

YET ANOTHER REASON WHY I REFUSE TO USE THE TERM CHARISMATIC

Over the past few months I've looked at several aspects of the Charismatic Movement. Notice, I left out the word "Christian," from that title. I don't see many "Christian" things about it. I've been a Messianic believer in Yeshua since I was born again. I worked with Jews for Jesus as a volunteer in San Francisco for two or three years. I mention San Francisco because I've seen a lot of odd things, things you would not imagine walking on or around the streets of that modern-day Sodom. I once attended Charismatic services, when that movement was younger and not corrupted. I left when I saw the corruption starting. I've seen so much in my short 16 years as a believer in Yeshua. I've often wondered how much Yahweh will take before he will say, "that's enough, I'm pulling the plug." Evidently, that time has not come yet because the Charismatic movement, with all of its offshoots, like the NAR, that multi-tentacled entity, and many NAR and Charismatic churches going out their way (it seems) to see just how much they can piss off Yahweh before He lowers the boom.

Trust me, that boom will come crashing down. Maybe it will be with a false rapture event and a false resurrection event that will lead those astray into a place where they will never recover from. Imagine how the Emergent Church members will feel when they realize that they will be duped. They have not been taught how to be humble before Yahweh, so the only other reaction will be to get mad and curse Him. They will take the advice of Job's wife, so to speak. They've been taught that false signs and wonders are scripturally true and that everything that Yahweh finds offensive is okay with Yahweh. They've been taught that Grace supplants Torah and that they aren't accountable for anything. In effect, they've been taught that they are mini-gods and that they have dominion over all the earth. I have bad news; until Yeshua returns, there is only one person that can claim the Earth, and that is Satan. Perhaps they're not entirely wrong; they are being groomed to be his disciples anyway.

What I saw on the Web this week really disturbed me. I mean, I've seen so much that I should not be disturbed by anything anymore. I can understand why nothing surprises Yahweh, He knows what to expect and has from the beginning of time. I'm sure that most of you reading this have kids and/or grandkids and if not, you might have nieces and/or nephews. You like to think that your younger descendants are wise and you don't think that they'll do what the crazy neighbor's kids do. You've seen them do some stupid things, but you don't believe that they will do truly moronic things. You give them credit for having received some of the common sense that you've so difficultly tried to infuse into them. But you have to wonder if Yahweh, when watching His kids ever sits on His Throne and says, "I knew that they would do that but wished they wouldn't have." I know, that's impossible, but you wonder how many times Yeshua is going to stand in front of Aveinu asking that HE excuse some actions.

The video that I'm about to present is a travesty. this is the sort of bovine scatology that is being passed off as being Christian, but could not be further than the truth. Yes, they use the word Jesus, but so did the demons that addressed Yeshua when he was on earth. When I was younger, I had the chance to visit a lot of free concerts and some of them were really good. Some of them stank on ice because the singers were not there to glorify Yahweh, but to show off their skill at playing guitar, playing drums and seeing who could scream the loudest. Even in my earliest years as a believer I had the discernment to know that when something like this was being performed, I needed to leave. I knew that Yahweh wasn't there, so why should I be. One time when we left, we walked downtown Sacramento and actually got to feed and minister to an angel. That is another story for another day. However, when I witness modern audiences at events like that, or at Benny Hinn productions (add your charlatan to that name) or I see people being told to go out and eat grass like they are cows and hear the pastor mock them as they're doing it, or attending the event shown in the video below; and they're not getting up and leaving I find myself screaming at the video screen, "what in the blazes is wrong with you people, you're entertaining demons." And to make it worse they're all b-bopping around clapping or waving their hands in the air like what they're doing is pleasing to Yahweh. My goodness, that can't be farther from the truth. Click on the link below to see an example of what I'm talking about:

You tell me anything that was from Yahweh in that production! You tell me how that honored Him and brought glory to Him. If you can do that, I'll reveal the secret of how you can mate a jack rabbit with an antelope to produce a Jackalope.

Just yesterday I was reading an article from England that said that the Church of England is considering melding with pagans so that they can bring more spiritualists into the Church. Again, the question begs to be asked; how could anyone with any sort of spiritual sanity think that such actions would be sanctioned by Yahweh? Well, they're not:

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? and what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Corinthians 6:14-18

Do you see anything in the scripture above that says that “mixing” is okay? Do you see anything that says that we can worship Yahweh and any other at the same time? NO, there is nothing. We are exhorted to be a separate and sanctified people, Holy Unto Yahweh. And don’t think that you will be able to hoodwink Yahweh on the last day. I triple dog dare you to try to plead “grace” when the books are opened. Rebellion toward Yahweh is like witchcraft and its blasphemy toward the Ruach Ha Kodesh. Good luck with that one, if you’re going to try it. For goodness sakes people, if you know people that are into this sort of garbage, tell them about it before it sends them to hell. Sure, they might hate you for telling the truth, but isn’t it better that you at least tried to warn them. Read about Ezekiel as the watchman on the wall if you need that to convince you. We’re not here to please anyone but Yahweh. If people hate you for trying to do what is good, it is their problem, and it between them and Yahweh All you can do is pray for their souls. I’ve lost good relationships with relatives that I loved dearly because of Yeshua. We came to crossroads where the sign pointed straight and said narrow path and the other sign said highway. My loved ones took the highway because it isn’t lonely and it seems more certain. Sadly, when they get to the end of the highway they’ll drive straight off into hell unless they realize that they’re on the wrong road and get on the narrow road.

Please, if you’re involved in something that seems wonderful, and you’re seeking the “feeling” of the Ruach Ha Kodesh, then you’re into it for the wrong reasons. Yahweh only accepts people who come to Him with humble and contrite hearts and who are willing to love Him and be obedient to Him. That’s your part of the contract; He takes care of everything else. I hope and pray that as the days march on, more and more eyes are opened to the deceptiveness, lies and horrors of the Charismatic movement and its thousands of little facets. Come home to Yeshua while there is still time.
