobody else heard. Imagine a world where hundreds of millions of people were possessed by demons. It would be utter chaos, sort of like what is described in the Book of Revelation. Hmmm, are you starting to see the direction that I am pointing in?

Those angels that are left know that they are forbidden to have sexual relations with human females, so children are not possible through that process. There are hordes of demons just waiting to have bodies to infest, yet not so many people are willing to give up their personal sovereignty. The only thing left is to manufacture empty bodies for the demons to infest. That is why so many of those who are abducted claim that they have had sperm or eggs removed. The byproducts will be bodies for demons to possess. Through what is probably a real simple matter of gene manipulation by the fallen angelic beings, bodies of great strength and vitality could be manufactured for this purpose. They could work their way into the general population and not even be recognized, except by their deeds. They could get into places of high power and worm their way into every institution and wait for the Man of Sin to be revealed. Once that man is revealed, they could seize power and enslave mankind. You think things are bad now, just wait.

There is an interesting scripture that seems to suggest that this might happen. It is found in Daniel and the context is that the prophet Daniel is interpreting a dream that king Nebuchadnezzar had which troubled him. In that dream there was a great statue and he couldn't understand the dream. He finally summoned Daniel who told him about the dream:

Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Daniel 2:31-44

The dream that Nebuchadnezzar dreamed was actually a map of all of the future human kingdoms. The head was Babylon, the arms and chest was the Medio-Persian Empire, the belly and thighs were Greece and the legs of iron was Rome. I was always taught that the feet and toes of mixed iron and miry clay were the revived Roman Empire, made up of Europe as separate but joined countries of different strengths and this well might be true. But we have to look at one little part of that scripture that now stands out like a sore thumb. "And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay." The question now arises as to who is the “they,” who will mingle themselves with the seeds of men. This denotes that these personages are not true humans, and perhaps what the UFO community refers to as hybrids and what Genesis called Nephilim. Could the manufactured bodies for the spirits of the Nephilim be some sort of vain attempt at gaining a resurrection that is promised to happen to all humans at the end of time?

Yet another representation is sometimes missed in the scripture above. The two constituents of the toes on the figure were iron and clay. When God made Adam, he formed him from the dust of the Earth. There are many instances in scripture where mankind is equated with earthen vessels and pottery, both made of clay that comes from the Earth. Iron on the other hand is mentioned almost always as representative of power and force. One example is found in Daniel chapter seven:

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. Daniel 7:7

If you read the preceding verses of the chapter you will see that Daniel describes other beasts that will come into the world scene. One resembled a lion that had eagle’s wings and a man’s heart. The second beast was a bear that had ribs in its mouth. The third was a leopard that had four fowls wings on its back. Daniel is able to describe these three beasts in terms that he was familiar with because they were forms that he had seen before.

When we come to the fourth beast though, Daniel cannot compare it to anything he’d ever seen. There are only two part of the beast that he describes; iron teeth and that it had feet. It appears that the teeth break apart any of its pray and the residue that is left is just trampled over by its feet. Now bear in mind that the other beasts were all flesh and blood, but the fourth beast is iron teeth. Also bear in mind the scripture of the statue, where the feet and toes of that statue were iron and clay, they do not cleave with each other. The passage suggests that the fourth beast is something (or a constituency) that is not as a normal humanity. And, like before the flood and all the time after the flood, Satan and his minions have tried to wipe out the human race. We have to come to the conclusion that the beast with iron teeth and the iron of the feet and toes are the same as the Nephilim of old. Perhaps they will be presented in a prettier package, but the contents will be the same.

Now think about something else. Jesus tells us that during this time that:

Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Luke 21:26

And again, His words echo so clearly:

But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Matthew 24:27

I tend to believe that that world will be like the days of Noah before the flood. I believe that the Nephilim will make a return. That there will be a lot of UFO activity and that all of this will work together to deceive everyone who doesn't have faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. It's no wonder why men's hearts will fail them. They will witness mass murders rapes, pillaging and even cannibalism on a scale that hasn't been seen in millennia.

For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Matthew 24:21-11

When I read that verse in Matthew it reminds me of the passage in Enoch where the Nephilim had exhausted the resources of mankind and then started devouring the men themselves. The fear of being abused like that would give anyone a heart attack.

What Can I Do?

Well, the first thing you should do, if you haven't done so already is to get your life right with God. It's really simple to do. Just admit that your life without Him is a mess and ask Yeshua to come into your heart and tell Him that you'll trust Him to make you a new person. Scripture says that if you confess Jesus with your mouth, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, then you are saved. Remember that if you are experiencing alien abduction the only name that will get you out of that mess is the name of Jesus.

You should be in prayer always, not only for yourself and your loved ones, but for everyone who comes to mind while you are praying.

You must forsake worldly ways. That means making serious lifestyle changes. If you wouldn't do it with Jesus standing next to you, or say it with Him there, or watch it with Him there then you don't need to be doing it at all. Be totally set apart for Jesus Christ.

Read your Bible constantly, every chance you get.

Love the Lord Your God with all you heart, all your soul, all your mind and all your strength, and love your neighbor as yourself.

And finally, realize that there is a difference between persecution and the wrath of God. God has not appointed His people to wrath but will pour out His wrath on the people of this world who don't follow Him. If you're persecuted, it is because this world hates Jesus and if you are His, it hates you too.

Conclusion:

I sincerely hope that you've found this little study informative and I pray that it has spoken to your heart. We're heading for turbulent times and I pray the strength and love of our Father through the blood of Jesus Christ upon you. There are no restrictions to using this paper in its original content and wording. God Bless
